

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 1

1-) What basic contrast in the passage helps explain why worship is so important for a human being? (27 kelime)

A human being is outwardly fragile

2-) How does that contrast prepare the reader for the discussion of worship? (16 kelime)

It shows that worship

3-) In what ways does worship deal with a person's desires, hopes, and thoughts? (11 kelime)

It corrects

4-) How does worship help a person deal with scattered ambitions and thoughts? (11 kelime)

It makes

5-) Why is worship not presented as something involving only one part of the person? (10 kelime)

Because true

6-) What does the passage teach about partial worship done by only one side of the person? (16 kelime)

It implies that full

7-) What role may benefits and wisdoms of worship play if sincerity is preserved? (13 kelime)

They may encourage

8-) What is the clearest sign of sincerity in worship according to the second paragraph? (9 kelime)

The act

9-) What is the correct intention in worship even when worship has many benefits? (8 kelime)

The correct

10-) What is the difference between being encouraged by a benefit and worshipping for a benefit? (19 kelime)

In the first case,

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 2

1-) How does the passage describe the human being's condition on the physical side? (10 kelime)
Physically, the

2-) What does worship do for the human spirit itself? (5 kelime)
It

3-) What does worship do for the capacities already placed inside a person? (8 kelime)
It opens

4-) Which parts of personal life are directly improved by worship in the passage? (11 kelime)
Desires, hopes,

5-) What mental benefit of worship is mentioned in the passage? (11 kelime)
It brings

6-) What does worship do to the bodily and spiritual faculties that have been clouded over? (10 kelime)
It cleans

7-) According to the passage, what is required for worship to lift a person to full dignity? (11 kelime)
Worship must

8-) What is the outcome of that complete worship? (10 kelime)
It lifts

9-) What is the difference between a valid supporting motive and an invalid main motive in worship? (17 kelime)
A valid supporting motive

10-) What is the right place of the benefits of worship in a believer's intention? (15 kelime)
They may support

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 3

1-) What main claim does the first paragraph of the passage make about worship and the human person? (13 kelime)

It claims that

2-) How does the passage portray the human condition before discussing worship's effects? (15 kelime)

It portrays humans

3-) How does worship affect a person's spiritual rank? (11 kelime)

It elevates

4-) In what sense is worship a corrective force in human life? (9 kelime)

It straightens

5-) How does worship shape a person's intellectual life? (9 kelime)

It gathers

6-) What is the significance of saying worship removes rust from bodily and spiritual members? (16 kelime)

It means worship clears

7-) Why is worship described as involving the whole human being? (13 kelime)

Because real human

8-) What does the passage identify as the summit of human perfection? (11 kelime)

The highest

9-) What judgment is given about worship done mainly to gain those benefits? (7 kelime)

It

10-) If a student says, "I pray only because it reduces my stress," how would the passage evaluate that intention? (20 kelime)

It would judge that intention

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 4

1-) What two sides of the human being are set side by side at the start of the passage? (16 kelime)
One side is bodily

2-) What future goal does worship help a person become fit for? (9 kelime)
It helps

3-) What phrase in meaning best captures worship's effect on a person's moral tendencies? (5 kelime)
It

4-) What image is used to describe the human body and spirit when they are purified? (21 kelime)
They are described as becoming

5-) What is suggested by the idea that human faculties can become clear like windows? (12 kelime)
It suggests that

6-) How is sincerity in worship defined here? (9 kelime)
It means

7-) How is worship more than a set of actions in this passage? (14 kelime)
It is also

8-) What distinction does the passage make between the true basis of worship and its helpful side benefits? (14 kelime)
The command of

9-) What is the highest level of human perfection identified here? (10 kelime)
It is

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 5

1-) According to the passage, what makes the human being unusual among creatures? (17 kelime)
The human being combines

2-) What does the comparison to an index of all species and worlds suggest about human nature? (19 kelime)
It suggests that the

3-) What connection is made between worship and eternal happiness? (11 kelime)
Worship prepares

4-) How does worship help with a person's longings for the future? (10 kelime)
It helps

