

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 1

1-) What did the traveler first notice about the convictions of the enlightened minds? (24 kelime)

He saw that, even though they

2-) What is striking about those minds even before their agreement is mentioned? (12 kelime)

They differ from

3-) How is the agreement of these minds described in relation to truth? (20 kelime)

It is described as a

4-) How does the passage describe the durability of that truth? (11 kelime)

It describes

5-) How are those hearts described in their relationship to divine knowledge? (19 kelime)

Each heart is presented

6-) How can the hearts agree if their methods are not the same? (15 kelime)

They can agree

7-) Why does the passage say their agreement is a trustworthy guide and teacher? (15 kelime)

Because so many

8-) What stronger image follows the window comparison? (15 kelime)
The hearts together

9-) What two groups are presented in the summary statement at the end of the passage? (7 kelime)
Upright,

10-) What short statement marks the traveler's acceptance of this truth? (8 kelime)
He says

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 2

1-) What main subject unites the whole target passage? (20 kelime)

The whole passage centers on

2-) How does the passage balance difference and unity among these intellecks? (15 kelime)

It says they

3-) What does their unity in belief prove to the traveler? (16 kelime)

It proves to him

4-) What is the meaning of saying their roots are deep? (10 kelime)

It means

5-) In what matter do those hearts fully agree? (10 kelime)

They fully

6-) What do those hearts experience that supports faith? (12 kelime)

They experience spiritual

7-) What does the comparison to the sun help explain? (17 kelime)

It helps explain that

8-) What does the passage communicate by gathering all those hearts into one large image? (13 kelime)

It communicates that

9-) How does the passage connect certainty with both reason and spirituality? (20 kelime)

It presents intellect as reaching

10-) What does the Arabic summary section restate in simple terms? (20 kelime)

It restates that both enlightened

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 3

1-) What did the traveler discover when he began examining enlightened intellects? (13 kelime)

He discovered that

2-) Why does the passage mention that some of their viewpoints even oppose others? (16 kelime)

It highlights that their

3-) What does the passage suggest about the source of their confidence? (12 kelime)

It suggests that

4-) What two images are used to explain the consensus of the intellects? (15 kelime)

It is compared

5-) Were the hearts all following exactly the same spiritual path? (13 kelime)

No. Their paths

6-) What does the passage say each heart reflects? (12 kelime)

Each heart reflects

7-) Why does the passage move from single mirrors to a sea reflecting the sun? (13 kelime)

It shows that

8-) What kind of minds does the passage say could not reasonably accept the idea of universal deception? (11 kelime)

Even very

9-) How did the traveler respond after seeing the harmony of minds and hearts? (8 kelime)

He embraced

10-) What is the purpose of the closing summary after the traveler's declaration? (20 kelime)

It gathers the lesson into

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 4

1-) What is the first major sign of truth the traveler studies in this passage? (11 kelime)

He studies

2-) What does the image of roots that cannot be pulled out suggest about their faith? (14 kelime)

It suggests that

3-) What does the traveler infer from their steady agreement? (14 kelime)

He infers that

4-) What was common among those hearts, even though their ways were different? (13 kelime)

Their spiritual discoveries

5-) What does the traveler observe about the hearts of these people? (15 kelime)

He observes that

6-) What larger picture is created when all those hearts are considered together? (17 kelime)

Together they form a

7-) Why are many windows and one sun a fitting comparison here? (14 kelime)

Because many hearts

8-) What was the traveler's final response after understanding all this?
(12 kelime)

He affirmed his

9-) What impossible scenario does the passage dismiss? (21 kelime)
It dismisses the idea that

10-) In the final summary, what remains true even when people differ in method or capacity? (11 kelime)

Their united

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellec-t-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 5

1-) When the traveler begins this stage of study, what shared quality does he see in luminous intellects? (13 kelime)

He sees that

2-) What kinds of differences existed among those intellects? (10 kelime)

They differed

3-) Why does the traveler believe they depend on one truth rather than many? (12 kelime)

Because their assurance

4-) What second form of testimony does the traveler observe after intellects? (11 kelime)

He observes

5-) After intellects, what other witnesses are presented? (10 kelime)

The passage

6-) How do all the hearts function when viewed collectively? (13 kelime)

Collectively they act

7-) How is each heart portrayed with respect to Allah? (14 kelime)

Each one is

8-) What qualities make these witnesses especially reliable? (12 kelime)
Their insight, sincerity,

9-) What reasoning is used to reject the claim that they might all be mistaken? (22 kelime)
The passage argues that it

10-) According to the summary, what joins the testimony of minds and hearts together? (14 kelime)
Their matching beliefs,

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 6

1-) What does the traveler learn from the upright intellects at the start of the passage? (12 kelime)

He learns that

2-) Why is their agreement important if they are so different? (17 kelime)

Their agreement is important

3-) How does the passage describe the strength of that grounding? (10 kelime)

It describes

4-) What did the traveler also notice about the witness of luminous hearts? (13 kelime)

He noticed that

5-) How are those hearts spiritually oriented? (11 kelime)

They are

6-) What does it mean that each heart is like a mirror? (9 kelime)

It means

7-) What makes their shared witness an excellent teacher? (15 kelime)

Its consistency across

8-) What argument is made against the possibility of mass deception

here? (25 kelime)

The argument is that it makes

9-) How does the traveler involve himself in the conclusion instead of staying only an observer? (13 kelime)

He joins his

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveler first notice about the convictions of the enlightened minds?

He saw that, even though they differed in ability and approach, they shared the same belief in Allah's oneness and held it with firmness.

2-) What is striking about those minds even before their agreement is mentioned?

They differ from one another in strength, approach, and way of thinking.

3-) How is the agreement of these minds described in relation to truth?

It is described as a strong chain and as a bright opening that gives access to the world of truth.

4-) How does the passage describe the durability of that truth?

It describes it as deeply rooted and impossible to tear away.

5-) How are those hearts described in their relationship to divine knowledge?

Each heart is presented as a place reflecting lordly knowledge and as a broad mirror showing need before Allah.

6-) How can the hearts agree if their methods are not the same?

They can agree because truth is one, even when people reach it through different ways.

7-) Why does the passage say their agreement is a trustworthy guide and teacher?

Because so many sincere and perceptive hearts and minds agreeing together makes their testimony dependable.

8-) What stronger image follows the window comparison?

The hearts together are compared to a vast mirror or a sea reflecting the sun.

9-) What two groups are presented in the summary statement at the end of the passage?

Upright, illuminated minds and sound, luminous hearts.

10-) What short statement marks the traveler's acceptance of this truth?

He says that he has believed in Allah.

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intelleccts-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main subject unites the whole target passage?

The whole passage centers on how both sound intellects and purified hearts point together to Allah's necessary existence and oneness.

2-) How does the passage balance difference and unity among these intellects?

It says they differ in personal ability and thought, yet agree in faith and certainty.

3-) What does their unity in belief prove to the traveler?

It proves to him that they are resting on a single truth that does not change.

4-) What is the meaning of saying their roots are deep?

It means their belief is established on a strong foundation.

5-) In what matter do those hearts fully agree?

They fully agree regarding Allah's necessary existence and His unity.

6-) What do those hearts experience that supports faith?

They experience spiritual discovery and inward witnessing that agree with each other.

7-) What does the comparison to the sun help explain?

It helps explain that one truth can be reflected in many places without becoming many different truths.

8-) What does the passage communicate by gathering all those hearts into one large image?

It communicates that their combined witness is even stronger than their individual witness.

9-) How does the passage connect certainty with both reason and spirituality?

It presents intellect as reaching shared conviction and hearts as reaching matching spiritual insight, both leading to the same belief.

10-) What does the Arabic summary section restate in simple terms?

It restates that both enlightened minds and luminous hearts, though diverse in their ways, agree in pointing to Allah's oneness.

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveler discover when he began examining enlightened intellects?

He discovered that they all held the same settled belief about Allah's oneness.

2-) Why does the passage mention that some of their viewpoints even oppose others?

It highlights that their agreement in faith is powerful precisely because it remains despite serious differences.

3-) What does the passage suggest about the source of their confidence?

It suggests that their confidence comes from a deep and lasting reality.

4-) What two images are used to explain the consensus of the intellects?

It is compared to a strong chain and to a bright window opening onto truth.

5-) Were the hearts all following exactly the same spiritual path?

No. Their paths and styles were different, but their testimony was in harmony.

