Cevap 4 When a person recognizes his helplessness before Allah, that weakness becomes a reason to seek nearness, protection, and inward peace rather than pride in himself.	Cevap 3 He remembers that he belongs to Allah and will return to Him, then places his reliance on his Merciful Lord.	Cevap 2 It says a person who knows his own weakness and leans on the Lord of all creation has no real reason to panic, because he entrusts his affairs to the One whose command is always effective.	Cevap 1 One is trust in Allah together with patience, and the other is depending on the Creator's power while being confident in His wisdom.
Cevap 8 They openly admitted they had no independent strength and turned to Allah for support.	Cevap 7 It is reverent fear of Allah that pushes a person to seek refuge in Him, not hopeless terror.	Cevap 6 Because the passage says a mother's mercy is only a tiny sign of Allah's far greater mercy.	Cevap 5 The example is of a baby who feels vulnerable and, because of that need, finds comfort and safety in the mother's care.
Cevap 12 Because weakness becomes a reason to depend on Allah rather than on one's limited self.	Cevap 11 It consists of relying on Allah's power and being confident that His wisdom is sound.	Cevap 10 It consists of trusting Allah and being patient.	Cevap 9 They denied any independent power in themselves and sought help from Allah alone.

13 What belief about Allah makes reliance reasonable in the passage?	14 What words is the believer said to remember during disaster?	15 What emotional change takes place when someone knows Allah properly?	16 What lesson is taught through the image of the infant?

Cevap 16 True sweetness can be found not in self-sufficiency, but in recognizing need and seeking shelter in mercy.	Cevap 15 Fear and weakness are transformed into a source of comfort because they lead the person to divine refuge.	Cevap 14 He remembers that he belongs to Allah and will return to Him.	Cevap 13 Allah is described as having absolute authority and power, so turning to Him is the most secure response.
Cevap 20 They are trust in Allah with patience, and reliance on His power with confidence in His wisdom.	Cevap 19 They address fear, helplessness, and the burden of facing hardship with only one's own limited ability.	Cevap 18 It teaches that if even created mercy gives comfort, then turning to Allah's mercy gives far greater peace.	Cevap 17 A mother's tenderness is presented as only a very small reflection of Allah's mercy.
Cevap 24 He remembers his belonging to Allah, his return to Him, and then entrusts himself to divine care.	Cevap 23 To show that the One being trusted has unlimited power and is fully able to help.	Cevap 22 A person who knows his weakness and relies on the Lord of the world.	Cevap 21 It gives a strong affirmation that they do work and then explains why.
