Cevap 16 His great power is emphasized.	Cevap 15 Both the kinds as a whole and their separate individuals are said to be the work of one being.	Cevap 14 Since the same elements and kinds appear across the whole earth in a united way, they are best understood as coming from one source.	Cevap 13 It means each kind exists widely while still keeping its shared pattern and identity.
Cevap 20 Because the truths he recognized stirred deep faith and happiness within him.	Cevap 19 It introduces his personal response after witnessing these five proofs and prepares for his inner reflection.	Cevap 18 They are compared to disciplined soldiers, teaching that living things operate under one ruler's order.	Cevap 17 They are compared to obedient servants, teaching that even huge natural forces are under Divine command.
Cevap 24 It concludes that such things are made and possessed by one single being.	Cevap 23 Each species carries a mark that points to unity.	Cevap 22 Their wide spread across the earth while bearing signs of oneness supports it.	Cevap 21 Their presence throughout the whole earth serves as evidence for Divine unity.
