Cevap 16 It emphasizes that the reality of these rivers is higher than what material causes alone can explain.	Cevap 15 It presents it as a way of expressing that those rivers have a source beyond what appears outwardly.	Cevap 14 Their benefits, their important functions, and their steady renewal.	Cevap 13 Because such provision seems impossible through the material surroundings alone, so it points to divine care.
Cevap 20 No; it says the tradition carries deep significance and expresses a real insight.	Cevap 19 Visible explanation depends on physical storage and rainfall, while the unseen source points to Allah's hidden generosity and power.	Cevap 18 The river's enormous output does not match the much smaller visible storage in the mountains.	Cevap 17 It says that if that water were collected and frozen, it would become larger than the mountains it supposedly comes from.
Cevap 24 People came to say that the Nile has a miraculous connection to an unseen Paradise.	Cevap 23 Because their surroundings do not seem sufficient to produce such careful sustenance on their own.	Cevap 22 It shows that sea creatures are sustained and managed with discipline.	Cevap 21 He saw precious underwater beauty and many kinds of living creatures.
