

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 1

1-) What did the traveller believe is the main purpose of life in this world? (1 kelime)

2-) Which book did he call the one spoken by the Being he was seeking? (2 kelime)

3-) Which book did he choose to study? (2 kelime)

4-) Because he lived in the present age, what did he look at first? (3 kelime)

5-) How are the many parts of the Risale-i Nur explained in the passage? (10 kelime)

As shining

6-) What is the Risale-i Nur trying to spread? (5 kelime)

The

7-) What does that show about the Qur'an? (18 kelime)

That it is the

8-) Did the traveller deny that there are many proofs? (14 kelime)

No. He said

9-) Which two writings are named for giving a strong proof of the Qur'an's wonder? (10 kelime)

The Twenty-Fifth

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 2

1-) How is the traveller described at the start of the passage? (8 kelime)

He is

2-) What three praising ideas are said about the Qur'an near the start?

(9 kelime)

It is

3-) What holy book did he plan to examine? (2 kelime)

4-) What does the Qur'an do in every age? (8 kelime)

It challenges

5-) What is said about the contents of its many parts? (9 kelime)

They come

6-) What book did he use first to help with that question? (3 kelime)

7-) What does the passage say no one can do to the Risale-i Nur? (5

kelime)

No

8-) What do the proof sections named in the passage help show? (10

kelime)

They help

9-) What is shown by the proof in the two named parts of the Risale-i

Nur? (7 kelime)

Many

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 3

1-) What truth about life had the traveller already learned? (11 kelime)

That faith

2-) To what part of himself did he speak? (2 kelime)

3-) What did he say must be known first about the Qur'an? (6 kelime)

That

4-) Why did he turn first to the Risale-i Nur? (7 kelime)

Because

5-) According to the passage, what is the Risale-i Nur built from? (7 kelime)

Clear

6-) What happens to the Risale-i Nur in that difficult age? (4 kelime)

People

7-) What is the result when someone sees the proof mentioned from those two sections? (10 kelime)

The person

8-) What conclusion is drawn from that fact? (11 kelime)

The Qur'an

9-) Did the traveller try to explain every proof there? (18 kelime)

No. He left that

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 4

1-) What was the traveller searching for through the Qur'an? (8 kelime)
The word

2-) What did he say is both the goal of life and the real meaning of life? (1 kelime)

3-) How is the Qur'an described in the passage? (8 kelime)
As a

4-) What work did he use first in his search? (3 kelime)

5-) Before studying its message, what question did the traveller want answered? (7 kelime)
Whether

6-) From where does the Risale-i Nur get its light and teachings? (3 kelime)

7-) Is the Qur'an described as man-made or sent from above? (3 kelime)

8-) What does that strength point to about the Qur'an? (8 kelime)
That it

9-) After seeing those proofs, what simple path did the traveller choose? (12 kelime)
He chose to

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 5

1-) What did the traveller say life is truly about? (2 kelime)

2-) Why did he want to look at the Qur'an? (7 kelime)

He

3-) Before listening to the Qur'an's message, what did he think needed to be settled? (7 kelime)

Whether

4-) What did he do because he lived in today's time? (7 kelime)

He

5-) What kind of age does the passage describe? (6 kelime)

A

6-) What makes its success important in an age of disbelief? (8 kelime)

It shows

7-) What fact about the Risale-i Nur is used as evidence in the passage? (6 kelime)

That

8-) How do people respond when they truly see that proof? (6 kelime)

They

9-) What did the traveller decide to do instead of giving all the proofs himself? (17 kelime)

He let the Risale-i

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 6

1-) What kind of learner does the traveller seem to be from this passage? (8 kelime)

A serious

2-) Who did he speak to before beginning his search? (3 kelime)

3-) What was the first thing the traveller said must be shown? (7 kelime)

That

4-) What does the Qur'an do to people who do not accept it? (7 kelime)

It

5-) What did he examine first before speaking more about the Qur'an? (3 kelime)

6-) Why is it meaningful that nobody defeats it in this age? (11 kelime)
Because that

7-) What is important about the Risale-i Nur's strength in this age? (11 kelime)

No one

8-) Which writings are named as giving one proof with many sides of the Qur'an's wonder? (10 kelime)

The Twenty-Fifth

9-) What did the traveller choose to do after mentioning those writings? (12 kelime)

He chose to

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveller believe is the main purpose of life in this world?

Faith.

2-) Which book did he call the one spoken by the Being he was seeking?

The Qur'an.

3-) Which book did he choose to study?

The Qur'an.

4-) Because he lived in the present age, what did he look at first?

The Risale-i Nur.

5-) How are the many parts of the Risale-i Nur explained in the passage?

