

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 1

1-) What two beliefs are presented at the beginning of the passage as especially powerful for human life? (9 kelime)

Belief in

2-) According to the passage, what do these beliefs do for the “riddle” of existence? (8 kelime)

They provide

3-) What religious practices are described as supplies for the hereafter and light for the grave? (15 kelime)

Listening to the

4-) What worship practices are said to benefit a person after death? (13 kelime)

Listening to the

5-) What stood in front of the soldier, and why was it terrifying? (22 kelime)

A gallows stood before him,

6-) Why is the long journey important in the comparison? (16 kelime)

It shows that the

7-) What promise was made about the two talismans if the soldier used them correctly? (15 kelime)

The lion would

8-) What transformation is promised for the lion and the gallows? (18 kelime)

One would become a

9-) How was the soldier told to verify whether these gifts were real? (8 kelime)

He was

10-) What role does personal verification play in the passage? (11 kelime)

It serves

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 2

1-) In the opening sentence, the phrase of faith is divided into two parts. What are those two parts?
(9 kelime)

Faith in

2-) What three broad benefits are attached to the religious life described at the start of the passage?
(17 kelime)

It helps explain creation,

3-) What acts are compared to tickets and travel provisions for the next life? (13 kelime)
Hearing the Qur'an,

4-) Why is the soldier a fitting example for the human condition in this passage? (15 kelime)
He is surrounded

5-) How do the lion and the gallows increase the pressure of the scene? (16 kelime)
They show danger from

6-) What does the passage suggest by comparing the helper to Khidr? (12 kelime)
It suggests divinely

7-) What three kinds of aid did the helper offer? (7 kelime)
Two

8-) What can be inferred from the phrase about traveling almost as if flying? (11 kelime)
The aid

9-) Why is the change of the wounds into flowers an especially striking image? (15 kelime)
It shows not

10-) What response does the passage seem to invite from the reader? (13 kelime)
Serious attention, trust

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 3

1-) What central message is introduced through the phrase about believing in Allah and the Last Day? (14 kelime)

These two beliefs

2-) How are these beliefs described in relation to the mysteries of existence? (13 kelime)

They are presented

3-) What does the battlefield setting add to the meaning of the comparison? (17 kelime)

It shows that human

4-) Where was the soldier when the comparison begins, and what does that setting imply? (12 kelime)

He was in

5-) What does the helper's command not to despair teach before any solution is applied? (12 kelime)

It teaches that

6-) In what mood was the soldier when help arrived? (6 kelime)

He

7-) How is the ticket different from the medicines? (15 kelime)

The medicines deal

8-) What would happen if he followed the directions for the medicines? (8 kelime)

His painful

9-) What does the soldier's affirmation after testing show about his attitude? (8 kelime)

He moved

10-) What conclusion did the soldier reach after trying what he was given? (8 kelime)

He accepted

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 4

1-) What two beliefs are treated as the foundation of the whole passage? (9 kelime)

Belief in

2-) Besides those two beliefs, what attitudes toward Allah are described as healing and beneficial? (20 kelime)

Depending on Him, seeking shelter

3-) What spiritual responses are linked with healing from hardship? (16 kelime)

Trusting Allah, seeking His

4-) What surrounded the soldier on his sides and behind him? (17 kelime)

He had two serious

5-) In the same story, what kind of danger does the gallows represent? (6 kelime)

It

6-) Who came to the soldier in that moment of despair? (10 kelime)

A bright,

7-) How does the helper respond to the soldier's despair? (9 kelime)

He gives

8-) What was the purpose of the ticket given to the soldier? (14 kelime)

It would let

9-) What does the mention of instructions suggest about the medicines? (10 kelime)

Their benefit

10-) How does the speaker connect himself to the soldier's experience? (12 kelime)

He says he

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 5

1-) What are the first words of belief highlighted in the passage? (8 kelime)

Faith in

2-) What does the passage say reliance on one's Creator and turning to Him through patience and supplication are like? (9 kelime)

They are

3-) Which acts of obedience are treated as essential rather than optional extras? (12 kelime)

Listening to the

4-) What do the soldier's two wounds suggest about his condition even before the explanation is given later? (8 kelime)

They suggest

5-) How is the helper different from an ordinary bystander? (8 kelime)

He brings

6-) What qualities of the helper make him credible and hopeful in the scene? (13 kelime)

