

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 1

1-) What main qualities did he show while delivering the message and calling people to the truth? (7 kelime)

He

2-) What kinds of opposition did he face according to the passage? (17 kelime)

He faced resistance from

3-) How did he respond to that opposition? (8 kelime)

He did

4-) What result of his mission is given as evidence of his unique strength in preaching? (13 kelime)

He confronted the

5-) How is his faith described in the passage? (14 kelime)

It is described

6-) What failed to weaken his faith? (23 kelime)

The beliefs, ideas, philosophies, and

7-) What does the passage say about the Companions and other righteous believers of later generations? (16 kelime)

It says they drew

8-) What conclusion did the traveler reach about truthfulness and dishonesty? (24 kelime)

He concluded that someone with such

9-) What cause-and-effect idea is presented between his qualities and the traveler's conclusion? (20 kelime)

Because his mission produced unmatched

10-) What overall claim does this passage make about him in comparison with others? (16 kelime)

It presents him as

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 2

1-) Which close relationships made the opposition especially difficult for him? (12 kelime)

His own tribe

2-) What does the passage suggest by saying he challenged the whole world? (18 kelime)

It suggests that his

3-) According to the passage, what made his belief extraordinary besides strength? (10 kelime)

It also

4-) How did the intellectual and religious climate of the time affect him? (11 kelime)

It did

5-) What role do the Companions play in the argument of the passage? (14 kelime)

They serve as

6-) How do believers from later ages support the claim being made? (20 kelime)

They are said to have

7-) What final judgment does the traveler make about lying and hypocrisy? (17 kelime)

He decides that such

8-) Which areas of excellence are listed together near the end of the passage? (10 kelime)

Sacred law,

9-) What is the central message of the whole passage? (10 kelime)

His unmatched

10-) What two major themes organize this passage? (10 kelime)

His firmness

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 3

1-) In the passage, what personal traits appear when he invites people to the truth? (6 kelime)

He

2-) What is significant about the fact that even his own people opposed him? (19 kelime)

It shows that the

3-) What does the passage imply by saying he showed no sign of inner disturbance? (10 kelime)

It implies

4-) How does the spread and success of Islam function in the argument? (15 kelime)

It is presented

5-) What kinds of thought systems were unable to shake his belief? (14 kelime)

Popular beliefs, philosophical

6-) What does the passage mean by presenting his faith as a source or fountain? (15 kelime)

It means others

7-) Who are described as being at the front ranks of belief? (6 kelime)

The

8-) What inference can be made from the way later saintly people

viewed him? (18 kelime)

They believed his level

9-) According to the traveler's reasoning, why are falsehood and double-dealing impossible here? (17 kelime)

Because the total greatness

10-) What broader lesson about truth can a student take from this passage? (13 kelime)

Real truth shows

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 4

1-) What challenge did he face when delivering the message? (14 kelime)

He faced severe

2-) Which character qualities helped him continue despite those challenges? (7 kelime)

Courage,

3-) What does the passage use as proof that his mission was not a failure? (16 kelime)

It points to his

4-) How is his certainty different from ordinary confidence? (17 kelime)
It is described as

5-) What emotional states were absent from him in both preaching and faith? (7 kelime)

Fear,

6-) Why are the saintly people of later generations mentioned? (18 kelime)

They are mentioned to

7-) What does the passage say these saintly people did with respect to his belief? (16 kelime)

They benefited from it

8-) What conclusion does the traveler affirm in his mind? (12 kelime)
He affirms that

9-) Name three areas in which the passage says he was without equal.
(10 kelime)
He was

10-) How does the end of the passage gather the earlier points together? (19 kelime)
It combines his law,

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 5

1-) What does the passage emphasize first: his knowledge, his wealth, or his steadfastness in calling people? (7 kelime)

It

2-) How broad was the resistance against him? (16 kelime)

It came from many

3-) What does his calm response to hostility reveal about him? (14 kelime)

It reveals deep

4-) What historical outcome is used to support his unmatched role as a messenger? (13 kelime)

The spread and

5-) In what way was his faith untouched by surrounding ideas? (13 kelime)

None of the

6-) Why is it meaningful that hostility and denial did not weaken him? (13 kelime)

