1-) What did the traveler gain by observing the four truths mentioned in the passage?

He reached a firm and clear recognition of Allah's oneness.

2-) What does the passage show about the relationship between understanding and faith?

Deeper understanding strengthens and illuminates faith.

3-) What response comes from him once his faith is strengthened?

He openly affirms Allah's oneness and denies that Allah has any partner.

4-) Why does the passage include a brief summary after his declaration?

To explain the lesson he learned from that stage of reflection.

5-) What aspect of Allah is mentioned first in the summary of proofs?

The greatness of the manifestation of absolute Divinity.

6-) What truth about dominical rule is included in the summary statement?

That its vast and comprehensive reality requires unity.

7-) What is the main message of the Arabic verse placed before the summary statement?

If there were other gods besides Allah, the order of existence would be ruined.

8-) According to the passage, are these four truths separate random ideas or parts of one unified proof?

They are parts of one unified proof.

9-) Why does sovereignty, in this summary, stand against partnership?

Because complete authority cannot be shared without losing its true nature.

10-) If you had to state the lesson of this passage in a few words, what would it be?

Clear reflection on the signs of creation leads to certainty that Allah is One without partner.

11sinif supreme-sign-p79-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-absolute-sovereignty-and-the-impossibility-of-associating-partners - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR
