

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 1

1-) What are people told to do in this passage? (11 kelime)

They are

2-) What does the passage say about these events in the sky? (6 kelime)

They

3-) Who is in charge of those events? (8 kelime)

A wise

4-) Does each event have a reason, or no reason at all? (5 kelime)

Each

5-) What does each event do? (7 kelime)

Each

6-) How does the traveler answer after hearing this message? (6 kelime)

He

7-) Which parts of the weather help give this message? (10 kelime)

The winds,

8-) What big idea does the sky's message teach? (10 kelime)

It teaches

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 2

1-) What does the message tell a person not to think about himself?
(10 kelime)

He should

2-) Are the sky events without an owner, or do they belong under someone's rule? (5 kelime)

They

3-) What kind of deeds are people asked to notice? (9 kelime)

They are

4-) Why are the sky events important in the passage? (7 kelime)

They

5-) What does the passage teach about thunder, rain, and other sky events? (7 kelime)

They

6-) What does "wise" tell us about the one who controls these events?
(10 kelime)

It means

7-) After hearing the witness of the sky, what does the traveler say? (6 kelime)

He

8-) What is the "truth" the traveler hears from the atmosphere about?
(7 kelime)

It

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 3

1-) What command comes first in the message? (8 kelime)

The first

2-) After raising the head, what should a person do? (9 kelime)

He should

3-) What does the passage say about being “on your own”? (8 kelime)

It says

4-) Are the sky events random, or are they directed? (3 kelime)

5-) What is given to every event mentioned there? (7 kelime)

Every

6-) What does the traveler hear from the weather and sky? (8 kelime)

He hears

7-) What effect does that witness have on him? (7 kelime)

It

8-) What is one main idea of the whole passage? (11 kelime)

The signs

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 4

1-) Where should they look instead? (4 kelime)

They

2-) What do the signs in the sky show? (6 kelime)

They

3-) Do these signs have a master? (5 kelime)

Yes,

4-) What does the passage say about the purpose of these sky events? (7 kelime)

It

5-) If each event has a task, what does that tell us about the world? (9 kelime)

It tells

6-) What kinds of things in the atmosphere give testimony? (10 kelime)

The winds,

7-) What does the traveler do when he understands this testimony? (4 kelime)

He

8-) Is the passage mostly about people making weather, or Allah directing it? (6 kelime)

It

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 5

1-) What does the message ask a careless person to notice? (10 kelime)
It asks

2-) What does the passage say about the events in the sky and air? (6 kelime)
They

3-) What does “not left to your own devices” mean here? (11 kelime)
It means

4-) What does it mean that each thing has a task? (10 kelime)
It means

5-) What kind of disposer is mentioned in the passage? (6 kelime)
A

6-) What does the traveler understand from the winds and rain? (10 kelime)
He understands

7-) How does the traveler respond with his words? (6 kelime)
He

8-) What big belief is supported by this passage? (9 kelime)
That Allah

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 6

1-) What simple action does the speaker ask from the listener first? (9 kelime)

The speaker

2-) What should the listener see after doing that? (8 kelime)

He should

3-) What truth about life is taught when it says people are not on their own? (10 kelime)

It teaches

4-) How many of the events are said to have tasks? (8 kelime)

Every one

5-) What does this tell us about confusion and order in the world? (8 kelime)

It tells

6-) What three things are named as part of the atmosphere's witness? (11 kelime)

The winds,

7-) What does the traveler call his response to this witness? (6 kelime)

He

8-) What does the passage show about the world around us? (9 kelime)

It shows

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What are people told to do in this passage?

They are told to look up and notice Allah's amazing works.

2-) What does the passage say about these events in the sky?

They are not happening by themselves.

3-) Who is in charge of those events?

A wise master is in charge of them.

4-) Does each event have a reason, or no reason at all?

Each event has a reason.

5-) What does each event do?

Each one is given a special job.

6-) How does the traveler answer after hearing this message?

He says he believes in Allah.

7-) Which parts of the weather help give this message?

The winds, the rain, and the events in the sky.

8-) What big idea does the sky's message teach?

It teaches that Allah rules things with wisdom and purpose.

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the message tell a person not to think about himself?
He should not think he is left on his own.

2-) Are the sky events without an owner, or do they belong under someone's rule?

They are under someone's rule.

3-) What kind of deeds are people asked to notice?

They are asked to notice amazing and powerful deeds.

4-) Why are the sky events important in the passage?

They point to Allah and His power.

5-) What does the passage teach about thunder, rain, and other sky events?

They are made to do certain jobs.

6-) What does "wise" tell us about the one who controls these events?

It means He does things with perfect knowledge and purpose.

7-) After hearing the witness of the sky, what does the traveler say?

He says, "I believe in Allah."

8-) What is the "truth" the traveler hears from the atmosphere about?

It is about Allah's oneness and rule.

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What command comes first in the message?

The first command is to raise your head.

2-) After raising the head, what should a person do?

He should look at the amazing things being done.

3-) What does the passage say about being “on your own”?

It says people are not left by themselves.

4-) Are the sky events random, or are they directed?

They are directed.

5-) What is given to every event mentioned there?

Every event is given a certain task.

6-) What does the traveler hear from the weather and sky?

He hears a clear witness to the truth.

7-) What effect does that witness have on him?

It leads him to believe in Allah.

8-) What is one main idea of the whole passage?

The signs in the sky show Allah’s wisdom, power, and oneness.

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Where should they look instead?

They should look upward.

2-) What do the signs in the sky show?

They show powerful and wonderful actions.

3-) Do these signs have a master?

Yes, they have a master.

4-) What does the passage say about the purpose of these sky events?

It says they all have a purpose.

5-) If each event has a task, what does that tell us about the world?

It tells us the world is arranged in order.

6-) What kinds of things in the atmosphere give testimony?

The winds, the rain, and other happenings in the sky.

7-) What does the traveler do when he understands this testimony?

He believes in Allah.

8-) Is the passage mostly about people making weather, or Allah directing it?

It is about Allah directing it.

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the message ask a careless person to notice?

It asks him to notice the amazing works above him.

2-) What does the passage say about the events in the sky and air?

They are controlled and given duties.

3-) What does “not left to your own devices” mean here?

It means a person is not without Allah’s care and rule.

4-) What does it mean that each thing has a task?

It means each thing is used for a special purpose.

5-) What kind of disposer is mentioned in the passage?

A most wise disposer is mentioned.

6-) What does the traveler understand from the winds and rain?

He understands that they witness to Allah’s existence and oneness.

7-) How does the traveler respond with his words?

He says he believes in Allah.

8-) What big belief is supported by this passage?

That Allah alone is the true God and ruler.

2sinif supreme-sign-p15-the-atmosphere-admonition-through-atmospheric-events-and-the-result-i-believe-in-allah - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What simple action does the speaker ask from the listener first?

The speaker asks the listener to lift his head.

2-) What should the listener see after doing that?

He should see wonderful deeds full of power.

3-) What truth about life is taught when it says people are not on their own?

It teaches that Allah is watching over and managing things.

4-) How many of the events are said to have tasks?

Every one of them has its own task.

5-) What does this tell us about confusion and order in the world?

It tells us there is order, not chaos.

6-) What three things are named as part of the atmosphere's witness?

The winds, the falling rain, and the happenings in the air.

7-) What does the traveler call his response to this witness?

He calls it believing in Allah.

8-) What does the passage show about the world around us?

It shows that creation is guided and cared for.