

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 1

1-) What does the passage say is the main reason people are sent to this world? (10 kelime)

To know

2-) What is described as the first and most basic duty of a human being? (11 kelime)

Learning about

3-) How should a person accept Allah's oneness? (5 kelime)

With

4-) What two big hopes in human nature are mentioned? (10 kelime)

Wanting life

5-) What other side of human life is mentioned along with those hopes? (7 kelime)

People

6-) According to the passage, what things are the foundation and key of everlasting life? (12 kelime)

Belief in Allah,

7-) How does the passage judge goals and achievements that are separate from faith and knowing Allah? (12 kelime)

They are low

8-) Why would worldly success alone not be enough for a human being, based on this passage? (15 kelime)

Because people want

9-) What can we infer about the value of worship from this passage?
(15 kelime)

Worship is one

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 2

1-) According to the passage, what gives human life its real purpose? (8 kelime)

Recognizing Allah,

2-) Which is more important in the passage: collecting worldly things or growing in faith? (6 kelime)

Growing

3-) What does it mean that believing in Allah is an obligation on people? (10 kelime)

It means

4-) Besides belief, what kind of understanding is a person supposed to have about Allah? (11 kelime)

A person

5-) What does the passage say about human wishes and troubles? (12 kelime)

Human wishes are

6-) Why does the passage connect faith with eternal life? (14 kelime)

Because faith and

7-) If something does not help a person move toward Allah, how is it viewed here? (10 kelime)

It is

8-) If a student used this passage to guide daily life, what should come first? (7 kelime)

Faith,

9-) According to the passage, how should we view achievements that are cut off from faith? (9 kelime)

We should

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 3

1-) What three connected parts of human purpose are named in the passage? (9 kelime)

Knowing the

2-) Who is the Creator spoken about in the passage? (6 kelime)

Allah,

3-) What truth about Allah is especially named as part of human duty? (8 kelime)

That He

4-) Is weak doubt enough for this duty, or is something stronger needed? (9 kelime)

Something stronger

5-) What does the passage say humans naturally long for? (5 kelime)

Lasting

6-) What does the passage show by mentioning both huge hopes and many hardships? (11 kelime)

It shows

7-) What is said to be the basis of eternal life? (7 kelime)

Belief

8-) What else is included along with belief and knowledge as important for eternal life? (8 kelime)

The means

9-) What is one good summary sentence for this passage? (13 kelime)
Human life finds

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 4

1-) What does the passage teach about why human beings are in this world? (12 kelime)

They are here

2-) What is the most important responsibility placed on human beings in the passage? (10 kelime)

To know

3-) How should this belief be held inside the heart? (5 kelime)

With

4-) What kind of life do people naturally want, according to the passage? (6 kelime)

A

5-) What does the passage say about the size of human hopes? (6 kelime)

It

6-) What does it say about human pains and problems? (7 kelime)

They

7-) What are called the key to eternal life? (12 kelime)

Belief in Allah,

8-) How are other goals measured when compared with these truths? (10 kelime)

They are

9-) What is the central teaching students should remember from this passage? (15 kelime)

The greatest goal

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 5

1-) According to the passage, what is the wisdom behind human life in this world? (14 kelime)

Its wisdom is

2-) What does the passage say comes before all other human duties? (6 kelime)

Knowing

3-) What part of belief is mentioned besides believing that Allah exists? (5 kelime)

Believing

4-) What kind of inner state should go with this belief? (4 kelime)

Submission

5-) What deep desire in people shows that short worldly life cannot satisfy them? (7 kelime)

Their

6-) What other part of human experience makes people need something greater than worldly success? (6 kelime)

They

7-) In this passage, what makes eternal life possible? (12 kelime)

Faith in Allah,

8-) If a person gains many things but has no faith, how does the passage rate those gains? (12 kelime)

It rates them

9-) What is the main idea of the whole passage? (15 kelime)
A person's real

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 6

1-) What overall purpose of human life is given in the passage? (14 kelime)

The purpose is

2-) How does the passage describe the human duty toward Allah? (9 kelime)

It describes

3-) What must a person believe about Allah according to the passage? (13 kelime)

That Allah truly

4-) What quality should a believer have instead of shaky belief? (2 kelime)

5-) What two parts of human nature are placed side by side in the passage? (5 kelime)

Great

6-) Which things are presented as the strong base for eternal life? (12 kelime)

Belief in Allah,

7-) What happens to other achievements when they are compared with these eternal matters? (9 kelime)

They become

8-) What main message does this passage give to a Muslim student? (15 kelime)

Your life's highest

9-) What lesson does this passage teach about success? (18 kelime)
Real success is not

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say is the main reason people are sent to this world?

To know their Creator, believe in Him, and worship Him.

2-) What is described as the first and most basic duty of a human being?

Learning about Allah and having faith in Him and His oneness.

3-) How should a person accept Allah's oneness?

With submission and strong certainty.

4-) What two big hopes in human nature are mentioned?

Wanting life to last forever and having many endless hopes.

5-) What other side of human life is mentioned along with those hopes?

