

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 1

1-) Why did the traveler begin a new journey? (10 kelime)

He wanted

2-) What did the traveler want to find with great certainty? (11 kelime)

He wanted

3-) Who did the traveler speak to before starting the new journey? (5 kelime)

He

4-) Where had the traveler traveled in his mind before this new journey? (7 kelime)

He

5-) What was the traveler asking all things about? (6 kelime)

He

6-) At the first stopping-place, how many holy truths did they see? (3 kelime)

7-) Where were those four truths seen to be working? (7 kelime)

They

8-) What did those four truths clearly require? (6 kelime)

They

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 2

1-) Who was sent to the world to gain faith? (4 kelime)

A

2-) Why did the traveler look in every place? (9 kelime)

He wanted

3-) Did the traveler only look at one small part of creation or all of it in his mind? (9 kelime)

He looked

4-) After reaching certainty about necessary existence, what did he want to learn next? (9 kelime)

He wanted

5-) Who went together on this new journey? (7 kelime)

The

6-) What happened at the first stopping-place? (5 kelime)

They

7-) What big belief do those truths support? (7 kelime)

They

8-) What did they notice there? (5 kelime)

They

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 3

1-) What was the traveler's purpose in being sent to the world? (6 kelime)

His

2-) How did the traveler make his search through the cosmos? (7 kelime)

He

3-) What was he trying to learn from everything around him? (8 kelime)

He was

4-) What name is used for Allah in this passage when speaking about existence? (8 kelime)

Allah is

5-) What did the traveler say to begin the next part of the journey? (7 kelime)

He

6-) What was special about the new journey compared with the earlier search? (8 kelime)

This journey

7-) When they started together, where did they first stop? (6 kelime)

They

8-) How are those truths described in the passage? (6 kelime)

They

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 4

1-) What kind of person is the main person in the passage? (9 kelime)

He is

2-) What did he use along with his journey to search for answers? (6 kelime)

He

3-) What was he hoping to find in every place? (6 kelime)

He

4-) How sure did he want to be about what he found? (5 kelime)

He

5-) After one part of his search was complete, what did he decide to do? (6 kelime)

He

6-) What was the new journey about? (10 kelime)

It was

7-) At the first stop, what number of truths appeared before them? (3 kelime)

8-) What belief do these truths make clear? (7 kelime)

They

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 5

1-) What did he ask all things about? (9 kelime)

He asked

2-) What does it mean that he sought his Sustainer everywhere? (10 kelime)

It means

3-) What had he already reached before starting the new journey? (9 kelime)

He had

4-) What did he invite his intellect to do? (11 kelime)

He invited

5-) What was the aim of this new journey? (10 kelime)

The aim

6-) What did they find at the first stopping-place? (5 kelime)

They

7-) Did the truths belong only to one part of creation or to all of it? (6 kelime)

They

8-) What conclusion came from those truths? (10 kelime)

The conclusion

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 6

1-) What was the traveler trying to gain in the world? (7 kelime)

He

2-) How far did his search reach in his mind? (6 kelime)

It

3-) What did the traveler want to behold on the new journey? (9 kelime)

He wanted

4-) What does this show about his search: was it ending or continuing? (3 kelime)

5-) Who traveled together at this stage? (7 kelime)

The

6-) What did they see first on this stage of the journey? (9 kelime)

They saw

7-) How strong were those truths in the cosmos? (9 kelime)

They were

8-) What was the result of seeing those truths? (7 kelime)

They

CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why did the traveler begin a new journey?

He wanted to see the proofs that Allah is One.

2-) What did the traveler want to find with great certainty?

He wanted to find his Creator and know Allah for sure.

3-) Who did the traveler speak to before starting the new journey?

He spoke to his intellect.

4-) Where had the traveler traveled in his mind before this new journey?

He had traveled through the whole universe.

5-) What was the traveler asking all things about?

He was asking about his Creator.

6-) At the first stopping-place, how many holy truths did they see?

They saw four.

7-) Where were those four truths seen to be working?

They were seen over all the universe.

8-) What did those four truths clearly require?

They required the oneness of Allah.

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who was sent to the world to gain faith?

A traveler was sent.

2-) Why did the traveler look in every place?

He wanted to seek his Lord and find Allah.

3-) Did the traveler only look at one small part of creation or all of it in his mind?

He looked at all of it in his mind.

4-) After reaching certainty about necessary existence, what did he want to learn next?

He wanted to learn the proofs of Allah's unity.

5-) Who went together on this new journey?

The traveler and his intellect went together.

6-) What happened at the first stopping-place?

They saw four sacred truths.

7-) What big belief do those truths support?

They support believing that Allah is One.

8-) What did they notice there?

They noticed four sacred truths.

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What was the traveler's purpose in being sent to the world?

His purpose was to reach faith.

2-) How did the traveler make his search through the cosmos?

He made the journey in his mind.

3-) What was he trying to learn from everything around him?

He was trying to learn about his Creator.

4-) What name is used for Allah in this passage when speaking about existence?

Allah is described as the Necessarily Existent Creator.

5-) What did the traveler say to begin the next part of the journey?

He called his intellect to come along.

6-) What was special about the new journey compared with the earlier search?

This journey focused on proofs of Allah's unity.

7-) When they started together, where did they first stop?

They stopped at the first stopping-place.

8-) How are those truths described in the passage?

They are described as sacred truths.

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of person is the main person in the passage?

He is a traveler looking for faith and truth.

2-) What did he use along with his journey to search for answers?

He used his mind and intellect.

3-) What was he hoping to find in every place?

He was hoping to find Allah.

4-) How sure did he want to be about what he found?

He wanted the highest certainty.

5-) After one part of his search was complete, what did he decide to do?

He decided to begin another journey.

6-) What was the new journey about?

It was about seeing the proofs that Allah is One.

7-) At the first stop, what number of truths appeared before them?

Four truths appeared.

8-) What belief do these truths make clear?

They make clear that Allah is One.

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did he ask all things about?

He asked them about the One who created him.

2-) What does it mean that he sought his Sustainer everywhere?

It means he looked for Allah's signs in all places.

3-) What had he already reached before starting the new journey?

He had reached certainty about the Creator's necessary existence.

4-) What did he invite his intellect to do?

He invited it to go on a new journey with him.

5-) What was the aim of this new journey?

The aim was to see the proofs of divine unity.

6-) What did they find at the first stopping-place?

They found four sacred truths.

7-) Did the truths belong only to one part of creation or to all of it?

They belonged to all of creation.

8-) What conclusion came from those truths?

The conclusion was that Allah's oneness is certain and necessary.

2sinif supreme-sign-p74-note-the-difference-between-the-1st-chapter-and-the-2nd-chapter - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What was the traveler trying to gain in the world?

He was trying to gain true faith.

2-) How far did his search reach in his mind?

It reached through the whole cosmos.

3-) What did the traveler want to behold on the new journey?

He wanted to behold the proofs of Allah's unity.

4-) What does this show about his search: was it ending or continuing?

It was continuing.

5-) Who traveled together at this stage?

The traveler and his intellect traveled together.

6-) What did they see first on this stage of the journey?

They saw four sacred truths at the first stop.

7-) How strong were those truths in the cosmos?

They were ruling or prevailing over the whole cosmos.

8-) What was the result of seeing those truths?

They showed that Allah's unity is necessary.