

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 1

1-) How does the passage describe the relationship between the Qur'an and Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him)? (26 kelime)

Each supports the truth of the

2-) What kinds of change does the passage say the Qur'an brought into human life? (18 kelime)

It changed people inwardly

3-) What does the passage say shows that the Qur'an's influence has continued for many centuries? (26 kelime)

Its verses have been continuously recited

4-) According to the passage, how does the Qur'an benefit the spirit, the mind, and life itself? (17 kelime)

It helps the spirit

5-) Why does the passage present the Qur'an as unmatched among books? (20 kelime)

Because of its lasting power,

6-) What example is given to show the Qur'an's powerful language in early Arabia? (23 kelime)

A famous poem once honored

7-) What is one main point of the first three points together? (23 kelime)

The Qur'an is shown as

8-) Which part of the passage focuses most directly on the Qur'an's effect on society over time? (3 kelime)

9-) What overall picture of the Qur'an emerges from these three points? (17 kelime)

It appears as a

10-) Put the three points into one brief summary. (21 kelime)

The passage says the Qur'an

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and- testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 2

1-) In the first point, what proof does the passage give for the Qur'an being from Allah? (21 kelime)

The Prophet himself is presented

2-) How is the Qur'an also described in relation to the Prophet? (11 kelime)

It is

3-) In the second point, what kind of revolution does the passage say the Qur'an produced? (18 kelime)

It brought a major

4-) What does the long history of recitation suggest about the Qur'an's place in Muslim life? (17 kelime)

It shows that the

5-) How does the passage connect reading the Qur'an with moral growth? (14 kelime)

It says the

6-) What claim is made about the Qur'an's effect on the intellect? (8 kelime)

It gives

7-) What event is used in the third point to demonstrate the Qur'an's literary superiority? (16 kelime)

The honored poem at 8-) Why is that event important as evidence in the passage's argument?

(19 kelime)

It shows that even

9-) Which point would best help someone understand the Qur'an's impact on civilization? (3 kelime)

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and- testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 3

1-) What does the passage mean by saying the Prophet is a “miracle” of the Qur’an? (19 kelime)

It means his life

2-) What qualities of the Prophet are mentioned as supporting that claim? (14 kelime)

His miracles, the

3-) According to the second point, did the Qur’an only influence worship, or did it reach beyond that? (14 kelime)

It reached far

4-) What does the passage suggest about the number of people who recite the Qur’an? (14 kelime)

It suggests an

5-) How does the passage show that the Qur’an affects both inner and outer life? (17 kelime)

It says the Qur’an

6-) Why is the Qur’an called a marvel in the second point? (16 kelime)
Because it has had

7-) What cultural background makes the third point especially meaningful? (18 kelime)

The Arabs greatly valued

8-) How does the story about the poem at the Ka'bah support the argument about the Qur'an? (17 kelime)

It shows that when

9-) How do the second and third points work together in the argument? (17 kelime)

One shows the Qur'an's

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and- testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 4

1-) What two-way connection between the Qur'an and the Prophet is explained in the first point? (17 kelime)

The Qur'an serves as

2-) Why is this two-way connection important in the passage? (17 kelime)

It strengthens the case

3-) In the second point, what does the passage say the Qur'an did to human society? (15 kelime)

It brought a

4-) What signs of lasting influence are listed in the second point? (13 kelime)

Constant recitation, widespread

5-) How does the passage describe the Qur'an's role in giving guidance to the human mind? (11 kelime)

It presents

6-) What does the passage say the Qur'an gives to human life itself? (6 kelime)

It

7-) In the third point, what happened to the famous poetry once respected at the Ka'bah? (13 kelime)

Its honor faded

8-) What does that comparison tell us about the Qur'an's speech? (14 kelime)

Its expression is

9-) Which of the three points focuses most on proof through language and style? (3 kelime)

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 5

1-) What evidence from the Prophet's life is used to support the truth of the Qur'an? (15 kelime)

His miracles, his

2-) According to the passage, what does the Qur'an prove about the Prophet? (9 kelime)

It proves

3-) In what areas does the passage say the Qur'an caused renewal and reform? (12 kelime)

In people's inner

4-) Why does the passage mention fourteen centuries of recitation? (17 kelime)

To show that the

5-) What is the meaning of saying the Qur'an purifies hearts and refines souls? (6 kelime)

It

6-) How does the passage portray the Qur'an's relationship to human happiness? (13 kelime)