People also face many troubles and hardships.

6-) According to the passage, what things are the foundation and key of everlasting life?

Belief in Allah, knowing Allah, and the ways that lead to that.

7-) How does the passage judge goals and achievements that are separate from faith and knowing Allah?

They are low in value, and sometimes not worth much at all.

8-) Why would worldly success alone not be enough for a human being, based on this passage?

Because people want lasting life, and only faith and knowing Allah truly lead to that.

9-) What can we infer about the value of worship from this passage?

Worship is one of the central reasons for human life, so it is very important.

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what gives human life its real purpose?
Recognizing Allah, believing in Him, and worshipping Him.

2-) Which is more important in the passage: collecting worldly things or growing in faith?

Growing in faith is more important.

3-) What does it mean that believing in Allah is an obligation on people?

It means it is a duty every person must carry.

4-) Besides belief, what kind of understanding is a person supposed to have about Allah?

A person should know Allah and accept that He is One.

5-) What does the passage say about human wishes and troubles?

Human wishes are very great, and their troubles are also very many.

6-) Why does the passage connect faith with eternal life?

Because faith and knowing Allah are presented as the way to gain everlasting life.

7-) If something does not help a person move toward Allah, how is it viewed here?

It is seen as small or even without real value.

8-) If a student used this passage to guide daily life, what should come first?

Faith, learning about Allah, and worshipping Him.

9-) According to the passage, how should we view achievements that are cut off from faith?

We should see them as low and sometimes empty.

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What three connected parts of human purpose are named in the passage?

Knowing the Creator, believing in Him, and worshipping Him.

2-) Who is the Creator spoken about in the passage?

Allah, the Creator of all beings.

3-) What truth about Allah is especially named as part of human duty?

That He exists and that He is One.

4-) Is weak doubt enough for this duty, or is something stronger needed?

Something stronger is needed: sincere acceptance and firm certainty.

5-) What does the passage say humans naturally long for?

Lasting life and never-ending existence.

6-) What does the passage show by mentioning both huge hopes and many hardships?

It shows that people need something greater than temporary worldly things.

7-) What is said to be the basis of eternal life?

Belief in Allah and knowledge of Him.

8-) What else is included along with belief and knowledge as important for eternal life?

The means that help a person reach them.

9-) What is one good summary sentence for this passage?

Human life finds its true meaning only through faith, knowing Allah, and worship.

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage teach about why human beings are in this world?

They are here to know Allah, believe in Him, and worship Him.

2-) What is the most important responsibility placed on human beings in the passage?

To know Allah and believe in His existence and oneness.

3-) How should this belief be held inside the heart?

With obedience and complete certainty.

4-) What kind of life do people naturally want, according to the passage?

A life that does not end.

5-) What does the passage say about the size of human hopes?

It says they are without limit.

6-) What does it say about human pains and problems?

They are also very great and wide-reaching.

7-) What are called the key to eternal life?

Belief in Allah, knowledge of Allah, and the ways of reaching them.

8-) How are other goals measured when compared with these truths?

They are seen as lesser, and sometimes not truly valuable.

9-) What is the central teaching students should remember from this passage?

The greatest goal in life is to know Allah, believe in Him, and worship Him.

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what is the wisdom behind human life in this world?

Its wisdom is that people should recognize Allah, believe in Him, and worship Him.

2-) What does the passage say comes before all other human duties? Knowing Allah and believing in Him.

3-) What part of belief is mentioned besides believing that Allah exists? Believing that Allah is One.

4-) What kind of inner state should go with this belief? Submission and sure conviction.

5-) What deep desire in people shows that short worldly life cannot satisfy them?

Their desire for life that continues forever.

6-) What other part of human experience makes people need something greater than worldly success?

They go through many painful difficulties.

7-) In this passage, what makes eternal life possible?

Faith in Allah, knowing Him, and following the path to those things.

8-) If a person gains many things but has no faith, how does the passage rate those gains?

It rates them as low, and sometimes as having little real worth.

9-) What is the main idea of the whole passage?

A person's real purpose is faith, knowledge of Allah, and worship, not just worldly things.

5sinif supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What overall purpose of human life is given in the passage?

The purpose is to know the Creator, have faith in Him, and worship Him.

2-) How does the passage describe the human duty toward Allah?

It describes it as the first and necessary duty.

3-) What must a person believe about Allah according to the passage?

That Allah truly is, and that He has no partner and is One.

4-) What quality should a believer have instead of shaky belief?

Strong certainty.

5-) What two parts of human nature are placed side by side in the passage?

Great hopes and many hardships.

6-) Which things are presented as the strong base for eternal life?

Belief in Allah, knowledge of Allah, and the means to reach them.

7-) What happens to other achievements when they are compared with these eternal matters?

They become small in value, and sometimes almost worthless.

8-) What main message does this passage give to a Muslim student?

Your life's highest goal should be faith in Allah, knowing Him, and worshipping Him sincerely.

9-) What lesson does this passage teach about success?

Real success is not just gaining things in this world; it is reaching faith, knowing Allah, and worship.