

1

What is the main truth explained
in this passage?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-
perfections

Cevap 1

The passage explains that real perfection exists in the universe, in human beings, and above all in the Creator, and that this supports Allah's oneness.

2

Which features of the world are used as evidence in this argument?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 2

The argument uses wise design, beauty, justice, and purposeful order.

3

What does the passage teach about the Creator's qualities based on those signs?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 3

It teaches that the Creator must have perfection, since perfect work comes from a perfect Maker.

4

Why does the passage say the Creator must be perfect?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-
perfections

Cevap 4

Because a universe made with order, beauty, and wisdom points to a Maker who possesses perfection.

5

What would the universe become, according to the passage, if Allah had partners?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 5

It would lose its meaningful order and be reduced to something empty, random, and without wisdom.

6

What effect would that have on a person's understanding of life?

Cevap 6

Life would seem bleak, painful, and without higher purpose.

7

How would that false belief affect the status of human beings?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-
perfections

Cevap 7

It would lower human beings from a noble and purposeful rank to a miserable and degraded condition.

8

How does the passage show that shirk is not just a small mistake?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 8

It shows shirk as something that damages the meaning of the whole universe, human worth, and recognition of the Creator.

9

Which is stronger in this passage:
emotional warning, logical reasoning, or both together?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-
perfections

Cevap 9

Both together, because it gives reasons and also shows the devastating consequences of false belief.

10

What does the passage say gives clear evidence that perfection is real?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 10

The clear order, beauty, fairness, and purposeful design seen throughout existence give that evidence.

11

Name two kinds of evidence from the universe that support this truth.

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 11

Examples include wise order and striking beauty.

12

How does the passage describe the making and governing of the cosmos?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 12

It describes the cosmos as brought into being and managed in a marvelous and beautiful way.

13

What can be inferred about the universe from the phrase that it was managed in a beautiful and extraordinary way?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 13

It can be inferred that the universe is not random or careless, but deliberately ordered.

14

Why would belief in partners for Allah be incompatible with what we observe?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 14

Because what we observe shows meaningful excellence and harmony, while shirk would undermine all of that.

15

What is the second major result for the universe under that belief?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-
perfections

Cevap 15

The universe would be reduced to something empty, accidental, and without real purpose.

16

What comparison is made between man's visible achievements and the effect of shirk?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-
perfections

Cevap 16

Even though human excellence can be seen in what people do, shirk would drag human rank down to a very low level.

17

What does the passage say shirk does to the understanding of Allah's creative acts?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-
perfections

Cevap 17

It leads to denying or canceling the meaning of His acts of creation.

18

What kind of argument does the passage make against shirk: only scriptural, only rational, or mainly rational reflection on creation?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 18

It is mainly rational reflection on creation, even though it stands within a religious framework.

19

What central claim is this passage making about perfection and faith?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 19

It claims that recognizing true perfection in creation leads to affirming Allah alone.

20

Which qualities in the world make that perfection noticeable?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-
perfections

Cevap 20

Its wisdom, beauty, fairness, and purposeful structure make it noticeable.

21

What special role is given to human beings in this passage?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 21

Human beings are described as conscious reflectors of the Creator and as an honored fruit of the universe.

22

Why does the passage treat human perfection as important evidence?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 22

Because humans are portrayed as a specially valued part of creation, so their qualities also point to the perfection of their Maker.

23

What mistaken view of the universe would result from associating partners with Allah?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 23

The universe would be viewed as meaningless and driven by accident or impersonal nature.

24

What would happen to living beings under that false view?

11sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections

Cevap 24

Their world would seem harsh and tragic, as if life were only a place of suffering and destruction.
