

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 1

1-) Based on the passage, what condition is the human soul in at the time of Fajr? (15 kelime)

It is in

2-) At the start of the day, where should a person turn according to the passage? (11 kelime)

A person

3-) What two actions are especially highlighted for Fajr in this passage? (11 kelime)

Calling on

4-) What divine qualities are emphasized as reasons to turn to Allah at that time? (7 kelime)

His

5-) Why is seeking Allah's help in the early morning presented as necessary? (15 kelime)

Because a person

6-) According to the passage, what does a believer ask Allah for besides general help? (7 kelime)

Success

7-) How does the passage connect morning prayer to the coming day? (12 kelime)

It presents morning

8-) Give a one-sentence summary of the passage. (21 kelime)

Since people are weak and

9-) If you had to state the passage's message in student-friendly language, what would it be? (21 kelime)

Begin your day with sincere

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 2

1-) Why does the passage describe early morning as an especially important time for turning to Allah? (19 kelime)

Because it is the

2-) In the passage, what does making a petition to Allah mean in simple terms? (10 kelime)

It means

3-) What does the passage suggest about the relationship between human weakness and prayer? (20 kelime)

Prayer is the fitting response

4-) How is Allah described in a way that comforts the believer? (12 kelime)

He is shown

5-) What future realities of the day make prayer necessary in the passage? (15 kelime)

The events a

6-) What role does supplication play at Fajr according to the passage? (14 kelime)

It helps a

7-) Does the passage present prayer as optional self-expression or as a real need? Explain briefly. (17 kelime)

It presents prayer as

8-) Is the passage focused more on remembering the past or preparing for what is ahead? (10 kelime)

It is

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -
Set 3

1-) What does the phrase about the soul's state point back to within the passage itself? (14 kelime)
It points to

2-) At Fajr, what is said to be easy to understand? (16 kelime)
It is easy to

3-) According to the passage, what is the proper response of the human spirit to its condition? (13 kelime)
It should seek

4-) Which matters are specifically requested from Allah in the passage? (5 kelime)
A

5-) Why is Allah's power important in the logic of this passage? (14 kelime)
Because only the

6-) Why is Allah's compassion important in the logic of this passage? (10 kelime)
Because the

7-) What does the passage say prayer enables a person to do later in the day? (12 kelime)
It enables the

8-) What kind of outward benefit does it give according to the passage? (12 kelime)
It helps a

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 4

1-) What time of day is the focus of the target passage? (5 kelime)

The

2-) For a person in the condition described, what is said to be essential at that time? (7 kelime)

Turning

3-) In the passage, is prayer mainly presented as a ritual habit or as a means of seeking divine aid?

(11 kelime)

It is

4-) What does the passage teach about the coming day? (18 kelime)

It teaches that the

5-) Why does the passage mention both prayer and supplication instead of only one of them? (14 kelime)

To show both

6-) How do Allah's names and attributes strengthen the message of the passage? (18 kelime)

They show that the

7-) What kind of inner benefit does Fajr prayer give according to the passage? (8 kelime)

It gives

8-) According to the passage, what gives a person the ability to bear those duties? (11 kelime)

The support

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -
Set 5

1-) According to the passage, why is the human spirit especially in need at dawn? (21 kelime)
Because it is about to

2-) What is the first thing the soul should do at that time? (11 kelime)
It should

3-) How is Allah presented in a way that inspires trust? (9 kelime)
He is

4-) What does the passage say prayer becomes for the believer at Fajr? (5 kelime)
It

5-) Support for what two main challenges? (12 kelime)
For meeting what

6-) What is one strong summary statement for this passage? (19 kelime)
The morning prayer is

7-) What does the phrase about duties being loaded on a person suggest? (13 kelime)
It suggests that

8-) What is the central claim of the passage? (20 kelime)
Because humans are needy and lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 6

1-) What does the passage say can be understood clearly? (12 kelime)

That the soul

2-) What picture of the human being is assumed in this passage? (15 kelime)

A person who

3-) To whom is the believer directed to present requests? (11 kelime)

To Allah,

4-) Why does the passage stress Allah's compassion along with His power? (15 kelime)

Because the soul

5-) What is the practical purpose of turning to Allah in the morning? (11 kelime)

To receive

6-) What does the phrase about the things that will happen during the day suggest? (12 kelime)

It suggests uncertainty,

7-) What is the main idea of the passage? (19 kelime)

Fajr prayer is deeply

8-) What attitude toward Allah is encouraged by the whole passage? (8 kelime)

Dependence, humility,

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Based on the passage, what condition is the human soul in at the time of Fajr?

It is in a needy, weak, and burdened condition, so it needs help and support.

2-) At the start of the day, where should a person turn according to the passage?

A person should turn to Allah through prayer and earnest asking.

3-) What two actions are especially highlighted for Fajr in this passage?

Calling on Allah in prayer and presenting one's needs to Him.

4-) What divine qualities are emphasized as reasons to turn to Allah at that time?

His complete power, glory, compassion, and beauty.

5-) Why is seeking Allah's help in the early morning presented as necessary?

Because a person will face many events during the day and must carry serious responsibilities.