6-) What does the passage say each heart reflects?

Each heart reflects a share of divine knowledge and points to Allah.

7-) Why does the passage move from single mirrors to a sea reflecting the sun?

It shows that many individual reflections together create a fuller and stronger witness.

8-) What kind of minds does the passage say could not reasonably accept the idea of universal deception?

Even very misguided and extreme deniers would not sensibly accept it.

9-) How did the traveler respond after seeing the harmony of minds and hearts?

He embraced belief and expressed it with conviction.

10-) What is the purpose of the closing summary after the traveler's declaration?

It gathers the lesson into a clear statement that both enlightened minds and purified hearts testify to the same reality.

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first major sign of truth the traveler studies in this passage?

He studies the shared certainty found in upright and enlightened minds.

2-) What does the image of roots that cannot be pulled out suggest about their faith?

It suggests that their faith was deeply grounded, stable, and not easy to shake.

3-) What does the traveler infer from their steady agreement?

He infers that they are attached to one solid truth that cannot be altered.

4-) What was common among those hearts, even though their ways were different?

Their spiritual discoveries and inner witness agreed with one another about Allah's unity.

5-) What does the traveler observe about the hearts of these people?

He observes that their spiritual disclosures and inner witnessing are also united regarding Allah's oneness.

6-) What larger picture is created when all those hearts are considered together?

Together they form a vast mirror, like a sea reflecting the sun, showing the truth more completely.

7-) Why are many windows and one sun a fitting comparison here?

Because many hearts can receive and reflect one truth without changing the truth itself.

8-) What was the traveler's final response after understanding all this?

He affirmed his faith in Allah with both his mind and heart.

9-) What impossible scenario does the passage dismiss?

It dismisses the idea that falsehood could trick many sharp-sighted people all at once and keep them in the same illusion.

10-) In the final summary, what remains true even when people differ in method or capacity?

Their united testimony still points to Allah's necessary existence and unity.

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) When the traveler begins this stage of study, what shared quality does he see in luminous intellects?

He sees that they all possess the same settled faith in divine oneness.

2-) What kinds of differences existed among those intellects?

They differed in capacity, in method, and even in outlook.

3-) Why does the traveler believe they depend on one truth rather than many?

Because their assurance is united and stable, which points to one source.

4-) What second form of testimony does the traveler observe after intellects?

He observes the inward witnessing and spiritual unveiling of sound hearts.

5-) After intellects, what other witnesses are presented?

The passage presents the witness of sound and luminous hearts.

6-) How do all the hearts function when viewed collectively?

Collectively they act like a huge reflecting surface that powerfully displays one reality.

7-) How is each heart portrayed with respect to Allah?

Each one is portrayed as reflecting knowledge from Allah and showing dependence on Him.

8-) What qualities make these witnesses especially reliable?

Their insight, sincerity, firmness, and agreement despite their differences make them reliable.

9-) What reasoning is used to reject the claim that they might all be mistaken?

The passage argues that it is unreasonable to think falsehood could repeatedly mislead so many perceptive people in the same exact way.

10-) According to the summary, what joins the testimony of minds and hearts together?

Their matching beliefs, convictions, unveilings, and witnessings all point to the same divine reality.

11sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the traveler learn from the upright intellects at the start of the passage?

He learns that they all share one firm belief in Allah's unity.

2-) Why is their agreement important if they are so different?

Their agreement is important because it shows they arrived at one truth independently, which strengthens its credibility.

3-) How does the passage describe the strength of that grounding?

It describes it as deeply rooted and impossible to uproot.

4-) What did the traveler also notice about the witness of luminous hearts?

He noticed that their spiritual experiences and inner certainty also matched one another.

5-) How are those hearts spiritually oriented?

They are directed toward truth, attached to it, and revealing it.

6-) What does it mean that each heart is like a mirror?

It means each heart reflects something of divine reality.

7-) What makes their shared witness an excellent teacher?

Its consistency across many people and many paths makes it a powerful source of guidance.

8-) What argument is made against the possibility of mass deception here?

The argument is that it makes no sense for so many perceptive observers to be misled in the same complete and consistent way by falsehood.

9-) How does the traveler involve himself in the conclusion instead of staying only an observer?

He joins his own mind and heart to the testimony and declares faith.