

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 1

1-) According to the passage, what has continued for about thirteen centuries because of the Qur'an's qualities? (13 kelime)

Its exalted and

2-) How does the passage describe the effect of that continuing authority on history and the world? (15 kelime)

It says that

3-) What minimum reward is said to come from each letter of the Qur'an? (10 kelime)

At least

4-) How are some verses and suras described as different from ordinary letters in reward? (19 kelime)

Their letters are said

5-) What happens to the value and reward of the letters during blessed times? (11 kelime)

Their reward

6-) Who understood these truths in the passage? (8 kelime)

The traveler

7-) After understanding this, what did the traveler do? (9 kelime)

He turned

8-) What role does the heart play at the end of the passage? (19
kelime)

The traveler addresses his

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 2

1-) What reason does the passage give for the Qur'an's lasting majesty and rule? (14 kelime)

It says this

2-) In how many ways are those qualities grouped in the passage? (11 kelime)

They are

3-) What does the passage suggest by mentioning the Qur'an's rule over many centuries? (15 kelime)

It suggests that

4-) Besides speaking about centuries, what other wide area is mentioned to show the spread of the Qur'an's influence? (7 kelime)

The

5-) What distinction is given to each letter of the Qur'an? (16 kelime)

Each letter is said

6-) What is the difference between the reward of regular letters and the reward of letters in certain verses or suras? (18 kelime)

Regular letters have a

7-) What change takes place in the traveler after grasping these truths? (10 kelime)

He becomes

8-) Who is the person reflecting on these truths in the final line? (5
kelime)

The

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 3

1-) What two major themes are joined together in this passage? (11 kelime)

The Qur'an's

2-) How long does the passage say the Qur'an's radiant rule has continued? (6 kelime)

About

3-) What does the image of illuminating the centuries and the earth suggest? (13 kelime)

It suggests guidance,

4-) What is the least number of rewards connected to one letter of the Qur'an? (1 kelime)

5-) What three kinds of gain are linked to each letter? (5 kelime)

Reward,

6-) How does the passage describe the reward of some verses and suras compared with others? (12 kelime)

It says some

7-) What special condition causes the reward of letters to rise even more? (8 kelime)

Blessed times

8-) What does the traveler's response show about the proper reaction to sacred knowledge? (10 kelime)

It should

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 4

1-) What is said to continue with complete brilliance because of the Qur'an's qualities? (10 kelime)

Its elevated

2-) Over what two things has that continuing brilliance spread? (7 kelime)

Over

3-) What does the passage indicate about the relationship between the Qur'an's qualities and its long influence? (11 kelime)

Its lasting

4-) What honor is attached to every letter of the Qur'an? (13 kelime)

Every letter is

5-) Name one way the passage shows that not all rewards are equal. (18 kelime)

It says some letters

6-) What is added to reward and merit when the passage speaks about what letters produce? (8 kelime)

Lasting fruits

7-) How do blessed times affect Qur'an recitation according to the passage? (15 kelime)

They raise the

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 5

1-) What does the passage present as the cause of the Qur'an's enduring sacred rule? (10 kelime)

The cause

2-) What time span is given for this continuing rule? (2 kelime)

3-) What basic spiritual return does each letter of the Qur'an bring? (9 kelime)

Each letter

4-) What does the passage say about letters in some special verses and chapters? (14 kelime)

They may bring

5-) What three things increase for each letter in blessed times? (7 kelime)

Its

6-) How does the passage balance large-scale impact and individual practice? (21 kelime)

It speaks both about the

7-) What happened after the traveler understood this message? (7 kelime)

He

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 6

1-) According to the passage, what has made the Qur'an's authority remain strong and bright through history? (15 kelime)

Its many noble

2-) What does the passage say this authority has done to the centuries and the earth? (7 kelime)

It

3-) Why does the passage mention six points, six aspects, and six levels? (12 kelime)

To show that

4-) What is the smallest reward mentioned for one Qur'anic letter? (2 kelime)

5-) What do the words about merit and eternal fruit add to the idea of reward? (14 kelime)

They show that

6-) How does the passage describe the rewards connected to certain verses and suras? (13 kelime)

It says their

7-) During what kind of times do the rewards rise especially high? (3 kelime)

CEVAP ANAHTARI

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what has continued for about thirteen centuries because of the Qur'an's qualities?

Its exalted and radiant authority has continued across time and throughout the earth.

2-) How does the passage describe the effect of that continuing authority on history and the world?

It says that this authority has shone brightly over the ages and across the earth.

3-) What minimum reward is said to come from each letter of the Qur'an?

At least ten rewards, ten merits, and ten lasting benefits.

4-) How are some verses and suras described as different from ordinary letters in reward?

Their letters are said to bring far more reward, such as a hundred or a thousand, or even more.