6-) According to the passage, what does a believer ask Allah for besides general help?

Success and assistance in what lies ahead.

7-) How does the passage connect morning prayer to the coming day?

It presents morning prayer as preparation for whatever the day will bring.

8-) Give a one-sentence summary of the passage.

Since people are weak and face many demands, the early morning is a crucial time to seek Allah's help through prayer.

9-) If you had to state the passage's message in student-friendly language, what would it be?

Begin your day with sincere prayer, because you need Allah's help to handle whatever the day puts in front of you.

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why does the passage describe early morning as an especially important time for turning to Allah?

Because it is the beginning of the day, when a person needs guidance and strength for what is coming.

2-) In the passage, what does making a petition to Allah mean in simple terms?

It means asking Him sincerely for help, success, and support.

3-) What does the passage suggest about the relationship between human weakness and prayer?

Prayer is the fitting response to human weakness because it connects a person to the One who has full power.

4-) How is Allah described in a way that comforts the believer?

He is shown as mighty and glorious, but also compassionate and beautiful.

5-) What future realities of the day make prayer necessary in the passage?

The events a person will meet and the duties that will be placed on him.

6-) What role does supplication play at Fajr according to the passage?

It helps a person seek divine aid before engaging the demands of the day.

7-) Does the passage present prayer as optional self-expression or as a real need? Explain briefly.

It presents prayer as a real need, since the soul requires support to meet the day properly.

8-) Is the passage focused more on remembering the past or preparing for what is ahead?

It is focused more on preparing for what is ahead.

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the phrase about the soul's state point back to within the passage itself?

It points to the soul's needy and dependent condition as described in the sentence.

2-) At Fajr, what is said to be easy to understand?

It is easy to understand that the soul urgently needs to turn to Allah in prayer.

3-) According to the passage, what is the proper response of the human spirit to its condition?

It should seek refuge in Allah by praying and asking Him for aid.

4-) Which matters are specifically requested from Allah in the passage?

A good outcome and help.

5-) Why is Allah's power important in the logic of this passage?

Because only the One with full power can truly help a weak human being.

6-) Why is Allah's compassion important in the logic of this passage?

Because the needy soul needs mercy as well as strength.

7-) What does the passage say prayer enables a person to do later in the day?

It enables the person to face coming events and carry assigned responsibilities.

8-) What kind of outward benefit does it give according to the passage?

It helps a person bear the tasks and pressures of the day.

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What time of day is the focus of the target passage?

The early morning at Fajr.

2-) For a person in the condition described, what is said to be essential at that time?

Turning to Allah with prayer and supplication.

3-) In the passage, is prayer mainly presented as a ritual habit or as a means of seeking divine aid?

It is presented mainly as a means of seeking divine aid.

4-) What does the passage teach about the coming day?

It teaches that the day will bring events and responsibilities that a person must be ready to meet.

5-) Why does the passage mention both prayer and supplication instead of only one of them?

To show both worshipful turning to Allah and directly asking Him for one's needs.

6-) How do Allah's names and attributes strengthen the message of the passage?

They show that the One being asked is fully able to help and deeply merciful toward His servants.

7-) What kind of inner benefit does Fajr prayer give according to the passage?

It gives support and steadiness to the soul.

8-) According to the passage, what gives a person the ability to bear those duties?

The support that comes from prayer and asking Allah for help.

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, why is the human spirit especially in need at dawn?

Because it is about to enter a new day filled with events and obligations it cannot handle well on its own.

2-) What is the first thing the soul should do at that time?

It should turn to Allah and place its needs before Him.

3-) How is Allah presented in a way that inspires trust?

He is described as absolutely powerful and deeply compassionate.

4-) What does the passage say prayer becomes for the believer at Fajr?

It becomes a necessary support.

5-) Support for what two main challenges?

For meeting what will happen during the day and carrying its duties.

6-) What is one strong summary statement for this passage?

The morning prayer is essential because it prepares a needy human being to live the day with Allah's help.

7-) What does the phrase about duties being loaded on a person suggest?

It suggests that daily responsibilities can feel heavy and require strength to carry.

8-) What is the central claim of the passage?

Because humans are needy and the day carries many burdens, Fajr prayer is a necessary source of strength and help.

lisans short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say can be understood clearly?

That the soul urgently needs to seek Allah through prayer at Fajr.

2-) What picture of the human being is assumed in this passage?

A person who is limited, needy, and in need of support before facing the day.

3-) To whom is the believer directed to present requests?

To Allah, the One of perfect power, glory, mercy, and beauty.

4-) Why does the passage stress Allah's compassion along with His power?

Because the soul needs not only ability from Allah but also His mercy and care.

5-) What is the practical purpose of turning to Allah in the morning?

To receive help for the day before its challenges fully arrive.

6-) What does the phrase about the things that will happen during the day suggest?

It suggests uncertainty, tests, and experiences that the person cannot fully control.

7-) What is the main idea of the passage?

Fajr prayer is deeply necessary because human beings begin the day in need of Allah's mercy, help, and strength.

8-) What attitude toward Allah is encouraged by the whole passage?

Dependence, humility, trust, and active turning to Him.