It shows that

7-) Who are said to have benefited from his belief across the ages? (16 kelime)

The righteous people of

8-) What rank does the passage give him in the matter of faith? (10 kelime)

It presents

9-) What final moral judgment does the traveler make about his character? (11 kelime)

He judges

10-) Write the main idea of the passage in one sentence. (19 kelime)

The passage argues that

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 6

1-) According to the passage, what was remarkable about the way he called people to the truth? (11 kelime)

He remained

2-) What detail shows that the opposition was personal as well as public? (11 kelime)

Even members

3-) What does the passage present as a visible proof of his success? (12 kelime)

It presents the

4-) Which words in the passage point to the depth of his belief? (11 kelime)

The passage

5-) What sources of pressure could not disturb his inner conviction? (11 kelime)

Existing worldviews,

6-) How do the Companions strengthen the argument made in the passage? (15 kelime)

They are portrayed

7-) What does it mean that later holy people drew from his faith? (14 kelime)

It means they

8-) What does the traveler decide after considering all these qualities?
(14 kelime)

He decides that

9-) Which quality is connected to both his public mission and his private inner state? (15 kelime)

Firmness is connected

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main qualities did he show while delivering the message and calling people to the truth?

He showed strong determination, firmness, and courage.

2-) What kinds of opposition did he face according to the passage?

He faced resistance from powerful governments, other religions, and even from his own people, tribe, and uncle.

3-) How did he respond to that opposition?

He did not show fear, panic, or hesitation.

4-) What result of his mission is given as evidence of his unique strength in preaching?

He confronted the world successfully and Islam became dominant on a wide scale.

5-) How is his faith described in the passage?

It is described as exceptionally strong, deeply certain, wide in scope, and very elevated.

6-) What failed to weaken his faith?

The beliefs, ideas, philosophies, and teachings that were common in the world at that time could not shake it, even with strong hostility.

7-) What does the passage say about the Companions and other righteous believers of later generations?

It says they drew from his faith and saw him as the highest example of belief.

8-) What conclusion did the traveler reach about truthfulness and dishonesty?

He concluded that someone with such unmatched law, religion, worship, prayer, call to truth, and faith could not be a liar or deceitful person.

9-) What cause-and-effect idea is presented between his qualities and the traveler's conclusion?

Because his mission produced unmatched results and his faith remained unshaken, the traveler saw this as proof of his honesty.

10-) What overall claim does this passage make about him in comparison with others?

It presents him as unequaled in delivering the message and in the strength of his faith.

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which close relationships made the opposition especially difficult for him?

His own tribe and his uncle were among those who opposed him.

2-) What does the passage suggest by saying he challenged the whole world?

It suggests that his mission was global in impact and that he stood firmly against very great opposition.

3-) According to the passage, what made his belief extraordinary besides strength?

It also had deep certainty, broad reach, and lofty conviction.

4-) How did the intellectual and religious climate of the time affect him?

It did not create any real doubt or weakness in him.

5-) What role do the Companions play in the argument of the passage?

They serve as leading examples of believers who recognized the greatness of his faith.

6-) How do believers from later ages support the claim being made?

They are said to have taken from his source of faith and accepted him as the highest model of belief.

7-) What final judgment does the traveler make about lying and hypocrisy?

He decides that such faults cannot belong to a person with these unmatched spiritual and moral qualities.

8-) Which areas of excellence are listed together near the end of the passage?

Sacred law, Islam, worship, supplication, calling to truth, and faith.

9-) What is the central message of the whole passage?

His unmatched courage and faith prove his truthfulness and sincerity.

10-) What two major themes organize this passage?

His firmness in preaching and his unmatched strength of faith.

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, what personal traits appear when he invites people to the truth?

He appears brave, steady, and unwavering.

2-) What is significant about the fact that even his own people opposed him?

It shows that the pressure against him was not only from outsiders but also from those closest to him.

3-) What does the passage imply by saying he showed no sign of inner disturbance?

It implies that his confidence in his mission was complete.

4-) How does the spread and success of Islam function in the argument?

It is presented as evidence that no one else matches him in conveying the message.

5-) What kinds of thought systems were unable to shake his belief?

Popular beliefs, philosophical ideas, and religious teachings of that time could not shake it.

