

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 1

1-) What is the main belief statement expressed at the beginning of the target passage? (15 kelime)

Allah alone is

2-) What are the two broad kinds of evidence named in the passage for Allah's existence and oneness? (5 kelime)

True

3-) According to the passage, what do true revelations include besides the basic message from Allah? (20 kelime)

They include divine communication, Allah

4-) What do truthful inspirations include, according to the passage? (21 kelime)

They include signs of Allah's

5-) How do revelation and inspiration work together in the passage's argument? (18 kelime)

Both agree in pointing

6-) Why is the repeated idea of agreement and consensus important in this passage? (17 kelime)

It shows that many

7-) In this passage, what kind of relationship between Allah and His creatures is emphasized? (14 kelime)

A caring relationship

8-) What does the passage suggest about people's prayers and cries for help? (12 kelime)

They are not

9-) How does the wording of the passage show that Allah's communication reaches different creatures in different ways? (17 kelime)

It mentions both revelation

10-) What is the strongest overall proof pattern used in this passage? (15 kelime)

Repeated and unified

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 2

1-) In the opening summary, what lesson did the traveler gain from the unseen world? (13 kelime)

He learned knowledge

2-) Which attributes of Allah are directly highlighted in the statement of faith in this passage? (12 kelime)

That He necessarily

3-) What does the passage teach through the phrase about all true revelations being in agreement? (15 kelime)

That genuine revelations

4-) How are human prayers presented in connection with divine revelation? (12 kelime)

Revelation includes Allah's

5-) What role do inspirations play in relation to Allah's creatures? (14 kelime)

They give loving,

6-) What can be inferred from the passage's mention of appeals for aid? (12 kelime)

Allah is aware

7-) What idea about Allah's mercy appears in both revelation and inspiration? (11 kelime)

In both,

8-) If a student had to summarize this whole passage in one sentence, what would be a strong summary? (19 kelime)

Every true form of

9-) What misunderstanding would this passage correct for someone who thinks divine guidance is random or disconnected? (18 kelime)

It would correct that

10-) What final idea ties all parts of the passage together? (19 kelime)

Every true sign from

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 3

1-) What truth is being supported by the Arabic declaration and its English explanation in the passage? (18 kelime)

That Allah alone is

2-) According to the passage, what does revelation show about Allah's way of dealing with humanity? (14 kelime)

He speaks, makes

3-) According to the passage, what does truthful inspiration show about Allah's dealings with creation? (16 kelime)

He shows love, answers

4-) What does the passage mean by presenting revelations as a "consensus" and inspirations as an "agreement"? (14 kelime)

It means both

5-) Is the argument in the passage based on one single event or on many signs taken together? (8 kelime)

It is

6-) What kind of comprehension skill is needed to see why the passage lists many kinds of divine communication? (21 kelime)

A reader needs to recognize

7-) What can be inferred about Allah's nearness from the mention of responses to prayers and cries for help? (12 kelime)

Allah is not

8-) How does the passage balance Allah's greatness with His care for creation? (20 kelime)

It presents Him as the

9-) How would you compare revelation and inspiration based on this passage alone? (22 kelime)

Both are forms of divine

10-) What is the best overall conclusion from the target passage? (22 kelime)

The full range of true

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 4

1-) What is the passage mainly trying to prove? (11 kelime)

It is

2-) What source of proof is mentioned first in the passage? (3 kelime)

3-) What source of proof is mentioned after that? (3 kelime)

4-) What are some examples of what true revelations contain in this passage? (15 kelime)

They contain divine

5-) What are some examples of what truthful inspirations contain? (18 kelime)

They contain divine love,

6-) How does the passage connect belief in Allah with lived human experience? (16 kelime)

It ties belief to

7-) Why does the passage repeatedly speak about Allah responding? (15 kelime)

To show that

8-) What can we infer about the value of sincere prayer from this passage? (11 kelime)

Sincere prayer

9-) What is a good thematic title for this passage? (10 kelime)

The united

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 5

1-) In this passage, what does the phrase about “no god but Allah” lead into? (13 kelime)

It leads into

2-) What does the passage say true revelations testify to? (9 kelime)
They testify

3-) What does the passage say truthful inspirations testify to? (10 kelime)
They also

4-) How does the passage show that Allah is merciful? (11 kelime)
It says

5-) How does the passage show that Allah is loving? (9 kelime)
It says

6-) What does the mention of aid and appeals for help add to the meaning of the passage? (12 kelime)
It shows that

