5sinif supreme-sign-p109-3rd-stopping-place-4th-truth-2-kinds-of-provision - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why is the second form of provision called figurative rather than true natural provision?

Because it only seems necessary after people get used to it through bad habits and extra desires, not because life truly depends on it.

2-) What makes a person “happy” in the passage’s teaching about provision?

Living with moderation, contentment, halal effort, thankfulness, and acceptance of Allah’s gifts.

3-) What does the passage teach a believer to do instead of being wasteful?

A believer should be careful with blessings, stay content, and seek provision through lawful work.

4-) What is the connection between greed and suffering in the passage?

Greed pushes a person into wrong choices and leaves him unhappy and troubled.

5-) What makes lawful effort special in this passage?

It is treated like an act of worship and a deed that asks Allah for rizq.

6-) Who gives provision to these human abilities?

Allah, the Most Compassionate Provider, gives each one what fits it.

7-) What comparison is made between the stomach and other human abilities?

Just as the stomach needs food, the other abilities also need fitting nourishment.

8-) Why are human abilities compared to keys?

Because they open the way to receive special gifts and signs from Allah’s mercy.

9-) Why is the eye mentioned as an example?

It helps show clearly that one ability can enjoy a special gift, such as the beauty spread throughout the world.