6-) What does the passage mean by presenting his faith as a source or fountain?

It means others gained strength in belief by following his example and learning from him.

7-) Who are described as being at the front ranks of belief?

The Companions are described that way.

8-) What inference can be made from the way later saintly people viewed him?

They believed his level of faith was the highest and that he was the best model to follow.

9-) According to the traveler's reasoning, why are falsehood and double-dealing impossible here?

Because the total greatness of his law, religion, worship, prayer, mission, and belief points to complete truthfulness.

10-) What broader lesson about truth can a student take from this passage?

Real truth shows itself through steady character, unshaken belief, and lasting beneficial results.

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What challenge did he face when delivering the message?

He faced severe hostility from major powers, religious groups, and people close to him.

2-) Which character qualities helped him continue despite those challenges?

Courage, firmness, and perseverance helped him continue.

3-) What does the passage use as proof that his mission was not a failure?

It points to his success in confronting widespread opposition and establishing Islam strongly in the world.

4-) How is his certainty different from ordinary confidence?

It is described as extraordinary, vast, and so strong that it could not be shaken at all.

5-) What emotional states were absent from him in both preaching and faith?

Fear, hesitation, weakness, and anxiety were absent.

6-) Why are the saintly people of later generations mentioned?

They are mentioned to show that the best believers recognized his faith as the highest source and example.

7-) What does the passage say these saintly people did with respect to his belief?

They benefited from it and accepted him as the one with the greatest level of faith.

8-) What conclusion does the traveler affirm in his mind?

He affirms that dishonesty and deception cannot belong to such a person.

9-) Name three areas in which the passage says he was without equal.

He was without equal in sacred law, worship, and faith.

10-) How does the end of the passage gather the earlier points together?

It combines his law, religion, worship, prayer, call to truth, and faith into one overall proof of his truthfulness.

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage emphasize first: his knowledge, his wealth, or his steadfastness in calling people?

It emphasizes his steadfastness in calling people.

2-) How broad was the resistance against him?

It came from many directions, including political powers, religious communities, and his own relatives and tribe.

3-) What does his calm response to hostility reveal about him?

It reveals deep sincerity and strong trust in what he was sent to convey.

4-) What historical outcome is used to support his unmatched role as a messenger?

The spread and victory of Islam in the world is used as support.

5-) In what way was his faith untouched by surrounding ideas?

None of the dominant beliefs or intellectual systems could plant doubt in him.

6-) Why is it meaningful that hostility and denial did not weaken him?

It shows that his belief was not fragile or based on public approval.

7-) Who are said to have benefited from his belief across the ages?

The righteous people of later times, especially with the Companions at the front, benefited from it.

8-) What rank does the passage give him in the matter of faith?

It presents him as holding the highest degree of belief.

9-) What final moral judgment does the traveler make about his character?

He judges that lying and hypocrisy are completely incompatible with him.

10-) Write the main idea of the passage in one sentence.

The passage argues that his unmatched courage in delivering the message and his unshakable faith prove his complete truthfulness.

11sinif supreme-sign-p43-the-messengership-of-prophet-muhammad-16th-degree-3rd-proof-the-uniqueness-of-conveying-the-message-summoning-and-faith - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what was remarkable about the way he called people to the truth?

He remained firm and brave even under intense and widespread opposition.

2-) What detail shows that the opposition was personal as well as public?

Even members of his own family and community stood against him.

3-) What does the passage present as a visible proof of his success?

It presents the strong establishment of Islam in the world as proof.

4-) Which words in the passage point to the depth of his belief?

The passage points to its strength, certainty, broadness, and high level.

5-) What sources of pressure could not disturb his inner conviction?

Existing worldviews, philosophical teachings, and religious traditions could not disturb it.

6-) How do the Companions strengthen the argument made in the passage?

They are portrayed as top believers who recognized and reflected the greatness of his faith.

7-) What does it mean that later holy people drew from his faith?

It means they treated his belief as a source of guidance and spiritual strength.

8-) What does the traveler decide after considering all these qualities?

He decides that deceit and false speech have no place in such a person.

9-) Which quality is connected to both his public mission and his private inner state?

Firmness is connected to both, since he was firm in preaching and firm in belief.