7-) What idea about knowledge of Allah comes from this passage? (13 kelime)
People can know

8-) If someone asked whether the passage presents Allah as silent toward creation, what would the best answer be? (13 kelime)

No; it presents

9-) Why would the agreement of many revelations and inspirations be stronger than a single claim? (15 kelime)
Because many truthful

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 6

1-) What core Islamic belief is affirmed in the first line of the target passage? (15 kelime)

The belief that

2-) How is revelation described as supporting faith in Allah? (16 kelime)
It gives a united

3-) How is inspiration described as supporting faith in Allah? (20 kelime)

It gives a united testimony

4-) What do the repeated references to Allah's responses teach about dua? (16 kelime)

They teach that calling

5-) What effect does the structure of the passage have on the reader? (15 kelime)

It builds confidence

6-) What can be inferred about the truthfulness of divine guidance from the passage? (12 kelime)

True divine guidance

7-) How does this passage help a believer think about moments of weakness or need? (11 kelime)

It reminds

8-) In what way is this passage both theological and personal? (21 kelime)

It teaches a doctrine about

9-) What central conclusion should a reader draw from the whole passage? (16 kelime)

All true divine messages

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main belief statement expressed at the beginning of the target passage?

Allah alone is worthy of worship, and He necessarily exists as the One without partner.

2-) What are the two broad kinds of evidence named in the passage for Allah's existence and oneness?

True revelations and truthful inspirations.

3-) According to the passage, what do true revelations include besides the basic message from Allah?

They include divine communication, Allah making Himself known, merciful answers to people's prayers, and signs showing His existence to creation.

4-) What do truthful inspirations include, according to the passage?

They include signs of Allah's love, answers to prayers, help for servants who seek aid, and inner indications of His existence.

5-) How do revelation and inspiration work together in the passage's argument?

Both agree in pointing to the same truth, which strengthens the proof of Allah's necessary existence and unity.

6-) Why is the repeated idea of agreement and consensus important in this passage?

It shows that many different forms of divine communication support one conclusion together, not separately or randomly.

7-) In this passage, what kind of relationship between Allah and His creatures is emphasized?

A caring relationship in which Allah communicates, responds, helps, and makes His presence known.

8-) What does the passage suggest about people's prayers and cries for help?

They are not ignored; Allah responds to them with mercy and support.

9-) How does the wording of the passage show that Allah's communication reaches different creatures in different ways?

It mentions both revelation and inspiration, showing that divine communication is given through more than one form.

10-) What is the strongest overall proof pattern used in this passage?

Repeated and unified testimony from many true divine signs leading to one conclusion about Allah.

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the opening summary, what lesson did the traveler gain from the unseen world?

He learned knowledge of Allah through the witness of revelation and true inspiration.

2-) Which attributes of Allah are directly highlighted in the statement of faith in this passage?

That He necessarily exists, is one, and is single in His unity.

3-) What does the passage teach through the phrase about all true revelations being in agreement?

That genuine revelations all support the same belief about Allah rather than contradicting one another.

4-) How are human prayers presented in connection with divine revelation?

Revelation includes Allah's merciful response to people when they call on Him.

5-) What role do inspirations play in relation to Allah's creatures?

They give loving, merciful, and supportive signs that make Allah's existence known to them.

6-) What can be inferred from the passage's mention of appeals for aid?

Allah is aware of human weakness and provides help to His servants.

7-) What idea about Allah's mercy appears in both revelation and inspiration?

In both, Allah responds compassionately to those who turn to Him.

8-) If a student had to summarize this whole passage in one sentence, what would be a strong summary?

Every true form of divine communication, whether revelation or inspiration, points together to Allah's certain existence and absolute oneness.

9-) What misunderstanding would this passage correct for someone who thinks divine guidance is random or disconnected?

It would correct that by showing that genuine revelation and inspiration are consistent and united in one message.

10-) What final idea ties all parts of the passage together?

Every true sign from Allah, whether through revelation or inspiration, leads to recognizing Him as the only true God.

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What truth is being supported by the Arabic declaration and its English explanation in the passage?

That Allah alone is God and that His existence and unity are proven by revelation and true inspiration.

2-) According to the passage, what does revelation show about Allah's way of dealing with humanity?

He speaks, makes Himself known, responds with mercy, and gives signs of His existence.

3-) According to the passage, what does truthful inspiration show about Allah's dealings with creation?