As shining points and solid explanations taken from the Qur'an.

6-) What is the Risale-i Nur trying to spread?

The truths of the Qur'an.

7-) What does that show about the Qur'an?

That it is the source and authority behind it, and that it is from heaven, not from people.

8-) Did the traveller deny that there are many proofs?

No. He said there are many, and he would only point to a few.

9-) Which two writings are named for giving a strong proof of the Qur'an's wonder?

The Twenty-Fifth Word and the end of the Nineteenth Letter.

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How is the traveller described at the start of the passage?

He is hard-working, never satisfied, and always searching.

2-) What three praising ideas are said about the Qur'an near the start?

It is very well-known, very bright, and very wise.

3-) What holy book did he plan to examine?

The Qur'an.

4-) What does the Qur'an do in every age?

It challenges those who refuse to accept it.

5-) What is said about the contents of its many parts?

They come from the Qur'an and explain it well.

6-) What book did he use first to help with that question?

The Risale-i Nur.

7-) What does the passage say no one can do to the Risale-i Nur?

No one can overcome it.

8-) What do the proof sections named in the passage help show?

They help show many signs of the Qur'an's miraculous nature.

9-) What is shown by the proof in the two named parts of the Risale-i Nur?

Many signs that the Qur'an is miraculous.

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What truth about life had the traveller already learned?

That faith is the aim and true life of a person.

2-) To what part of himself did he speak?

His heart.

3-) What did he say must be known first about the Qur'an?

That it comes from our Creator.

4-) Why did he turn first to the Risale-i Nur?

Because he was living in this time.

5-) According to the passage, what is the Risale-i Nur built from?

Clear lights and explanations from the Qur'an.

6-) What happens to the Risale-i Nur in that difficult age?

People cannot defeat it.

7-) What is the result when someone sees the proof mentioned from those two sections?

The person stops objecting and feels respect for the proof.

8-) What conclusion is drawn from that fact?

The Qur'an is its true source and is not human speech.

9-) Did the traveller try to explain every proof there?

No. He left that to the Risale-i Nur and only gave a short mention of a few points.

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What was the traveller searching for through the Qur'an?

The word of the One he was seeking.

2-) What did he say is both the goal of life and the real meaning of life?
Faith.

3-) How is the Qur'an described in the passage?

As a very famous, shining, and wise book.

4-) What work did he use first in his search?

The Risale-i Nur.

5-) Before studying its message, what question did the traveller want answered?

Whether the Qur'an truly came from Allah.

6-) From where does the Risale-i Nur get its light and teachings?

From the Qur'an.

7-) Is the Qur'an described as man-made or sent from above?

Sent from above.

8-) What does that strength point to about the Qur'an?

That it is the heavenly source behind it.

9-) After seeing those proofs, what simple path did the traveller choose?

He chose to mention only a few signs of the Qur'an's greatness.

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveller say life is truly about?

Having faith.

2-) Why did he want to look at the Qur'an?

He wanted to learn what it says.

3-) Before listening to the Qur'an's message, what did he think needed to be settled?

Whether it really came from the Creator.

4-) What did he do because he lived in today's time?

He first looked at the Risale-i Nur.

5-) What kind of age does the passage describe?

A stubborn age with much disbelief.

6-) What makes its success important in an age of disbelief?

It shows its support comes from the Qur'an.

7-) What fact about the Risale-i Nur is used as evidence in the passage?

That no one can beat it.

8-) How do people respond when they truly see that proof?

They admire it and praise it.

9-) What did the traveller decide to do instead of giving all the proofs himself?

He let the Risale-i Nur handle that and gave only a short reminder of a few points.

2sinif supreme-sign-p51-the-miraculousness-and-testimony-of-the-quran-17th-degree-turning-to-the-quran-and-referring-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of learner does the traveller seem to be from this passage?

A serious learner who keeps searching for truth.

2-) Who did he speak to before beginning his search?

His own heart.

3-) What was the first thing the traveller said must be shown?

That the Qur'an is from the Creator.

4-) What does the Qur'an do to people who do not accept it?

It calls them to answer its challenge.

5-) What did he examine first before speaking more about the Qur'an?

The Risale-i Nur.

6-) Why is it meaningful that nobody defeats it in this age?

Because that points to the strength of the Qur'an behind it.

7-) What is important about the Risale-i Nur's strength in this age?

No one can defeat it even in a time of disbelief.

8-) Which writings are named as giving one proof with many sides of the Qur'an's wonder?

The Twenty-Fifth Word and the end of the Nineteenth Letter.

9-) What did the traveller choose to do after mentioning those writings?

He chose to point only briefly to some of the Qur'an's greatness.