It presents the

7-) What is the significance of the "Seven Hanging Poems" in the third point? (16 kelime)

They represent the highest

8-) What overall response does the passage invite from readers? (13 kelime)

It invites trust,

9-) What is the strongest common theme running through all three points? (14 kelime)

The Qur'an's truth

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 6

1-) In the first point, how is the Prophet presented as evidence for the Qur'an? (17 kelime)

His mission and character

2-) What does the passage say about the Qur'an as evidence for the Prophet? (12 kelime)

It is presented

3-) What does the second point say the Qur'an changed within people themselves? (8 kelime)

It changed

4-) What does the second point say the Qur'an changed in the wider world? (11 kelime)

It changed

5-) Why is the continued recitation of the Qur'an important in the passage's reasoning? (22 kelime)

It shows that the Qur'an

6-) What makes the Qur'an extraordinary according to the second point? (16 kelime)

Its unique ability to

7-) What example from early Arabic culture is used to highlight the Qur'an's eloquence? (17 kelime)

A well-known poem once

8-) What can we infer about the impact of the Qur'an on literary standards of the time? (13 kelimeler)

It completely raised

9-) What central belief about the Qur'an is the whole passage trying to build? (13 kelimeler)

That the Qur'an

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage describe the relationship between the Qur'an and Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him)? Each supports the truth of the other. The Qur'an confirms his prophethood, and his life, miracles, and noble qualities confirm that the Qur'an is from Allah.

2-) What kinds of change does the passage say the Qur'an brought into human life?

It changed people inwardly and outwardly, including their hearts, minds, souls, personal conduct, social life, and political life.

3-) What does the passage say shows that the Qur'an's influence has continued for many centuries?

Its verses have been continuously recited by huge numbers of people for about fourteen centuries, and it has kept shaping and purifying people through that time.

4-) According to the passage, how does the Qur'an benefit the spirit, the mind, and life itself?

It helps the spirit grow, gives the mind guidance and light, and brings true life and happiness.

5-) Why does the passage present the Qur'an as unmatched among books?

Because of its lasting power, deep effect on humanity, and unique ability to guide, transform, and uplift people across generations.

6-) What example is given to show the Qur'an's powerful language in early Arabia?

A famous poem once honored at the Ka'bah was taken down because it was seen as having no real worth beside the Qur'an.

7-) What is one main point of the first three points together?

The Qur'an is shown as divine through its link with the Prophet, its transformation of human life, and the greatness of its language.

8-) Which part of the passage focuses most directly on the Qur'an's effect on society over time?

The second point.

9-) What overall picture of the Qur'an emerges from these three points?

It appears as a divine book that proves the Prophet, transforms humanity, and surpasses all human expression.

10-) Put the three points into one brief summary.

The passage says the Qur'an is proven by the Prophet, proven by its world-changing guidance, and proven by its unmatched eloquence.

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the first point, what proof does the passage give for the Qur'an being from Allah?

The Prophet himself is presented as a clear sign of it through his miracles, proofs of prophethood, knowledge, and excellent character.

2-) How is the Qur'an also described in relation to the Prophet?

It is described as one of his greatest signs and proofs.

3-) In the second point, what kind of revolution does the passage say the Qur'an produced?

It brought a major and blessed change in both inner human life and the public order of society.

4-) What does the long history of recitation suggest about the Qur'an's place in Muslim life?

It shows that the Qur'an has remained central, living, and active in guiding people generation after generation.

5-) How does the passage connect reading the Qur'an with moral growth?

It says the Qur'an educates people, refines their inner selves, and cleanses their hearts.

6-) What claim is made about the Qur'an's effect on the intellect?

It gives direction and illumination to human thinking.

7-) What event is used in the third point to demonstrate the Qur'an's literary superiority?

The honored poem at the Ka'bah was removed because it could not compare with the Qur'an.

8-) Why is that event important as evidence in the passage's argument?

It shows that even in a culture that highly valued eloquence, the Qur'an stood above the best human speech.

9-) Which point would best help someone understand the Qur'an's impact on civilization?

The second point.

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and- testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage mean by saying the Prophet is a “miracle” of the Qur’an?

It means his life and mission are such strong evidence that they point to the Qur’an as divine revelation.

2-) What qualities of the Prophet are mentioned as supporting that claim?

His miracles, the signs of his prophethood, his deep knowledge, and his personal excellence.

3-) According to the second point, did the Qur’an only influence worship, or did it reach beyond that?

It reached far beyond worship and shaped personal, social, and political life as well.

