imagination, and intellect described?

5sinif supreme-sign-p109-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-2-kinds-
of-provision

Cevap 7

They are described like keys that open treasures of Allah's mercy.

8

How does the passage show that each human ability has its own special nourishment?

5sinif supreme-sign-p109-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-2-kinds-of-provision

Cevap 8

It says each one is given a suitable share from Allah's mercy that brings it joy in its own way.

9

How does faith help a person use these “keys” well?

5sinif supreme-sign-p109-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-2-kinds-
of-provision

Cevap 9

Faith helps the person understand and enjoy Allah's gifts in the right way.

10

Why is the second form of provision called figurative rather than true natural provision?

5sinif supreme-sign-p109-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-2-kinds-
of-provision

Cevap 10

Because it only seems necessary after people get used to it through bad habits and extra desires, not because life truly depends on it.

11

What makes a person “happy” in the passage’s teaching about provision?

5sinif supreme-sign-p109-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-2-kinds-of-provision

Allah, the Most Compassionate Provider, gives each one what fits it.

What comparison is made between the stomach and other human abilities?

5sinif supreme-sign-p109-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-2-kinds-
of-provision

Cevap 16

Just as the stomach needs food, the other abilities also need fitting nourishment.

17

Why are human abilities compared to keys?

5sinif supreme-sign-p109-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-2-kinds-
of-provision

Cevap 17

Because they open the way to receive special gifts and signs from Allah's mercy.

18

Why is the eye mentioned as an example?

5sinif supreme-sign-p109-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-2-kinds-of-provision
