CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif supreme-sign-p06-2nd-matter-the-criterion-of-scientific-consensus - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main rule is stated about people speaking on a topic in science or art?

Only those trained in that field can speak with real authority; outsiders cannot give final judgments in it.

2-) How does the example of the engineer and the physician support that rule?

It shows that being highly skilled in one field does not make a person reliable in a different field.

3-) Why are some philosophers described as especially unfit to judge spiritual matters?

Because they are focused only on physical things and are cut off from deeper spiritual realities.

4-) In the passage, what kind of people are presented as united on sacred matters and belief in Divine oneness?

The People of Truth, especially spiritually advanced believers and saints, are presented as being in full agreement.

5-) What does the mention of Shaykh Gilani emphasize?

It emphasizes deep spiritual experience, long discipline, and strong certainty in the truths of faith.

6-) How are the objections of material-focused philosophers compared to the testimony of spiritually knowledgeable people?

Their objections are shown as weak and insignificant compared with the powerful agreement of the spiritually grounded.

7-) What contrast is made between attention to the material world and understanding spiritual truth?

Getting lost in material details can make a person less able to grasp non-material truths.

8-) According to the passage, why do the denials of such philosophers carry little weight?

Because they speak outside their proper area and lack the spiritual insight needed for those questions.

9-) What overall message does the passage give about whom to trust in matters of faith?

Matters of faith should be learned from those with spiritual knowledge and proven experience, not from people limited to material thinking.

10-) What effect does the final image of weak sound versus powerful sound create?

It highlights how small and powerless those denials are beside the strong witness of the righteous.

11sinif supreme-sign-p06-2nd-matter-the-criterion-of-scientific-consensus - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the central idea of the Second Matter?

Expertise is limited to its own field, so outsiders should not be treated as final authorities.

2-) Why can even a very accomplished person be unreliable outside his own specialty?

Because skill and learning do not automatically transfer from one subject to another.

3-) What point is made by comparing a famous engineer with even a very ordinary doctor?

In medical matters, the doctor's judgment counts more than the engineer's, even if the engineer is greater in his own field.

4-) What problem is identified in philosophers who are absorbed in the physical world?

Their thinking becomes restricted to what can be sensed, which makes them poor judges of spiritual realities.

5-) What happens to a person's understanding, according to the passage, when he becomes distant from the spiritual side of life?

His perception becomes duller and less able to receive higher truths.

6-) Who are described as giving strong witness on sacred and spiritual truths?

A vast number of truthful and spiritually realized believers are described that way.

7-) Why is their agreement important in the passage's argument?

It shows that spiritual truths are not based on one person's opinion but on broad and consistent testimony.

8-) What role does Shaykh Gilani play in the discussion?

He is given as an example of someone with high spiritual rank and deep certainty in matters of belief.

9-) How does the passage describe philosophers who are buried in tiny details of the physical world?

It portrays them as confused and overwhelmed, not as sound judges of Divine matters.

10-) What conclusion should the reader draw about objections raised against spiritual truths by such philosophers?

Those objections should not be treated as decisive because they lack the proper foundation.

11sinif supreme-sign-p06-2nd-matter-the-criterion-of-scientific-consensus - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, who cannot be part of true scholarly agreement in a field?

People who stand outside that field cannot be counted in its learned consensus.

2-) Why does the passage stress this point before discussing spiritual matters?

It prepares the reader to see that materialist thinkers are not qualified to rule on questions of faith.

3-) What is the lesson of the medical example?

Knowledge must be judged by relevance, not just by fame or intelligence.

4-) How are philosophers centered on matter portrayed?

They are shown as people whose minds are tied to the visible world and unable to rise to the unseen.

5-) What kind of subjects are said to lie beyond the reach of such thinkers?

Sacred, spiritual, and God-centered subjects are said to lie beyond their reach.

6-) What does the passage say about the agreement of the People of Truth?

It says they have full harmony on sacred matters and the oneness of Allah.

7-) Why is long spiritual striving mentioned in connection with Shaykh Gilani?

To show that certainty in faith comes through serious inner work and spiritual growth.

8-) What three levels of certainty are mentioned in relation to him, and what do they suggest?

They suggest a complete and deep realization of belief from multiple degrees of certainty.

9-) How does the passage evaluate the denials of philosophers when set against the witness of the righteous?

It treats those denials as too weak to stand against such massive spiritual testimony.