He shows love, answers prayers, helps those who seek rescue, and gives awareness of His existence.

4-) What does the passage mean by presenting revelations as a "consensus" and inspirations as an "agreement"?

It means both groups give a united witness to the same reality about Allah.

5-) Is the argument in the passage based on one single event or on many signs taken together?

It is based on many signs gathered together.

6-) What kind of comprehension skill is needed to see why the passage lists many kinds of divine communication?

A reader needs to recognize that the list builds a cumulative argument, where each part adds force to the main claim.

7-) What can be inferred about Allah's nearness from the mention of responses to prayers and cries for help?

Allah is not distant or unaware; He actively responds to His creation.

8-) How does the passage balance Allah's greatness with His care for creation?

It presents Him as the One true God while also showing that He lovingly answers, helps, and makes Himself known.

9-) How would you compare revelation and inspiration based on this passage alone?

Both are forms of divine communication, but revelation is presented more publicly and comprehensively, while inspiration is described more personally and inwardly.

10-) What is the best overall conclusion from the target passage?

The full range of true divine communication bears one united witness that Allah alone is the necessarily existing and absolutely one Lord.

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the passage mainly trying to prove?

It is trying to prove Allah's necessary existence and His oneness.

2-) What source of proof is mentioned first in the passage?

All true revelations.

3-) What source of proof is mentioned after that?

All truthful inspirations.

4-) What are some examples of what true revelations contain in this passage?

They contain divine communication, Allah's self-disclosure, merciful answers to prayer, and signs of His existence.

5-) What are some examples of what truthful inspirations contain?

They contain divine love, answers to prayers, help for those asking for aid, and signs of Allah's existence.

6-) How does the passage connect belief in Allah with lived human experience?

It ties belief to prayer, calling for help, receiving mercy, and becoming aware of Allah's presence.

7-) Why does the passage repeatedly speak about Allah responding?

To show that His relation to creation includes action, mercy, and communication, not only power.

8-) What can we infer about the value of sincere prayer from this passage?

Sincere prayer matters because Allah responds to His creatures and servants.

9-) What is a good thematic title for this passage?

The united witness of revelation and inspiration to Allah's oneness.

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, what does the phrase about “no god but Allah” lead into?

It leads into an explanation of the proofs for Allah’s existence and unity.

2-) What does the passage say true revelations testify to?

They testify that Allah necessarily exists and is one.

3-) What does the passage say truthful inspirations testify to?

They also testify that Allah necessarily exists and is one.

4-) How does the passage show that Allah is merciful?

It says He responds compassionately to the prayers of His creatures.

5-) How does the passage show that Allah is loving?

It says true inspirations contain expressions of His love.

6-) What does the mention of aid and appeals for help add to the meaning of the passage?

It shows that Allah supports His servants when they are in need.

7-) What idea about knowledge of Allah comes from this passage?

People can know Allah through the truthful signs of His communication and response.

8-) If someone asked whether the passage presents Allah as silent toward creation, what would the best answer be?

No; it presents Him as communicating, responding, helping, and making His existence known.

9-) Why would the agreement of many revelations and inspirations be stronger than a single claim?

Because many truthful witnesses supporting the same point make the conclusion firmer and more convincing.

11sinif supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What core Islamic belief is affirmed in the first line of the target passage?

The belief that only Allah is God and that He exists necessarily as the One.

2-) How is revelation described as supporting faith in Allah?

It gives a united testimony through divine messages, self-disclosure, merciful answers, and signs of His existence.

3-) How is inspiration described as supporting faith in Allah?

It gives a united testimony through love, answered prayers, help in times of need, and inner signs of His existence.

4-) What do the repeated references to Allah's responses teach about dua?

They teach that calling on Allah is meaningful because He answers and cares for His creation.

5-) What effect does the structure of the passage have on the reader?

It builds confidence by stacking one form of evidence after another toward the same conclusion.

6-) What can be inferred about the truthfulness of divine guidance from the passage?

True divine guidance is consistent and never points away from Allah's oneness.

7-) How does this passage help a believer think about moments of weakness or need?

It reminds the believer that Allah hears, responds, and provides support.

8-) In what way is this passage both theological and personal?

It teaches a doctrine about Allah's existence and unity while also showing His loving and merciful care in real human need.

9-) What central conclusion should a reader draw from the whole passage?

All true divine messages and inspirations together testify that Allah exists necessarily and is absolutely one.