5-) What kind of order does worship bring to the mind? (7 kelime)
It

6-) What does the passage mean by removing the rust from a person's members? (18 kelime)
It means cleansing the

7-) Why does the passage mention conscience, mind, heart, and body together? (14 kelime)
To show that

8-) Why does the passage present that relationship as the peak of human perfection? (16 kelime)
Because the highest human

9-) What place does the passage give to the wisdoms and benefits found in acts of worship? (17 kelime)
They are acknowledged as lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 6

1-) What central teaching about worship and self-development appears in the passage? (19 kelime)
Worship is presented as

2-) What features of human nature show that people are meant for more than animal life? (14 kelime)
People have a

3-) What does the passage say worship does for a person's abilities? (7 kelime)
It

4-) What is the link between worship and character reform in this passage? (7 kelime)
Worship

5-) How does it help a person who has many scattered thoughts? (6 kelime)
It

6-) What can be inferred from the window image used for the human faculties? (15 kelime)
When a person

7-) Why is worship called a lofty connection rather than just an obligation? (13 kelime)
Because it joins

8-) How does the passage define sincere worship in one core principle? (11 kelime)
Sincere worship

9-) When are the benefits of worship acceptable in a person's motivation? (17 kelime)
They are acceptable when

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What basic contrast in the passage helps explain why worship is so important for a human being?
A human being is outwardly fragile and limited, yet inwardly carries a high soul, wide capacities, and far-reaching longings. Worship matters because it develops that inner side.

2-) How does that contrast prepare the reader for the discussion of worship?
It shows that worship answers the needs of the deeper human reality, not just the body.

3-) In what ways does worship deal with a person's desires, hopes, and thoughts?
It corrects desires, helps hopes reach good results, and organizes thoughts.

4-) How does worship help a person deal with scattered ambitions and thoughts?
It makes hopes productive and puts thoughts into a disciplined structure.

5-) Why is worship not presented as something involving only one part of the person?
Because true worship includes conscience, mind, heart, and body together.

6-) What does the passage teach about partial worship done by only one side of the person?
It implies that full elevation requires worship to engage all major dimensions of the person together.

7-) What role may benefits and wisdoms of worship play if sincerity is preserved?
They may encourage a person, but they must not become the main motive.

8-) What is the clearest sign of sincerity in worship according to the second paragraph?
The act is done because it has been commanded.

9-) What is the correct intention in worship even when worship has many benefits?
The correct intention is obeying the divine command.

10-) What is the difference between being encouraged by a benefit and worshipping for a benefit?
In the first case, obedience remains central; in the second case, personal gain replaces obedience and spoils the act.

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage describe the human being's condition on the physical side?

Physically, the human being is small, weak, and lacking power.

2-) What does worship do for the human spirit itself?

It broadens and uplifts it.

3-) What does worship do for the capacities already placed inside a person?

It opens them up and helps them mature.

4-) Which parts of personal life are directly improved by worship in the passage?

Desires, hopes, thoughts, and inner powers are all improved by it.

5-) What mental benefit of worship is mentioned in the passage?

It brings a person's thoughts together and puts them in order.

6-) What does worship do to the bodily and spiritual faculties that have been clouded over?

It cleans them so they become clear and useful again.

7-) According to the passage, what is required for worship to lift a person to full dignity?

Worship must be carried out with conscience, mind, heart, and body.

8-) What is the outcome of that complete worship?

It lifts the person to true human dignity and fulfillment.

9-) What is the difference between a valid supporting motive and an invalid main motive in worship?

A valid supporting motive only encourages worship, while an invalid main motive replaces obedience with personal gain.

10-) What is the right place of the benefits of worship in a believer's intention?

They may support the person's resolve, but they cannot replace obedience as the main reason.

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main claim does the first paragraph of the passage make about worship and the human person?

It claims that worship is a cause of personal growth, refinement, and completion.

2-) How does the passage portray the human condition before discussing worship's effects?

It portrays humans as physically weak but inwardly rich in spirit, desire, thought, and possibility.

3-) How does worship affect a person's spiritual rank?

It elevates the person and gives greater value to his life.