10-) What major comprehension point about authority is taught in this passage?

Real authority depends on proper knowledge and experience in the subject being discussed.

11sinif supreme-sign-p06-2nd-matter-the-criterion-of-scientific-consensus - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What principle about judgment and expertise opens the passage?
A person should not be accepted as a final judge in a field he does not belong to.

2-) How does this principle challenge blind admiration of famous thinkers?

It reminds readers that greatness in one area does not mean greatness in every area.

3-) Why is a philosopher limited to what he can sense presented as unreliable in spiritual issues?

Because spiritual issues go beyond what the eyes and physical senses can measure.

4-) What moral or spiritual decline is linked to this type of philosopher?
He is described as becoming rougher and less responsive to spiritual light.

5-) What kind of community is described as standing together on truths about Allah and sacred realities?

A large body of truthful, spiritually awakened believers is described as standing together.

6-) Why is this united witness stronger than the objections of philosophers?

Because it comes from many qualified people with direct spiritual insight rather than from outsiders to the subject.

7-) What does the passage suggest about the relationship between spiritual discipline and certainty?

It suggests that steady spiritual effort leads to stronger and clearer certainty.

8-) Why does the passage include an honored saint as an example?

To give a concrete picture of someone whose life shows deep spiritual authority.

9-) What feeling does the final comparison create about philosophical denial?

It makes that denial seem tiny, weak, and unable to compete with the force of truth.

10-) Summarize the passage's warning in one sentence.

Do not let people who are strangers to spiritual knowledge overrule those who truly know that path.

11sinif supreme-sign-p06-2nd-matter-the-criterion-of-scientific-consensus - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say about speaking decisively in matters of a specialized field?

Decisive speech belongs to those within that discipline, not to outsiders.

2-) How does the example of medicine and engineering make the point easy to understand?

It shows that even a top expert in one profession is not automatically an authority in another.

3-) What kind of philosopher is criticized here?

A philosopher who is trapped in material concerns and cut off from spiritual understanding is criticized.

4-) Why are his denials considered unimportant in non-material matters?

Because he lacks the tools and insight needed to judge those matters properly.

5-) On what subjects do the People of Truth have full agreement?

They agree on sacred realities and on the unity of Allah.

6-) What does the passage imply about the value of spiritual experience?

It implies that spiritual experience gives real weight and credibility in questions of faith.

7-) What does the long life of spiritual striving attributed to Shaykh Gilani help prove?

It helps prove that his testimony came from deep practice and mature certainty.

8-) Why does the passage contrast broad spiritual insight with attention to tiny material details?

To show that obsession with the small physical world can block a person from seeing greater truths.

9-) What is the purpose of the final comparison between a small insect sound and thunder?

It is meant to show the huge difference in strength between weak denial and powerful truth.

10-) If a student applied this lesson today, what wise approach would the passage support?

The student should seek guidance on faith from trustworthy scholars and spiritually grounded believers, not from voices limited to material assumptions.

11sinif supreme-sign-p06-2nd-matter-the-criterion-of-scientific-consensus - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What standard for accepting a judgment is given at the start of the passage?

A judgment should be accepted as final only from those qualified in that exact subject.

2-) Why does the passage say outsiders cannot join the consensus of a field?

Because consensus depends on recognized knowledge within the discipline itself.

3-) What does the comparison between two professions teach about authority?

Authority comes from relevant expertise, not from general prestige.

4-) How are some philosophers shown to be narrowed in their outlook?

They are shown as limiting truth to the material world and visible things.

5-) What effect does that narrow outlook have on their ability to judge spiritual realities?

It makes their judgment weak and unreliable in those realities.

6-) Who are presented as the trustworthy witnesses in matters about Allah and the unseen?

The trustworthy witnesses are the many truthful people of spiritual knowledge and realization.

7-) Why is their agreement especially powerful in the argument?

Because a large number of qualified witnesses agreeing together gives strong support to the truth they affirm.

8-) What qualities of Shaykh Gilani are highlighted?

His spiritual vision, long years of devoted effort, and deep certainty are highlighted.

9-) How should the reader understand the passage's question about the worth of philosophers' objections?

The reader should understand that those objections are being dismissed as insignificant next to true spiritual testimony.

10-) What is the best one-sentence summary of the whole passage?

In spiritual matters, the united witness of people grounded in truth outweighs the denial of thinkers confined to the material world.