He appears kind,

7-) Why is the offer of a ticket important in addition to the offer of healing? (20 kelime)

Because the soldier does not

8-) What does the promised change of the gallows into a swing suggest? (13 kelime)

It suggests that

9-) What is the purpose of the narrator's personal witness? (13 kelime)

To show that

10-) Why does the speaker add his own testimony at the end? (15 kelime)

To strengthen trust

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 6

1-) What confession of faith stands at the center of the target passage? (9 kelime)

Belief in

2-) Which actions in the passage are connected with preparation for that journey? (12 kelime)

Listening to the

3-) What does the passage say serves as preparation for the life after death? (14 kelime)

Receiving the Qur'an's

4-) Why would the soldier naturally feel trapped? (12 kelime)

Harm surrounded him

5-) What do the two wounds contribute to the picture of the soldier? (15 kelime)

They show that

6-) What does that condition suggest about receiving spiritual benefit? (10 kelime)

Benefit requires

7-) What would happen if the soldier used the two talismans correctly? (17 kelime)

The dangerous lion and

8-) Why is testing the gifts only "a bit" significant? (12 kelime)

It suggests that

9-) Why is the command to experiment important for comprehension of the passage? (14 kelime)

It shows that

10-) Overall, what is the comparison trying to persuade the reader to do? (15 kelime)

To embrace faith,

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two beliefs are presented at the beginning of the passage as especially powerful for human life?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Last Day.

2-) According to the passage, what do these beliefs do for the “riddle” of existence?

They provide an answer that makes existence understandable.

3-) What religious practices are described as supplies for the hereafter and light for the grave?

Listening to the Qur’an, following its commands, establishing the required prayers, and avoiding major sins.

4-) What worship practices are said to benefit a person after death?

Listening to the Qur’an, obeying it, praying, and staying away from major sins.

5-) What stood in front of the soldier, and why was it terrifying?

A gallows stood before him, and it was terrifying because it was destroying those he loved and was waiting for him too.

6-) Why is the long journey important in the comparison?

It shows that the soldier’s struggle is not brief; he must travel through a difficult path.

7-) What promise was made about the two talismans if the soldier used them correctly?

The lion would become harmless and useful, and the gallows would turn into something pleasant.

8-) What transformation is promised for the lion and the gallows?

One would become a ride that serves him, and the other would become something joyful instead of dreadful.

9-) How was the soldier told to verify whether these gifts were real?

He was told to test them for himself.

10-) What role does personal verification play in the passage?

It serves as proof through direct experience rather than blind acceptance.

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the opening sentence, the phrase of faith is divided into two parts. What are those two parts?
Faith in Allah and faith in the Last Day.

2-) What three broad benefits are attached to the religious life described at the start of the passage?
It helps explain creation, heals the human condition, and prepares a person for the life to come.

3-) What acts are compared to tickets and travel provisions for the next life?
Hearing the Qur'an, obeying it, praying regularly, and staying away from grave sins.

4-) Why is the soldier a fitting example for the human condition in this passage?
He is surrounded by danger, weakness, and uncertainty, just as people often are in life.

5-) How do the lion and the gallows increase the pressure of the scene?
They show danger from more than one direction and make the soldier feel trapped by fear.

6-) What does the passage suggest by comparing the helper to Khidr?
It suggests divinely guided help and wisdom appearing at a critical moment.

7-) What three kinds of aid did the helper offer?
Two talismans, two medicines, and one ticket.

8-) What can be inferred from the phrase about traveling almost as if flying?
The aid offered would make an otherwise exhausting journey remarkably easy.

9-) Why is the change of the wounds into flowers an especially striking image?
It shows not just relief from pain, but a transformation into something beautiful and pleasing.

10-) What response does the passage seem to invite from the reader?
Serious attention, trust in Allah, and willingness to live by the guidance mentioned.

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What central message is introduced through the phrase about believing in Allah and the Last Day?

These two beliefs are presented as essential for understanding life and finding lasting happiness.

2-) How are these beliefs described in relation to the mysteries of existence?

They are presented as the means by which those mysteries can be understood.

3-) What does the battlefield setting add to the meaning of the comparison?

It shows that human life is a serious test where one faces danger, struggle, and decisive outcomes.

4-) Where was the soldier when the comparison begins, and what does that setting imply?

