

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 1

1-) What did the traveler study first about inspiration in this passage?

(9 kelime)

Its nature,

2-) In the first light, what does Allah do through words and nearness?

(4 kelime)

He

3-) In the second light, what does Allah do for His servants besides answering with actions? (4 kelime)

He

4-) In the third light, who is especially mentioned as needing help? (7 kelime)

Creatures

5-) In the fourth light, which creatures are especially mentioned as weak and needy? (9 kelime)

Conscious creatures

6-) In the fourth light, how does Allah also tell them of His presence? (9 kelime)

By a

7-) In the example, if the sun had life and awareness, what would it use like speech? (5 kelime)

Its

8-) How does the sun in the example speak to each thing? (8 kelime)

In a

9-) In the comparison, whose speech reaches all things? (2 kelime)

10-) What final truth did all the inspirations point to? (8 kelime)

Allah is

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 2

1-) What did the traveler notice about inspiration at the start of this passage? (11 kelime)

That it

2-) What is the main idea of the second light? (10 kelime)

Allah answers

3-) What is the main idea of the third light? (11 kelime)

Allah helps

4-) What is the main idea of the fourth light? (18 kelime)

Allah lets weak and

5-) What does “through the telephone of their hearts” help us imagine? (11 kelime)

That inspiration

6-) If the sun were alive, what in the example would be like its speech? (5 kelime)

Its

7-) What does each clear object receive from the sun according to its own ability? (5 kelime)

A

8-) According to the passage, does one task stop another for Allah? (8 kelime)

No, every

9-) What did the traveler understand from all these inspirations together? (9 kelime)

They all

10-) What sure knowledge did the traveler gain at the end? (12 kelime)

That all these

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 3

1-) What three parts of inspiration did the traveler think about? (7 kelime)

Its

2-) In the first light, why does Allah speak and draw near? (6 kelime)

So

3-) In the second light, what do servants do before Allah answers them? (2 kelime)

4-) In the third light, what kind of people or creatures are described? (4 kelime)

Those

5-) In the fourth light, what does Allah show weak creatures through deeds? (7 kelime)

His

6-) Is this speech the same for everyone, or fitted to each person? (6 kelime)

It

7-) What example does the passage give to help explain many inspirations at once? (7 kelime)

A

8-) Which objects are listed as receiving the sun's reflections? (14 kelime)

Mirrors, bright things,

9-) When the passage compares this to Allah, what else is mentioned with His speech? (4 kelime)

His

10-) What four big truths do all these inspirations witness to together? (7 kelime)

His

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 4

1-) According to the passage, what was inspiration made of in its nature, wisdom, and result? (2 kelime)

2-) How is the first light like Allah's actions? (10 kelime)
Just as

3-) What words tell us these answers are not always direct in the same way? (5 kelime)
They

4-) How does Allah respond in the third light? (7 kelime)
He

5-) What do those creatures greatly need to find? (10 kelime)
Their Master,

6-) What does "peculiar to them and their capacities" mean here? (14 kelime)
It fits each

7-) What pretend example is given about the sun? (13 kelime)
If the sun

8-) Would the sun in the example be able to reach only one clear object? (7 kelime)
No,

9-) What does the passage say about one address mixing up with another? (5 kelime)

That

10-) How sure was the traveler about this truth? (6 kelime)

Very

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 5

1-) What did the traveler see when he looked at inspiration carefully?
(6 kelime)

He

2-) What can we learn from the first light about Allah's relationship with His creatures? (10 kelime)

He cares

3-) Who receives these answers? (2 kelime)

4-) Why is inspiration important in the third light? (8 kelime)
Because it

5-) Which creatures especially receive this care? (6 kelime)
The

6-) How does this inspiration reach each person? (7 kelime)
In

7-) In that example, what would be like the sun's speaking? (5 kelime)
Its

8-) What is another example of a reflecting thing from the passage? (3 kelime)

9-) What does the comparison teach about Allah's speech? (10 kelime)
It reaches

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 6

1-) What did the traveler understand inspiration to have? (8 kelime)

Four lights

2-) What is similar between Allah's words and His deeds in the first light? (5 kelime)

Both

3-) How are these words given in the second light? (3 kelime)

4-) In the third light, what does Allah send to them quickly? (5 kelime)

Inspiration

5-) What does Allah let them feel in their lives through His actions? (8 kelime)

That He

6-) Why does the passage say this message is given according to capacity? (11 kelime)

Because each

7-) What living thing from nature is used as a comparison? (2 kelime)

8-) What kinds of things would receive that light in the example? (4 kelime)

Clear

9-) How is Allah's speech like that example? (7 kelime)

It

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveler study first about inspiration in this passage?
Its nature, its wisdom, and what it leads to.

2-) In the first light, what does Allah do through words and nearness?
He makes Himself loved.

3-) In the second light, what does Allah do for His servants besides answering with actions?
He answers with words.

