

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 1

1-) What is the title of the passage? (3 kelime)

2-) What does the opening line in Arabic and English tell us before the passage begins? (15 kelime)

It begins in

3-) What does the verse say people do not understand well? (10 kelime)

People do

4-) Why does the passage begin with the heavens? (15 kelime)

Because the heavens

5-) What two big questions does the traveler ask when he enters the world? (10 kelime)

He asks

6-) What amazing thing does the traveler notice about the heavenly bodies? (11 kelime)

He sees

7-) What does the passage say about the lights in the sky? (8 kelime)

They keep

8-) How are the strong powers in the heavenly bodies described? (7 kelime)

They

9-) What comparison is used for the movement of heavenly bodies? (9 kelime)

They are

10-) What main idea about the heavens is the traveler meant to understand? (15 kelime)

The heavens are

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 2

1-) What is the main subject of the passage? (12 kelime)

It is about

2-) What important limit does the verse place on human understanding? (10 kelime)

Humans do

3-) What does the traveler think the world is like? (9 kelime)

He sees

4-) What appears before the traveler first? (6 kelime)

The

5-) What does the traveler see happening in the heavens? (9 kelime)

He sees

6-) Why is their movement also surprising? (12 kelime)

Because they move

7-) What does the phrase about managing everything “at the same time” show? (12 kelime)

It shows great

8-) Why are the heavenly bodies compared to an army? (10 kelime)

Because they

9-) What feeling is the passage trying to build in the reader through these examples? (9 kelime)

Wonder at 10-) How does this passage encourage faith? (13 kelime)

It tells us

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 3

1-) In simple words, what is “The Supreme Sign” about? (12 kelime)

It is about

2-) What does the Qur’anic verse say about the seven heavens and the earth? (5 kelime)

It

3-) What are people unable to fully understand in that verse? (5 kelime)

The

4-) How is the world described as a place for people? (9 kelime)

As a

5-) What does the traveler ask about the world as if it were a kingdom? (6 kelime)

He

6-) What is one sign of order in the heavens mentioned in the passage? (7 kelime)

Huge

7-) What is one sign of steadiness mentioned in the passage? (8 kelime)

The shining

8-) What does the passage suggest by saying all things are managed in the same way and with the same strength? (7 kelime)

That

9-) What happens because the earth turns? (9 kelime)

People see

10-) What overall message does the traveler receive from the heavens?
(10 kelime)

They point

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 4

1-) What is the first name given to this section of the text? (3 kelime)

2-) What does starting with the name of Allah teach the reader? (11 kelime)

It teaches

3-) What does the verse show about people's knowledge? (12 kelime)
Our knowledge is

4-) What is one reason the heavens are important signs for all people? (7 kelime)

Everyone

5-) What are the traveler's two main questions about this world? (7 kelime)

Who

6-) What does the sky seem to offer the traveler? (7 kelime)
Guidance

7-) Why is the lack of collisions important in the passage? (6 kelime)
It

8-) What does the management of everything in vast space show? (8 kelime)

It shows

9-) Why is the army example a helpful comparison? (8 kelime)

It helps

10-) If a student summed up this passage in one sentence, what could he or she say? (13 kelime)

The heavens are

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 5

1-) What does the subtitle tell us the traveler is doing? (10 kelime)

He is

2-) According to the verse, is praise of Allah limited to living things only? (4 kelime)

No.

3-) Why does the passage focus on the heavens before other things? (11 kelime)

Because they

4-) Why would the traveler compare the world to a book? (12 kelime)

Because it seems

5-) What in the heavens seems to call the traveler to investigate? (6 kelime)

The

6-) What is unusual about the heavenly bodies being held up? (7 kelime)

They

7-) What does the passage show by mentioning that the lights keep burning without fuel? (9 kelime)

Their working

8-) What is learned from the sun and moon each having their own tasks? (7 kelime)

They

9-) What does cleansing the heavens add to the picture of the universe? (14 kelime)

It shows that

10-) What conclusion is the traveler meant to reach from all these observations? (13 kelime)

The heavens are

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 6

1-) What is the central question of the traveler in this passage? (8 kelime)

He wants

2-) What does the verse teach us about our own understanding? (10 kelime)

We do

3-) Why are the heavens a good first sign for this discussion? (9 kelime)

They are

4-) What question does the traveler ask about the world as a “book”? (5 kelime)

He

5-) What seems to speak to the traveler first? (3 kelime)

6-) What does the traveler notice about the number and size of heavenly bodies? (14 kelime)

There are very

7-) Why is it important that they do not collide? (10 kelime)

It proves

8-) What does the passage say about managing all things in endless space? (11 kelime)

Everything is

9-) What picture does the passage give when speaking of cleaning the heavens? (12 kelime)
It gives the

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the title of the passage?

The Supreme Sign.

2-) What does the opening line in Arabic and English tell us before the passage begins?

It begins in the name of Allah, showing that the discussion starts by remembering Him.

3-) What does the verse say people do not understand well?

People do not understand how the created things glorify Allah.

4-) Why does the passage begin with the heavens?

Because the heavens are always seen by people and they clearly point to Allah's oneness.

5-) What two big questions does the traveler ask when he enters the world?

He asks who made this world and who rules it.

