Cevap 4 The starting materials look very similar and are limited, but the creatures that come from them are extremely many and very different in form.	Cevap 3 It says they are alike or very similar to each other.	Cevap 2 They come from eggs and from reproductive fluid.	Cevap 1 It shows that the huge variety of animals points to a wise and perfect Creator.
Cevap 8 It means the creatures come forth correctly and consistently, without breakdown or mistake in the overall process.	Cevap 7 The process is marked by order, balance, and freedom from failure.	Cevap 6 It suggests that each creature is made with deep purpose, knowledge, and careful design.	Cevap 5 Their forms are described as numerous and varied, and each one is presented as full of wisdom.
Cevap 12 The passage refers to hundreds of thousands of forms.	Cevap 11 They appear and develop into existence in many different bodily patterns.	Cevap 10 The evidence is presented as overwhelming, because every animal is treated like a separate sign supporting the truth.	Cevap 9 It highlights that from restricted and similar starting points, an amazing diversity of living beings is produced.

13 How does the passage describe the value or significance of each creature?	14 What are the two immediate physical sources named for these creatures?	15 Why is it important that these sources are said to resemble one another?	16 What does the passage teach about the way these creatures come into being?
