CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif supreme-sign-p105-3rd-stopping-place-3rd-truth-the-comparison-of-the-army-of-400-000-nations - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In spring, what major event is described as happening within only a few weeks?

Hundreds of thousands of living kinds are brought back in forms that resemble revival after death, and this happens very quickly and in an orderly way.

2-) What four repeated renewals are mentioned in connection with a tree?

The tree itself, its leaves, its blossoms, and its fruits are each renewed.

3-) How is spring compared to an earlier spring?

It is presented as matching the one before it in a clear and recognizable way.

4-) What kinds of things are given to each species in the great living army?

Each one receives its food, means of protection, special covering, duties and release from duty, and the tools it needs.

5-) How are these gifts and arrangements delivered?

They are given with full order, accuracy, timeliness, and without neglect or mix-up.

6-) What does the passage say this careful springtime ordering proves about Allah?

It points to His unity, His absolute uniqueness, His unlimited power, and His vast mercy.

7-) Why does the passage connect these signs with lordship, rule, and wisdom?

Because such complete control and balance show perfect authority, care, and wise planning.

8-) What image is used for how Divine decree records this message on the earth?

It is pictured as if a divine pen writes a declaration across the earth in every spring.

9-) What is the main message written on the page of spring?

The main message is that Allah is One and acts with unmatched power and mercy.

11sinif supreme-sign-p105-3rd-stopping-place-3rd-truth- the-comparison-of-the-army-of-400-000-nations - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What season in the passage serves as a small example of rising again after death?

Spring serves as a small example of resurrection.

2-) About how many examples of revival are said to appear in that season?

About three hundred thousand examples are said to appear.

3-) Besides being brought back, what ongoing care do living species receive?

They are supplied with everything needed for life, protection, appearance, function, and survival.

4-) Which quality is stressed more strongly: disorder or discipline? Explain.

Discipline is stressed, because the passage repeatedly highlights precision, regularity, and freedom from mistake.

5-) What does the absence of confusion and omission suggest about the One managing spring?

It suggests complete knowledge, full control, and no weakness or limitation.

6-) Why might the passage describe living things as an army?

That image helps show large numbers, different groups, assigned roles, and organized management under one command.

7-) According to the passage, what truths are shown through the administration of spring?

It shows divine unity, oneness, uniqueness, infinite power, and boundless mercy.

8-) How does the earth function in this description of spring?

The earth becomes like a page on which the signs of Allah's oneness are displayed.

9-) What does the image of writing on the face of the earth suggest?

It suggests that the signs are open, visible, and repeated for people to read and reflect on.

11sinif supreme-sign-p105-3rd-stopping-place-3rd-truth- the-comparison-of-the-army-of-400-000-nations - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first big claim made about spring in the target passage?
The passage first claims that spring displays many forms of bringing life back after death in a very short time.

2-) Why is the time period of a few weeks important in the passage?
It shows how quickly and powerfully this renewal happens.

3-) In the example of the tree, what does the repeated renewal of different parts emphasize?

It emphasizes that restoration is detailed, layered, and reaches every stage of the tree's life.

4-) What does each group among the many species receive in a fitting way?

Each group receives what suits it, including nourishment, defense, appearance, assignments, release, and equipment.

5-) What does "appropriate" provision suggest about how these gifts are given?

It suggests they are matched wisely and exactly to the needs of each species.

6-) What contrast is built between the huge number of species and the lack of mistakes?

The passage shows that even though the number is enormous, the management remains flawless.

7-) Which divine attributes are directly supported by this flawless care?
Allah's unity, uniqueness, limitless power, and vast mercy are directly supported.

8-) What metaphor is used for the way this truth appears every year?
The yearly spring is treated like a written statement spread across the earth.

9-) Why is Divine determining compared to writing?

Because the order of spring appears like a meaningful record or message placed before human eyes.

11sinif supreme-sign-p105-3rd-stopping-place-3rd-truth- the-comparison-of-the-army-of-400-000-nations - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What event in spring is presented as a sign similar to resurrection?
The reappearance of countless forms of life in spring is presented as a sign like resurrection.

2-) How many examples of this revival are mentioned?

Three hundred thousand examples are mentioned.

3-) What do the four renewals in a tree show about life in spring?

They show that spring renews life thoroughly, from the tree itself to its different visible parts.

4-) What are some of the specific needs supplied to the many species?

Their food, protection, distinguishing features, assigned functions, endings of those functions, and necessary means are supplied.

5-) At what kind of time are these needs given?

They are given right when needed.

6-) What does the passage mean by saying this happens without confusion or omission?

It means nothing is mixed up, forgotten, or left incomplete.

7-) Which two qualities of Allah are especially highlighted by giving creatures what they need?

His power and mercy are especially highlighted.

8-) Why does the passage also mention wisdom along with power and mercy?

Because the giving is not random; it is measured, suitable, and purposeful.

9-) Based on this passage alone, what is one strong reason to believe in Allah's unmatched rule over creation?

One strong reason is that countless different creatures are renewed and supplied every spring with total precision and no disorder.

11sinif supreme-sign-p105-3rd-stopping-place-3rd-truth- the-comparison-of-the-army-of-400-000-nations - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, what does spring demonstrate on a very large scale?
It demonstrates a vast return of life that resembles resurrection.

2-) How does the passage use the shortness of springtime renewal to strengthen its message?

It shows that what seems difficult to people is easy for Allah, since so much renewal happens rapidly.

3-) Why is the tree singled out as an example?

It gives a clear, familiar picture of repeated renewal within one living thing.

4-) What broad range of care is given to every species in the living host?

They are cared for in their survival, protection, identity, tasks, timing, and practical needs.

5-) What can be inferred from the statement that everything is given at the proper time?

It can be inferred that the giver knows every need and every moment perfectly.

6-) How does the passage combine vast numbers with personal care?

It shows that although the species are extremely many, each one still receives its own fitting share.

7-) What theological truth is proven by this balance of large-scale order and individual care?

It proves the oneness and uniqueness of Allah.

8-) What other divine qualities are shown together with oneness?

Infinite power, endless mercy, perfect lordship, sovereignty, and wisdom are shown together.

11sinif supreme-sign-p105-3rd-stopping-place-3rd-truth- the-comparison-of-the-army-of-400-000-nations - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What picture of spring opens the target passage?

It opens with spring as a living scene of revival after death shown in many examples.

2-) What number is given for these examples of revival?

The number given is three hundred thousand.

3-) How does the example of a tree deepen the reader's understanding of revival?

It shows that renewal happens in multiple connected ways, not just once.

4-) What does the passage say is provided to every species and group?

Every species and group is given fitting provision, means of defense, distinct outward features, duties, release from duties, and needed instruments.

5-) What repeated ideas describe how this giving is carried out?

It is described as orderly, regular, accurate, timely, and free from mistake.

6-) Which truth about Allah is repeated in several forms near the end of the passage?

The truth that Allah is absolutely one and without equal is repeated in several forms.

7-) Why are power and mercy mentioned together instead of separately?

Because the passage presents care for creation as both strong enough to do everything and compassionate enough to provide for all.

8-) What is the purpose of the image of a proclamation written on the earth each spring?

Its purpose is to show that the signs of Allah are public, clear, and repeatedly displayed.