6-) What amazing thing does the traveler notice about the heavenly bodies?

He sees huge bodies held up with no pillars or supports.

7-) What does the passage say about the lights in the sky?

They keep shining without needing fuel like oil.

8-) How are the strong powers in the heavenly bodies described?

They are made obedient to a law.

9-) What comparison is used for the movement of heavenly bodies?

They are compared to a disciplined army doing maneuvers.

10-) What main idea about the heavens is the traveler meant to understand?

The heavens are carefully controlled and ordered, and this points to Allah's power and rule.

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main subject of the passage?

It is about a traveler learning about Allah by observing the universe.

2-) What important limit does the verse place on human understanding?

Humans do not fully grasp the way creation praises Allah.

3-) What does the traveler think the world is like?

He sees it as a welcoming, well-prepared, meaningful place.

4-) What appears before the traveler first?

The beautiful sky filled with stars.

5-) What does the traveler see happening in the heavens?

He sees a ruling power carrying out many tasks.

6-) Why is their movement also surprising?

Because they move very fast and still do not hit each other.

7-) What does the phrase about managing everything “at the same time” show?

It shows great power, perfect control, and no weakness in ruling creation.

8-) Why are the heavenly bodies compared to an army?

Because they move in a controlled, organized, and obedient way.

9-) What feeling is the passage trying to build in the reader through these examples?

Wonder at the order and greatness of Allah’s creation.

10-) How does this passage encourage faith?

It tells us to observe creation carefully and see Allah’s signs in it.

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In simple words, what is “The Supreme Sign” about?

It is about finding proof of Allah by looking at the universe.

2-) What does the Qur’anic verse say about the seven heavens and the earth?

It says they glorify Allah.

3-) What are people unable to fully understand in that verse?

The way creation praises Allah.

4-) How is the world described as a place for people?

As a place of kindness, wisdom, beauty, and learning.

5-) What does the traveler ask about the world as if it were a kingdom?

He asks who its ruler is.

6-) What is one sign of order in the heavens mentioned in the passage?

Huge heavenly bodies move together without crashing.

7-) What is one sign of steadiness mentioned in the passage?

The shining bodies continue their work without disorder.

8-) What does the passage suggest by saying all things are managed in the same way and with the same strength?

That one powerful ruler controls them all.

9-) What happens because the earth turns?

People see different views of the heavens over time.

10-) What overall message does the traveler receive from the heavens?

They point him toward the greatness and control of Allah.

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first name given to this section of the text?

The Supreme Sign.

2-) What does starting with the name of Allah teach the reader?

It teaches the reader to begin important matters by remembering Allah.

3-) What does the verse show about people's knowledge?

Our knowledge is limited because we do not fully understand that praise.

4-) What is one reason the heavens are important signs for all people?

Everyone can look at them with amazement.

5-) What are the traveler's two main questions about this world?

Who made it and who governs it.

6-) What does the sky seem to offer the traveler?

Guidance toward the answer he is seeking.

7-) Why is the lack of collisions important in the passage?

It shows careful order, not chaos.

8-) What does the management of everything in vast space show?

It shows complete control over a huge creation.

9-) Why is the army example a helpful comparison?

It helps us picture discipline, unity, and command.

10-) If a student summed up this passage in one sentence, what could he or she say?

The heavens are full of signs showing wise and powerful control by Allah.

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the subtitle tell us the traveler is doing?

He is examining the universe to learn about his Maker.

2-) According to the verse, is praise of Allah limited to living things only?

No. Everything praises Allah.

3-) Why does the passage focus on the heavens before other things?

Because they are a clear and wonderful sign seen by everyone.

4-) Why would the traveler compare the world to a book?

Because it seems made with meaning, like something written by an author.

5-) What in the heavens seems to call the traveler to investigate?

The shining sky filled with stars.

6-) What is unusual about the heavenly bodies being held up?

They remain in place without visible supports.

7-) What does the passage show by mentioning that the lights keep burning without fuel?

Their working does not depend on ordinary human methods.

8-) What is learned from the sun and moon each having their own tasks?

They are given duties and follow them.

9-) What does cleansing the heavens add to the picture of the universe?

It shows that the universe is not only powerful but also orderly and maintained.

10-) What conclusion is the traveler meant to reach from all these observations?

The heavens are under the control of a wise and mighty Creator, Allah.

5sinif supreme-sign-p10-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-the-heavens-as-the-page-of-divine-unity - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the central question of the traveler in this passage?

He wants to know who his Maker is.

2-) What does the verse teach us about our own understanding?

We do not fully understand the praise made by creation.

3-) Why are the heavens a good first sign for this discussion?

They are visible to all people and inspire wonder.

4-) What question does the traveler ask about the world as a “book”?

He asks who made it.

5-) What seems to speak to the traveler first?

The starry heavens.

6-) What does the traveler notice about the number and size of heavenly bodies?

There are very many of them, and some are much larger than the earth.

7-) Why is it important that they do not collide?

It proves there is harmony and planning in their movement.

8-) What does the passage say about managing all things in endless space?

Everything is managed together with equal power and without any shortcoming.

9-) What picture does the passage give when speaking of cleaning the heavens?

It gives the picture of removing waste from a huge gathering place.