He was in a battlefield-like place of testing, implying struggle and danger.

5-) What does the helper's command not to despair teach before any solution is applied?

It teaches that even in extreme hardship, hope should not be abandoned.

6-) In what mood was the soldier when help arrived?

He was hopeless and deeply distressed.

7-) How is the ticket different from the medicines?

The medicines deal with the soldier's wounds, while the ticket helps him complete the journey.

8-) What would happen if he followed the directions for the medicines?

His painful wounds would turn into sweet-smelling flowers.

9-) What does the soldier's affirmation after testing show about his attitude?

He moved from fear and uncertainty to conviction.

10-) What conclusion did the soldier reach after trying what he was given?

He accepted that the helper's words were true.

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two beliefs are treated as the foundation of the whole passage?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Last Day.

2-) Besides those two beliefs, what attitudes toward Allah are described as healing and beneficial?

Depending on Him, seeking shelter with Him through patience and prayer, and thanking Him while turning to Him for provision.

3-) What spiritual responses are linked with healing from hardship?

Trusting Allah, seeking His protection through patience and prayer, and thanking Him while asking from Him.

4-) What surrounded the soldier on his sides and behind him?

He had two serious wounds on his sides, and a lion was behind him ready to attack.

5-) In the same story, what kind of danger does the gallows represent?

It represents unavoidable destruction waiting ahead.

6-) Who came to the soldier in that moment of despair?

A bright, kind figure like Khidr appeared to help him.

7-) How does the helper respond to the soldier's despair?

He gives him hope and practical means of rescue.

8-) What was the purpose of the ticket given to the soldier?

It would let him complete a very long journey in an amazingly short time.

9-) What does the mention of instructions suggest about the medicines?

Their benefit depends on being used in the right way.

10-) How does the speaker connect himself to the soldier's experience?

He says he personally tested the matter too and confirmed its truth.

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What are the first words of belief highlighted in the passage?

Faith in Allah and in the Last Day.

2-) What does the passage say reliance on one's Creator and turning to Him through patience and supplication are like?

They are like remedies that bring benefit and healing.

3-) Which acts of obedience are treated as essential rather than optional extras?

Listening to the Qur'an, following its guidance, praying, and avoiding major sins.

4-) What do the soldier's two wounds suggest about his condition even before the explanation is given later?

They suggest deep vulnerability, suffering, and urgent need.

5-) How is the helper different from an ordinary bystander?

He brings light, compassion, guidance, and effective solutions.

6-) What qualities of the helper make him credible and hopeful in the scene?

He appears kind, radiant, confident, and able to offer a clear way out.

7-) Why is the offer of a ticket important in addition to the offer of healing?

Because the soldier does not only need relief from pain; he also needs a way to complete the journey ahead.

8-) What does the promised change of the gallows into a swing suggest?

It suggests that something frightening can be transformed into something no longer terrifying.

9-) What is the purpose of the narrator's personal witness?

To show that the comparison points to a truth he has experienced himself.

10-) Why does the speaker add his own testimony at the end?

To strengthen trust in the comparison by saying he also found it true through experience.

lisans short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What confession of faith stands at the center of the target passage?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Last Day.

2-) Which actions in the passage are connected with preparation for that journey?

Listening to the Qur'an, obeying its guidance, praying, and leaving major sins.

3-) What does the passage say serves as preparation for the life after death?

Receiving the Qur'an's guidance, obeying it, performing the required prayers, and avoiding major sins.

4-) Why would the soldier naturally feel trapped?

Harm surrounded him from multiple sides, and he saw no easy escape.

5-) What do the two wounds contribute to the picture of the soldier?

They show that he is already hurt and not strong enough to rely on himself.

6-) What does that condition suggest about receiving spiritual benefit?

Benefit requires acceptance, trust, and correct practice, not just possession.

7-) What would happen if the soldier used the two talismans correctly?

The dangerous lion and the frightening gallows would be transformed into things that no longer harmed him.

8-) Why is testing the gifts only "a bit" significant?

It suggests that even a small sincere trial can reveal their truth.

9-) Why is the command to experiment important for comprehension of the passage?

It shows that the truth being taught is meant to be verified through experience.

10-) Overall, what is the comparison trying to persuade the reader to do?

To embrace faith, worship, patience, gratitude, and obedience as the real answer to life's hardships.