4-) In the third light, who is especially mentioned as needing help?
Creatures facing very hard troubles and pain.

5-) In the fourth light, which creatures are especially mentioned as weak and needy?

Conscious creatures that really need their Lord and Protector.

6-) In the fourth light, how does Allah also tell them of His presence?
By a special kind of speech through true inspiration.

7-) In the example, if the sun had life and awareness, what would it use like speech?

Its rays and shining appearances.

8-) How does the sun in the example speak to each thing?
In a way that fits each one's ability.

9-) In the comparison, whose speech reaches all things?
Allah's speech.

10-) What final truth did all the inspirations point to?
Allah is present, truly exists, and is One.

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveler notice about inspiration at the start of this passage?

That it had nature, wisdom, and results made of four lights.

2-) What is the main idea of the second light?

Allah answers prayers with words as well as with actions.

3-) What is the main idea of the third light?

Allah helps those in hardship with inspiration that is like speech.

4-) What is the main idea of the fourth light?

Allah lets weak and needy creatures sense His care and also tells them of His presence through inspiration.

5-) What does “through the telephone of their hearts” help us imagine?

That inspiration reaches inside a person in a special personal way.

6-) If the sun were alive, what in the example would be like its speech?

Its rays and shining effects.

7-) What does each clear object receive from the sun according to its own ability?

A fitting reflection and message.

8-) According to the passage, does one task stop another for Allah?

No, every task is done without blocking another.

9-) What did the traveler understand from all these inspirations together?

They all agree in showing Allah’s existence and oneness.

10-) What sure knowledge did the traveler gain at the end?

That all these signs witness to Allah’s presence, true existence, and oneness.

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What three parts of inspiration did the traveler think about?
Its nature, its wisdom, and its result.

2-) In the first light, why does Allah speak and draw near?
So His creatures may love Him.

3-) In the second light, what do servants do before Allah answers them?

They pray.

4-) In the third light, what kind of people or creatures are described?
Those suffering heavy troubles.

5-) In the fourth light, what does Allah show weak creatures through deeds?

His being there and caring for them.

6-) Is this speech the same for everyone, or fitted to each person?
It is fitted to each person.

7-) What example does the passage give to help explain many inspirations at once?

A sun shining into many clear objects.

8-) Which objects are listed as receiving the sun's reflections?

Mirrors, bright things, bits of glass, bubbles, drops of water, and other clear particles.

9-) When the passage compares this to Allah, what else is mentioned with His speech?

His knowledge and power.

10-) What four big truths do all these inspirations witness to together?
His presence, necessary existence, unity, and oneness.

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what was inspiration made of in its nature, wisdom, and result?

Four lights.

2-) How is the first light like Allah's actions?

Just as His actions show love, His words do too.

3-) What words tell us these answers are not always direct in the same way?

They come from behind veils.

4-) How does Allah respond in the third light?

He quickly helps with inspiration like speech.

5-) What do those creatures greatly need to find?

Their Master, Protector, Guardian, and the One managing their affairs.

6-) What does "peculiar to them and their capacities" mean here?

It fits each person in a special way that matches what they can receive.

7-) What pretend example is given about the sun?

If the sun were alive and aware, it would speak through its light.

8-) Would the sun in the example be able to reach only one clear object?

No, it would reach many clear objects.

9-) What does the passage say about one address mixing up with another?

That does not happen either.

10-) How sure was the traveler about this truth?

Very sure, almost like seeing it.

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveler see when he looked at inspiration carefully?
He saw four lights in it.

2-) What can we learn from the first light about Allah's relationship with His creatures?

He cares for them and wants them to know Him.

3-) Who receives these answers?

Allah's servants.

4-) Why is inspiration important in the third light?

Because it is like speech that brings help.

5-) Which creatures especially receive this care?

The weakest and neediest conscious creatures.

6-) How does this inspiration reach each person?

In a special way through the heart.

7-) In that example, what would be like the sun's speaking?

Its rays and shining appearances.

8-) What is another example of a reflecting thing from the passage?

A water drop.

9-) What does the comparison teach about Allah's speech?

It reaches all things in a way fitting for them.

2sinif supreme-sign-p38-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-nature-and-wisdom-of-inspiration-and-4-lights - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveler understand inspiration to have?

Four lights in its nature, wisdom, and result.

2-) What is similar between Allah's words and His deeds in the first light?

Both help creatures love Him.

3-) How are these words given in the second light?

From behind veils.

4-) In the third light, what does Allah send to them quickly?

Inspiration that is like speech.

5-) What does Allah let them feel in their lives through His actions?

That He exists, is near, and protects them.

6-) Why does the passage say this message is given according to capacity?

Because each one can receive only what fits him or her.

7-) What living thing from nature is used as a comparison?

The sun.

8-) What kinds of things would receive that light in the example?

Clear and shining things.

9-) How is Allah's speech like that example?

It reaches all things widely and fittingly.