4-) What does the passage suggest about the number of people who recite the Qur’an?

It suggests an enormous and continuing community of believers shaped by it over centuries.

5-) How does the passage show that the Qur’an affects both inner and outer life?

It says the Qur’an purifies hearts and souls inwardly while also changing society and public life outwardly.

6-) Why is the Qur’an called a marvel in the second point?

Because it has had an extraordinary, lasting, and beneficial impact on humanity unlike any ordinary book.

7-) What cultural background makes the third point especially meaningful?

The Arabs greatly valued poetry and eloquent speech, so their recognition of the Qur’an’s superiority carried real weight.

8-) How does the story about the poem at the Ka’bah support the argument about the Qur’an?

It shows that when the Qur’an appeared, even highly honored human poetry lost its status beside it.

9-) How do the second and third points work together in the argument?

One shows the Qur'an's transforming power in life, and the other shows its unmatched excellence in language.

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two-way connection between the Qur'an and the Prophet is explained in the first point?

The Qur'an serves as proof of the Prophet, and the Prophet serves as proof of the Qur'an.

2-) Why is this two-way connection important in the passage?

It strengthens the case that both the message and the messenger are true and come from Allah.

3-) In the second point, what does the passage say the Qur'an did to human society?

It brought a bright and truthful transformation and kept that transformation alive through the centuries.

4-) What signs of lasting influence are listed in the second point?

Constant recitation, widespread acceptance, and ongoing training of people's souls, hearts, and minds.

5-) How does the passage describe the Qur'an's role in giving guidance to the human mind?

It presents the Qur'an as a source of direction and light.

6-) What does the passage say the Qur'an gives to human life itself?

It gives true life and happiness.

7-) In the third point, what happened to the famous poetry once respected at the Ka'bah?

Its honor faded because it was judged inferior when compared with the Qur'an.

8-) What does that comparison tell us about the Qur'an's speech?

Its expression is presented as beyond the best human literary achievement of that time.

9-) Which of the three points focuses most on proof through language and style?

The third point.

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What evidence from the Prophet's life is used to support the truth of the Qur'an?

His miracles, his clear signs of being a prophet, his knowledge, and his noble qualities.

2-) According to the passage, what does the Qur'an prove about the Prophet?

It proves that he truly was sent by Allah.

3-) In what areas does the passage say the Qur'an caused renewal and reform?

In people's inner world and in their individual, social, and political lives.

4-) Why does the passage mention fourteen centuries of recitation?

To show that the Qur'an's effect has not faded with time but has remained strong and living.

5-) What is the meaning of saying the Qur'an purifies hearts and refines souls?

It improves people morally and spiritually.

6-) How does the passage portray the Qur'an's relationship to human happiness?

It presents the Qur'an as a source of true well-being and blessed living.

7-) What is the significance of the "Seven Hanging Poems" in the third point?

They represent the highest admired poetry of the time, making the Qur'an's superiority even more striking.

8-) What overall response does the passage invite from readers?

It invites trust, admiration, and conviction that the Qur'an is a divine revelation.

9-) What is the strongest common theme running through all three points?

The Qur'an's truth is shown through powerful evidence in history, human experience, and language.

11sinif supreme-sign-p52-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-1st-and-2nd-points - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the first point, how is the Prophet presented as evidence for the Qur'an?

His mission and character are presented as such powerful signs that they confirm the Qur'an's divine source.

2-) What does the passage say about the Qur'an as evidence for the Prophet?

It is presented as one of the clearest miracles supporting his truthfulness.

3-) What does the second point say the Qur'an changed within people themselves?

It changed their souls, hearts, spirits, and minds.

4-) What does the second point say the Qur'an changed in the wider world?

It changed human society, including personal relations, community life, and politics.

5-) Why is the continued recitation of the Qur'an important in the passage's reasoning?

It shows that the Qur'an has ongoing power to teach and guide people rather than being a dead text from the past.

6-) What makes the Qur'an extraordinary according to the second point?

Its unique ability to bring lasting guidance, growth, and happiness to countless people over many centuries.

7-) What example from early Arabic culture is used to highlight the Qur'an's eloquence?

A well-known poem once publicly honored was taken down because it could not stand beside the Qur'an.

8-) What can we infer about the impact of the Qur'an on literary standards of the time?

It completely raised the standard, making even celebrated works seem weak by comparison.

9-) What central belief about the Qur'an is the whole passage trying to build?

That the Qur'an is not human speech but the revealed word of Allah.