

1

What example is given to show that provision can come to a living thing even when it cannot move to get it?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 1

Trees are given as an example, because they stay where they are and their nourishment comes to them.

2

Why is the feeding of infants a strong sign in the argument of the passage?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 2

It shows that the most helpless creatures are provided for in a gentle and direct way before they can do anything for themselves.

3

What does the passage say trees do instead of chasing after their sustenance?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 3

They stay in their appointed place and depend on Allah.

4

Why is the end of milk-feeding important in the argument?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 4

It marks a shift showing that the easiest provision belongs especially to the stage of weakness.

5

In the passage, what often follows when people rely too much on their own will and intelligence?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 5

Such reliance often leads to greed, which may end in loss.

6

What comparison shows that provision does not always match education or skill?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-
provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 6

The passage contrasts unsuccessful learned people with simple people who still receive wealth.

7

What are the two kinds of provision named in this passage?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-
provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 7

One is the real and natural provision needed for life, and the other is the basic bodily store kept within a person for survival.

8

What evidence from the human body is used to support that claim?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 8

The body contains stored nourishment that can keep a person alive for around twenty days or more without new food.

9

What place does human work still have in this picture?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-
provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 9

Work and effort are valid means and are accepted, but they do not independently produce sustenance.

10

If someone dies before those reserves are gone, what cause does the passage point to?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 10

It points to illness brought on by carelessness and disturbance in normal routine rather than true lack of provision.

11

What does the passage teach about the relationship between a tree's weakness and its provision?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 11

Because it lacks power and choice, it remains dependent, and its sustenance is brought to it.

12

What do both of those examples have in common?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-
provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 12

Both receive what they need while being weak or unable to secure it by their own power.

13

What feature of a mother's care is emphasized in the feeding of infants?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 13

Her tenderness and concern are shown as means through which provision reaches the child.

14

What conclusion does the passage draw from the fact that milk stops when children gain some strength?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 14

It concludes that easy provision is given in special connection with helplessness and need.

15

What negative spiritual tendency is linked to power, will, and cleverness?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-
provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 15

They can stir up greed.

16

What lesson is taught by the proverb about the learned person and the ignorant person?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 16

Earning lawful provision does not happen only through effort or intelligence; it comes by Allah's mercy, while work is still accepted as a means.

17

What does the passage say about the reliability of this natural provision?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 17

It says this provision is under divine guarantee and is managed in a stable, ordered way.

18

According to the passage, what is the real source of lawful sustenance?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-
provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 18

It comes from divine mercy and compassion.

19

What bodily sign shows that this necessary provision has been arranged in advance?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 19

The body has reserves stored within it that can support life for a significant period.

20

What physical example is used to explain this hidden arrangement?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-
provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 20

The body's stored reserves, such as fat, show that nourishment has been prepared in advance.

21

Which two living examples open the passage's discussion of provision?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 21

Trees and infants.

22

How does the example of a tree support the idea of tawakkul, or trusting Allah?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 22

The tree does not run after its food; it remains where Allah placed it, and its nourishment reaches it there.

23

Why are infants especially strong evidence for that same claim?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-
provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 23

They are among the weakest creatures, yet their food reaches them in a precise and caring way.

24

What does the passage imply about milk as a kind of provision?

11sinif supreme-sign-p108-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-lawful-provision-comes-through-weakness-and-trust-in-allah

Cevap 24

It is a specially arranged sustenance for a stage when the child is very weak.