CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif supreme-sign-p05-1st-abyss-1st-matter-in-negation-there-is-no-mutual-support - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, what happens among people who say something is true?

Their statements point to one shared result, so they support one another.

2-) Why is negation described as many instead of one?

Because each person denies based on his own separate way of seeing things.

3-) Why can denials not easily join together into one strong case?

Because each denial comes from a separate personal judgment.

4-) What should Muslims understand about the apparent strength of unbelievers?

Their seeming strength in numbers has no real weight against truth.

5-) What should not be weakened by spreading hesitation?

A believer's firm iman should not be weakened.

6-) What outside influence is said to have caused doubts in some people?

Ideas of some European philosophers caused those doubts.

7-) How is death described for a person who denies faith?

It is shown as total ending instead of a leaving from this world.

8-) What picture does the passage give of the grave for someone without faith?

It appears like an open doorway to destruction and sadness.

9-) Why does the grave become frightening for the denier?

Because he thinks it leads only to annihilation.

10-) What is the best summary of the last line of the passage?

Faith is a tremendous blessing and the heart of truly living.

5sinif supreme-sign-p05-1st-abyss-1st-matter-in-negation- there-is-no-mutual-support - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, which is united into one result: affirmation or negation?

Affirmation is united into one result.

2-) What relationship does the passage show between one denial and another denial?

They do not truly strengthen each other.

3-) Why does the passage say separate denials cannot all hold each other up?

Because they do not rest on one common, positive truth.

4-) What does the passage say about the seeming majority of deniers?

It says their majority does not matter in proving truth.

5-) What must be guarded carefully in a believer?

His certainty in faith must be guarded.

6-) What happened to those misled people when doubt entered their hearts?

Their certainty was broken, and they lost the happiness that would have lasted forever.

7-) How is death wrongly presented by deniers?

They see it as endless non-existence.

8-) How do deniers interpret the arrival of death?

They take it as the end of a person forever.

9-) What false meaning is put in its place?

It is treated as never existing again.

10-) How does that fear affect the denier's life?

It makes life bitter and full of grief.

5sinif supreme-sign-p05-1st-abyss-1st-matter-in-negation- there-is-no-mutual-support - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What relationship does the passage show between one affirmation and another affirmation?

They back each other up.

2-) How does personal opinion affect denial?

It makes each denial separate because it depends on the individual person.

3-) What does this teach about counting how many people reject belief?

Numbers alone do not decide what is true.

4-) What conclusion does the passage make about many unbelievers standing against belief?

Their large number still does not give their denial real importance.

5-) According to the passage, whose ideas caused doubts for some people in this age?

Some philosophers from Europe caused confusion for certain misled people.

6-) In the passage, what meaning should death have for a believer?

It should be understood as leaving this world, not as complete destruction.

7-) About how many people does the passage say face death every day?

It says thirty thousand people.

8-) What true meaning of death is taken away by denial?

Death is no longer seen as a departure from this world.

9-) What emotional result comes from this way of thinking?

It brings intense sadness and poisons life.

10-) If faith is called the essence of life, what does that suggest?

It suggests that life has its deepest value and hope through faith.

5sinif supreme-sign-p05-1st-abyss-1st-matter-in-negation- there-is-no-mutual-support - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the basic contrast at the start of the passage between affirmation and negation?

Affirmation is single and united, but negation is scattered and many-sided.

2-) When people deny truth, why do many outcomes appear?

Because each person bases denial on his own viewpoint.

3-) If each denier says something based on his own view, what happens to their overall case?

It stays divided and weak.

4-) What should be protected in a believer?

A believer's sure faith and confidence should be protected from doubt.

5-) How are the people influenced by those doubts described?

They are described as unfortunate people who were misled.

6-) What was lost by people who followed those doubts?

They lost firm faith and their everlasting joy.

7-) What does the passage say happened to their certainty?

It was ruined.

8-) What symbol in the passage keeps warning the denier of that fearful idea?

The grave does.

9-) What does the ever-open grave represent for the denier?

It represents a constant fear of being destroyed forever.

5sinif supreme-sign-p05-1st-abyss-1st-matter-in-negation- there-is-no-mutual-support - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) When people affirm truth, do their statements lead to one outcome or many outcomes?

They lead to one outcome.

2-) Why are negative statements not treated the same way?

Because they come from separate personal claims instead of one united truth.

3-) What does the passage teach about the large number of unbelievers who argue against faith?

Their large number does not make their position important or strong against belief.

4-) What harmful effect did certain thinkers have on some people?

They planted doubts that weakened faith.

5-) What group is blamed for spreading doubt in this age?

Some European philosophers are blamed.

6-) What kind of people accepted those doubts?

Misled and unfortunate people accepted them.

7-) What wrong idea about death troubles deniers?

They think death means being completely erased.

8-) How does the passage compare the true meaning of death with the false meaning given by deniers?

Truly, death is a departure from this world; falsely, deniers call it total extinction.

9-) What is one main idea of the whole passage?

True belief is strong and life-giving, while denial brings weakness, doubt, and sorrow.

5sinif supreme-sign-p05-1st-abyss-1st-matter-in-negation- there-is-no-mutual-support - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, what kind of statements strengthen one another: positive statements or negative statements?

Positive statements strengthen one another.

2-) Why do many denials not become stronger just because there are many of them?

Because they are not united in one clear proof; they are divided by each person's own opinion.

3-) If many people reject belief, does that prove they are right?

No. Their number does not prove truth.

4-) What is especially important not to disturb in a believer?

His settled faith and certainty.

5-) In this age, what has harmed some people's iman according to the passage?

Doubts coming from certain philosophers have harmed it.

6-) What was the result for those who were fooled by them?

Their sure faith was damaged, and they lost everlasting happiness.
