

1

When the traveler stops looking at the outward scene and reflects inwardly, what does he conclude about the cloud's ability to act on

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-unity-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 1

He concludes that the cloud has no power, knowledge, or mercy of its own, so it must be acting under command.

2

What does he say the cloud definitely does not have on its own?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 2

It does not have personal knowledge, pity, or independent authority.

3

How does the cloud's action in the sky resemble writing and erasing?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 3

It forms visible scenes and then removes them, like marks placed on a page and then wiped away.

4

What phrase of meaning best describes the cloud's response to human need?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 4

It rushes to bring help and mercy where it is needed.

5

What shift happens after the traveler reflects on the cloud?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 5

He moves from considering the cloud to examining the wind and air.

6

When the traveler reflects on the air, what problem does he see in saying the wind acts by itself?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-unity-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 6

He sees that blind, unstable, and unconscious air could not organize such wise and useful work on its own.

7

Besides helping living things directly, what other services does the air provide?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 7

It manages the clouds, helps ships travel, and carries sound through different means of communication.

8

Why are technologies like radio and telephone included in a religious reflection?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 8

They provide familiar examples showing how the air is made to serve many precise purposes.

9

Why is the mention of simple chemical components important?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 9

It highlights that complex worldwide order is being achieved through very simple, similar materials.

10

What is the strongest proof in this passage for divine rule over nature?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 10

The strongest proof is the combination of mercy, order, usefulness, and precision in things that are themselves lifeless and unaware.

11

In this passage, what starts the traveler's deeper reasoning about the cloud?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 11

He turns from simply watching it to thinking carefully with his intellect.

12

What change in the cloud's appearance leads the traveler to think it is obeying orders?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 12

It disappears completely and then quickly comes back to begin its work, which shows controlled movement rather than random action.

13

What signs show that the cloud is under direction?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 13

Its exact disappearance, reappearance, movement, and release of rain all happen in a controlled way.

14

In what way is the cloud linked to generosity?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 14

It carries rich supplies of rain to those who need help.

15

What overall judgment does the traveler make about the wind's service?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-unity-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 15

He sees it as hardworking, constant, and fully obedient to command.

16

Why would the wind's many jobs be impossible without higher control?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 16

Because the air is lifeless and unconscious, yet its work is precise, wide-reaching, and consistently useful.

17

What does this surprising order lead the traveler to infer about the one directing the wind?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 17

That the one directing it must be powerful, knowledgeable, wise, and generous.

18

Why does the traveler see special wisdom in the atoms of air?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 18

Because the same simple materials appear in countless places and situations while performing many different tasks in perfect order.

19

What kind of order does the traveler see in the world-spread activity of air?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 19

He sees a highly organized, global order that cannot come from blind matter alone.

20

How does the quoted verse fit the traveler's conclusion?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 20

It agrees with his conclusion by presenting winds and clouds as arranged under control between heaven and earth.

21

What is the main subject the traveler thinks about first in the target passage?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 21

He first thinks deeply about the true source of the cloud's actions.

22

What does the traveler say this weak and unconscious cloud cannot possess by itself?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 22

It cannot have knowledge of people, personal compassion, or independent control over its actions.

23

What larger reality does the cloud's changing form remind the traveler of?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 23

It reminds him of gathering and rising again, like a sign pointing to resurrection.

24

What does the cloud carry, and why is that important?

11sinif supreme-sign-p13-the-atmosphere-the-proof-of-divine-
unityv-in-the-obedient-service-of-cloud-and-wind

Cevap 24

It carries heavy stores of rain, showing that great benefits are delivered through it by a higher power.