Cevap 4 They are acts of worship through which a believer glorifies Allah, praises Him, and thanks Him.	Cevap 3 Because those times gather many blessings and show Allah's actions in the world, so they call for more worship, praise, and gratitude.	Cevap 2 Each one is presented as the beginning of a significant turning point and as a sign reflecting Allah's power and gifts.	Cevap 1 It introduces the wisdom behind why the five daily prayers are tied to specific times.
Cevap 8 The five obligatory prayers performed each day.	Cevap 7 The times reveal His management of the universe and also remind people of the many blessings He gives, so they call for awe and thankfulness.	Cevap 6 The listener should pay close attention along with the speaker's own lower self and consider the five points that will follow.	Cevap 5 He says he will mention only one aspect of the wisdom found in them, not every aspect.
Cevap 12 To show that each prayer comes after a stretch of time filled with gifts from Allah that deserve gratitude.	Cevap 11 They are to glorify Allah more, honor Him, and thank Him for His many favors.	Cevap 10 Each time marks an important shift and also reflects divine activity and blessings.	Cevap 9 It is answering why the five prayers are assigned to particular times.

13 What does this suggest about the relationship between time and worship?	14 Does the passage claim to give a full explanation of the wisdom of prayer times or a limited one? Explain.	15 What Qur'anic idea appears at the start of the passage before the explanation begins?	16 How does that opening idea support the discussion that follows?

Cevap 16 It sets the foundation for explaining why worship is connected to certain times of day.	Cevap 15 It begins with a call to glorify and praise Allah at different parts of the day.	Cevap 14 It gives a limited explanation, because only one example of that wisdom is being pointed out.	Cevap 13 It suggests that time is not empty; it carries signs and blessings that should lead a person to worship.
Cevap 20 The deeper wisdom behind the prayer times and why worship is linked to them.	Cevap 19 It means they reflect signs of Allah's power and the blessings He sends into creation.	Cevap 18 Because those moments are especially suitable for remembering Allah and thanking Him.	Cevap 17 It shows His ordering, control, and giving of blessings in the universe.
Cevap 24 Glorifying Allah, praising Him, and thanking Him.	Cevap 23 Each time also points to Allah's power at work and the widespread favors found within that activity.	Cevap 22 The claim is that those times were chosen with wisdom because they correspond to meaningful changes and divine blessings.	Cevap 21 It shows humility and suggests that the reminder is meant for both the speaker and the listener.