5-) What happens to the value and reward of the letters during blessed times?

Their reward and spiritual worth increase from ten to many hundreds.

6-) Who understood these truths in the passage?

The traveler moving through the world understood them.

7-) After understanding this, what did the traveler do?

He turned inward and spoke to his own heart.

8-) What role does the heart play at the end of the passage?

The traveler addresses his heart, showing that the message is meant to be deeply felt, not just intellectually understood.

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What reason does the passage give for the Qur'an's lasting majesty and rule?

It says this comes from the qualities and features already mentioned about the Qur'an.

2-) In how many ways are those qualities grouped in the passage? They are grouped into six points, six aspects, and six levels.

3-) What does the passage suggest by mentioning the Qur'an's rule over many centuries?

It suggests that its power and truth are not temporary but remain strong through time.

4-) Besides speaking about centuries, what other wide area is mentioned to show the spread of the Qur'an's influence?

The face of the earth is mentioned.

5-) What distinction is given to each letter of the Qur'an?

Each letter is said to have a holy honor because it brings reward and lasting benefit.

6-) What is the difference between the reward of regular letters and the reward of letters in certain verses or suras?

Regular letters have a minimum reward, while some letters in special verses or suras bring much greater reward.

7-) What change takes place in the traveler after grasping these truths?

He becomes inwardly aware and begins reflecting with his heart.

8-) Who is the person reflecting on these truths in the final line?

The traveler through the world.

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two major themes are joined together in this passage?

The Qur'an's long-lasting sovereignty and the multiplied reward of its letters.

2-) How long does the passage say the Qur'an's radiant rule has continued?

About one thousand three hundred years.

3-) What does the image of illuminating the centuries and the earth suggest?

It suggests guidance, influence, and a lasting positive effect on humanity and history.

4-) What is the least number of rewards connected to one letter of the Qur'an?

Ten.

5-) What three kinds of gain are linked to each letter?

Reward, merit, and eternal fruit.

6-) How does the passage describe the reward of some verses and suras compared with others?

It says some of them carry a much higher multiplication of reward.

7-) What special condition causes the reward of letters to rise even more?

Blessed times increase their light, reward, and value.

8-) What does the traveler's response show about the proper reaction to sacred knowledge?

It should lead to personal reflection and a heart-level response.

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is said to continue with complete brilliance because of the Qur'an's qualities?

Its elevated and shining dominion and its holy, powerful authority.

2-) Over what two things has that continuing brilliance spread?

Over the ages and over the earth.

3-) What does the passage indicate about the relationship between the Qur'an's qualities and its long influence?

Its lasting influence is presented as a result of those qualities.

4-) What honor is attached to every letter of the Qur'an?

Every letter is given a sacred rank because it produces multiplied spiritual gain.

5-) Name one way the passage shows that not all rewards are equal.

It says some letters in certain verses or suras bring a hundred or a thousand rewards or more.

6-) What is added to reward and merit when the passage speaks about what letters produce?

Lasting fruits that continue forever are also mentioned.

7-) How do blessed times affect Qur'an recitation according to the passage?

They raise the spiritual light and worth of each letter far beyond the basic amount.

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage present as the cause of the Qur'an's enduring sacred rule?

The cause is the Qur'an's qualities and characteristics mentioned earlier.

2-) What time span is given for this continuing rule?

Thirteen centuries.

3-) What basic spiritual return does each letter of the Qur'an bring?

Each letter brings at least tenfold reward and benefit.

4-) What does the passage say about letters in some special verses and chapters?

They may bring rewards multiplied to a hundred, a thousand, or even beyond that.

5-) What three things increase for each letter in blessed times?

Its light, its reward, and its value.

6-) How does the passage balance large-scale impact and individual practice?

It speaks both about the Qur'an's influence over centuries and about the reward of each single letter read by a person.

7-) What happened after the traveler understood this message?

He turned to his heart in reflection.

11sinif supreme-sign-p59-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-commentaries-and-the-risale-i-nur-as-signatures-to-its-miraculousness - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what has made the Qur'an's authority remain strong and bright through history?

Its many noble qualities and characteristics have made its authority continue in strength and brightness.

2-) What does the passage say this authority has done to the centuries and the earth?

It has lit them up with splendor.

3-) Why does the passage mention six points, six aspects, and six levels?

To show that the Qur'an's greatness has been supported from multiple angles.

4-) What is the smallest reward mentioned for one Qur'anic letter?

Ten rewards.

5-) What do the words about merit and eternal fruit add to the idea of reward?

They show that the benefit is not only numerical but also spiritual and lasting.

6-) How does the passage describe the rewards connected to certain verses and suras?

It says their letters can bring much greater multiplied rewards than the minimum.

7-) During what kind of times do the rewards rise especially high?

During blessed times.