

1

What idea is said to be impossible about how things come into existence?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 1

The passage says beings cannot bring one another into existence in a chain of causes.

2

What two impossible ideas are dismissed in order to reach that point?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 2

Mutual creation among things and an endless chain of causes are both dismissed.

3

What conclusion follows from that rejection?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 3

Existence must rest on a Necessary Existent.

4

What happens every autumn that serves as evidence in this argument?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 4

A whole seasonal world passes away, including many kinds of plants and small animals.

5

Why is autumn a powerful example in this section?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 5

It shows a massive, repeated ending of life happening before human eyes.

6

How does the passage help the reader value even small creatures?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 6

It says each individual can be viewed as a small world.

7

What role do seeds and eggs play in the next season?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 7

They become the means for new life and renewed existence in spring.

8

What is the importance of the seeds and eggs left behind?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 8

They carry forward the continuation of life into the next season.

9

What is entrusted through those seeds and eggs?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 9

The record and life-plan of the former beings are entrusted through them.

10

How does the passage move from what people see with their eyes to what they understand with their minds?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 10

It starts with visible seasonal changes, then leads the reader to conclude that a Creator must be behind them.

11

What false explanation for existence is rejected at the beginning of the passage?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 11

The idea that things produce one another by themselves is rejected.

12

What kind of being must exist instead?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 12

A self-subsisting Creator must exist whose existence is necessary.

13

What necessary conclusion does the passage reach from this problem?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 13

It concludes that a Necessary
Existent must exist.

14

What season is used as the clearest example of widespread death?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 14
Autumn.

15

What yearly event is used as the main example?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 15

The widespread death of plant life and small animals in autumn.

16

What examples are given of beings involved in that yearly dying?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 16

Different kinds of plants and small animals are given as examples.

17

What do those remains become later on?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 17

They become the means for revival and renewed life in spring.

18

What do these small remains preserve besides biological continuation?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 18

They preserve the pattern and program of the life that came before.

19

What future function do these seeds and eggs serve?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 19

They serve as the means for rising again into new life in spring.

20

Which divine attributes are especially highlighted by this cycle?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 20

Mercy, wisdom, power, and knowledge are especially highlighted.

21

What major theological point is established before the examples from nature are given?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 21

The passage first establishes that there must be a Necessary Existent because created things cannot be their own ultimate cause.

22

Why does the passage reject an endless sequence of causes?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 22

Because such a sequence never fully explains why anything exists at all.

23

According to the passage, where can the reality of createdness be clearly seen?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 23

It can be seen in the universe, especially in the death of living things during autumn.

24

How does the passage connect this abstract argument to everyday observation?

11sinif supreme-sign-p64-1st-truth-the-testimony-of-
createdness-in-the-cosmos

Cevap 24

It turns to the visible changes of the seasons, especially the dying of life in autumn.