Bringing things under control, managing them, turning them, putting them in order, cleaning them, and giving them duties.

2-) What do these actions in the heavens show about the Creator?

They show that the Creator must exist and that He is One.

3-) Why does the passage say this proof is very clear?

Because the greatness and wide reach of what happens in the heavens can be plainly observed.

4-) In this passage, which is presented as more obvious: the existence of the heavens or the Creator's existence?

The Creator's existence is presented as even more obvious.

5-) How do the heavens give testimony in this passage?

They testify by the perfect order, control, movement, cleansing, and assigned work found in them.

6-) What is the main idea of the whole passage?

The heavens and everything in them clearly point to the necessary existence and oneness of Allah.

7-) What is the role of all things in the heavens according to the statement at the end?

They act like witnesses that point to Allah.

5sinif supreme-sign-p11-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-dominical-activity-and-the-declaration-of-divine-unity - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What area of creation is used here as a proof?

The heavens and all that is in them.

2-) What truth is said to be found inside the activity seen there?

A truth made up of control, management, motion, order, cleansing, and giving jobs.

3-) What does the word “necessary” tell us about the Creator’s existence in this passage?

It tells us His existence is not optional or doubtful; it must be so.

4-) Does the passage present the heavens as random or directed? Explain.

Directed, because they are shown as being run with order, purpose, and control.

5-) What does it mean that the truth is “observed”?

It means people can see signs of it in the world, not just imagine it.

6-) How does this passage connect what we see to what we believe?

It teaches that visible order in creation leads us to belief in Allah’s existence and oneness.

7-) What can we infer from the phrase that this truth is broad and complete?

That the signs are not small or limited, but spread widely and fit together fully.

5sinif supreme-sign-p11-the-testimony-of-the-heavens-1st-degree-dominical-activity-and-the-declaration-of-divine-unity - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the passage trying to prove by talking about the heavens?

That the Creator certainly exists and is One.

2-) Which part of the heavens' activity suggests wise planning?

Their orderly management and the way each part has its own task.

3-) Which part suggests power over movement and change?

Their turning and controlled motion.

4-) Which part suggests care and purity?

Their cleansing.

5-) Which part suggests purpose instead of uselessness?

Giving things duties and putting them to work.

6-) Why is the testimony of the heavens important in this passage?

Because it comes from the whole system of the heavens and everything in them.

7-) How does the final statement strengthen the message of the passage?

It turns the meaning into a clear declaration that Allah alone is God.
