CEVAP ANAHTARI

2sinif supreme-sign-p78-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-4th-truth-sovereignty - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage compare the whole world to?

It compares the world to a well-run kingdom or city.

2-) What are all things described as doing?

They are obeying and carrying out their own tasks.

3-) How are the parts of creation connected in the passage's example?

They are connected like organized troops under command.

4-) What can happen when many hands try to do the same job?

Things get mixed up and confused.

5-) What is the result when many people try to control the same work?

The work becomes messy and mixed up.

6-) What do we really see in the universe instead?

We see harmony and order.

7-) Why is sharing rule against the honor of sovereignty?

Because true kingship does not accept a rival.

8-) What human weakness is mentioned in the passage?

People may fight cruelly for a small, temporary rule.

9-) What does that teach us about Allah's sovereignty?

His sovereignty is far greater and never shared.

2sinif supreme-sign-p78-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-4th-truth-sovereignty - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What title is given to this part of the passage?

It is about sovereignty.

2-) What picture is used to help explain this idea?

The picture of a kingdom or a city under strong rule.

3-) Why are atoms, plants, animals, and stars all mentioned together?

To show that Allah's rule covers everything.

4-) What do these many ordered groups point to?

They point to one complete authority over all.

5-) Why would more than one god not fit with that order?

Because shared control would bring disorder.

6-) What do we see instead of ruin?

We see careful order everywhere.

7-) Where does the passage say this order can be seen?

In very tiny things and in huge things too.

8-) Why is rivalry not accepted in sovereignty?

Because rulership has greatness and does not share its place.

9-) How does the example of humans fighting for small power strengthen the message?

It makes it easier to understand that Allah's perfect rule cannot be shared.

2sinif supreme-sign-p78-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-4th-truth-sovereignty - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage describe the universe when looked at with care?

As active, successful, and wisely managed.

2-) What does a careful person see in the universe?

A world run with wisdom and firmness.

3-) Why does the passage say partners cannot share Allah's rule?

Because one rule over all things cannot be shared without harm.

4-) What do these ordered "armies" show about Allah?

That His authority reaches everything.

5-) What simple everyday idea is used to explain this?

One place cannot be run well by two top leaders.

6-) Name one small thing and one big thing the passage uses to show order.

A fly's wing and the lights in the sky.

7-) Why is the example of a fly and the sky important?

It shows that order is present in both tiny and huge parts of creation.

8-) Why does the passage mention people wanting power?

To show that even weak humans do not like to share rule.

9-) What is the main lesson of this whole passage?

Allah alone rules everything, and He has no partner.

2sinif supreme-sign-p78-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-4th-truth-sovereignty - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What big idea is taught in this passage?

Allah's full kingship over everything.

2-) What does every kind of thing in the world seem to be doing?

Each one is doing its own job.

3-) Which range of things is mentioned to show how wide Allah's command is?

From tiny particles and plants and animals all the way to stars.

4-) Does the passage describe the world as random or well ordered?

It describes it as well ordered.

5-) What does the passage say would happen if there were other gods besides Allah?

The heavens and the earth would be ruined.

6-) What does the passage say we actually see in the world instead of confusion?

We see order everywhere.

7-) How small and how large is this order?

It is in the tiniest parts and in the biggest heavenly bodies.

8-) What feeling about sovereignty is taught in the passage?

That it has dignity and does not accept an equal.

9-) How does the passage end its argument in a simple way?

Allah's rule is absolute, so He does not share it with anyone.

2sinif supreme-sign-p78-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-4th-truth-sovereignty - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) When the passage talks about sovereignty, what does that mean here?

It means complete rule and authority.

2-) What do the many groups in creation, from tiny things to stars, help show?

They help show Allah's complete rule and power.

3-) What kinds of things are included in these "armies"?

Very small things, plants, animals, and stars.

4-) What would many rulers over the same place cause?

They would cause disorder.

5-) What does the order in small and big things tell us?

It tells us that no partner is taking part in Allah's work.

6-) What do we learn from the strong order in the world?

We learn that there is one ruler over it all.

7-) According to the passage, can any partner step into Allah's work?

No, there is no room for that.

8-) What does that human example help us understand about Allah's rule?

If weak people guard small power so fiercely, Allah would never share His perfect rule.

9-) What belief does this passage support for Muslims?

That Allah is One and has no partner.

2sinif supreme-sign-p78-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-4th-truth-sovereignty - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say someone will see if they look at the cosmos very carefully?

They will see a world governed in a wise and busy way.

2-) In the passage, what are creatures and parts of creation like?

They are like soldiers or groups in a great army.

3-) What does the passage say about commands in creation?

They reach all levels of creation.

4-) What is the problem with many rulers in one task or one land?

It leads to confusion and loss of order.

5-) What word best fits a place with no order: peace, confusion, or kindness?

Confusion.

6-) What proof from the world is given against that chaos?

The world shows neat order everywhere.

7-) Give one example from the passage that shows huge order.

The signs of the planets.

8-) Why does sovereignty refuse a rival, according to the passage?

Because rule has honor and dignity.

9-) So what should we understand about Allah from all this?

Allah alone has the right and power to rule all things.
