1-) According to the passage, why were human beings sent into this world?

To know their Creator, believe in Him, and worship Him.

2-) What is described as the first and most basic responsibility of a human being?

To know Allah, believe in Him, and accept His oneness with full submission and certainty.

3-) How does the passage describe human nature in relation to life and hope?

It says people naturally long for lasting life, have very wide hopes, and also face many hardships.

4-) Which things are presented as the foundation and key to eternal life?

Belief in Allah, knowledge of Allah, and the means that lead to them.

5-) How does the passage judge goals that are separate from faith and knowing Allah?

It treats them as low in value, and in many cases as not truly worth much for a human being.

6-) What connection is made between worship and recognizing the Creator?

Worship is shown as something that should grow out of knowing and believing in the Creator.

7-) How does the passage move from belief to a value system?

It first states the purpose of life, then shows that this purpose makes faith the highest priority and lowers the value of anything cut off from it.

11sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main idea about human life is taught in this passage?

Human life has a God-given purpose centered on faith, knowing Allah, and worship.

2-) According to the passage, what two beliefs about Allah are especially required from a person?

Belief in His existence and belief in His oneness.

3-) What attitude should accompany a person's belief in Allah's existence and oneness?

Humble acceptance and firm certainty.

4-) How does the passage describe the relationship between human desires and human suffering?

It presents both as very great: people want lasting life and have huge hopes, but they also face many serious troubles.

5-) Why are faith and knowledge of Allah given such a high rank in the passage?

Because they are connected to eternal life and are the way to reach it.

6-) If something brings a person status or pleasure but does not help faith, how is it valued in the passage?

It is seen as something low, and sometimes nearly without real worth.

7-) What lesson about priorities can be drawn from the whole passage?

A person should place faith, knowledge of Allah, and worship above all other goals.

11sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, what is the wisdom behind human life in this world? Its wisdom is that people are here to recognize their Creator, believe in Him, and worship Him.

2-) What does the passage say is required before worship can be complete and meaningful?

A person should first know Allah and believe in Him.

3-) Which human condition helps explain why eternal life matters so much in the passage?

Humans naturally want a life that does not end.

4-) What does the passage suggest about human hopes and problems? It suggests that both are very large and far-reaching.

5-) Why are other aims described as small or empty when compared with faith?

Because they do not provide the basis for eternal life, while faith and knowing Allah do.

6-) What kind of certainty is expected in affirming Allah's oneness? Strong, settled certainty joined with submission.

7-) In comparison with faith, how are other aims evaluated?

They are seen as inferior, and sometimes as having no lasting value.

11sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What three connected purposes of human existence are named in the passage?