4-) In what sense is worship a corrective force in human life?

It straightens distorted tendencies and disciplines the inner powers.

5-) How does worship shape a person's intellectual life?

It gathers thoughts and puts them into proper order.

6-) What is the significance of saying worship removes rust from bodily and spiritual members?

It means worship clears away what dulls human faculties so they can reflect truth and purpose.

7-) Why is worship described as involving the whole human being?

Because real human perfection requires harmony between inner awareness, thought, feeling, and action.

8-) What does the passage identify as the summit of human perfection?

The highest point is that honored relationship with the One worshipped.

9-) What judgment is given about worship done mainly to gain those benefits?

It is not accepted as sound worship.

10-) If a student says, "I pray only because it reduces my stress," how would the passage evaluate that intention?

It would judge that intention as defective because stress relief has been made the main motive instead of obeying Allah.

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two sides of the human being are set side by side at the start of the passage?

One side is bodily weakness and limitation, and the other is inward nobility and vast possibility.

2-) What future goal does worship help a person become fit for?

It helps a person become deserving of everlasting happiness.

3-) What phrase in meaning best captures worship's effect on a person's moral tendencies?

It corrects and cleanses them.

4-) What image is used to describe the human body and spirit when they are purified?

They are described as becoming clear openings through which a person can view both his own world and the human world.

5-) What is suggested by the idea that human faculties can become clear like windows?

It suggests that purification allows those faculties to show reality more accurately.

6-) How is sincerity in worship defined here?

It means doing worship only because Allah commanded it.

7-) How is worship more than a set of actions in this passage?

It is also a noble connection between the servant and the One being worshipped.

8-) What distinction does the passage make between the true basis of worship and its helpful side benefits?

The command of Allah is the real basis, while benefits are only secondary encouragements.

9-) What is the highest level of human perfection identified here?

It is the realized bond between the worshipper and Allah.

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what makes the human being unusual among creatures?

The human being combines bodily weakness with a very expansive inner life full of possibility and longing.

2-) What does the comparison to an index of all species and worlds suggest about human nature?

It suggests that the human being gathers many dimensions of existence within himself and has a very comprehensive nature.

3-) What connection is made between worship and eternal happiness?

Worship prepares a person to be worthy of that lasting happiness.

4-) How does worship help with a person's longings for the future?

It helps those hopes move toward meaningful and productive outcomes.

5-) What kind of order does worship bring to the mind?

It arranges ideas in a disciplined way.

6-) What does the passage mean by removing the rust from a person's members?

It means cleansing the physical and spiritual faculties so they can function clearly as they were meant to.

7-) Why does the passage mention conscience, mind, heart, and body together?

To show that complete worship engages the whole person rather than a single dimension.

8-) Why does the passage present that relationship as the peak of human perfection?

Because the highest human completion is to be rightly connected to the One who is worshipped.

9-) What place does the passage give to the wisdoms and benefits found in acts of worship?

They are acknowledged as real and many, but they are not the true foundation of the act.

lisans short-words-p67-worships-effect-on-personal-perfection-sincerity-warning - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What central teaching about worship and self-development appears in the passage?

Worship is presented as a major means for a person to grow, be purified, and reach full human excellence.

2-) What features of human nature show that people are meant for more than animal life?

People have a lofty soul, enormous possibilities, endless hopes, many ideas, and wide-ranging powers.

3-) What does the passage say worship does for a person's abilities?

It unfolds them and helps them mature.

4-) What is the link between worship and character reform in this passage?

Worship cleans and straightens a person's inclinations.

5-) How does it help a person who has many scattered thoughts?

It gathers and organizes those thoughts.

6-) What can be inferred from the window image used for the human faculties?

When a person is purified, his faculties can reflect truth clearly instead of being clouded.

7-) Why is worship called a lofty connection rather than just an obligation?

Because it joins the servant to Allah in a noble and elevating relationship.

8-) How does the passage define sincere worship in one core principle?

Sincere worship is done for the sake of the command itself.

9-) When are the benefits of worship acceptable in a person's motivation?

They are acceptable when they support and encourage the person without replacing obedience as the real motive.