

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 1

1-) Why does the passage stop the longer discussion about Allah's compassion and wisdom? (23 kelime)

Because many parts of the

2-) What do the thirty-three truths do for the traveler? (9 kelime)

They answer

3-) What mood does the traveler show when he speaks after his search? (6 kelime)

He

4-) What two comparisons are used to show how clear and firm these truths are? (14 kelime)

They are compared

5-) What can we infer from the mountain comparison? (14 kelime)

We can infer

6-) What is shown by saying each truth is like the sun? (8 kelime)

It shows

7-) From what kind of faith does the passage say a person begins? (7 kelime)

It

8-) What are the middle stages before full certainty? (11 kelime)

They include

9-) What should a Muslim learn from the traveler's praise at the end?
(17 kelime)

A Muslim should learn

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 2

1-) What special qualities of the Risale-i Nur are named at the start of the passage? (13 kelime)

It is described

2-) What does the passage suggest about the amount of knowledge still left unspoken? (17 kelime)

It suggests that much

3-) What does the traveler call the truths he discovered? (7 kelime)

He

4-) What has the traveler learned from the truths he witnessed? (11 kelime)

He has

5-) What effect do these truths have on a person's belief? (8 kelime)

They make

6-) What does the passage mean when it says the truths are comprehensive in proving unity? (12 kelime)

It means they

7-) How does the passage describe the change from weak faith to strong faith? (12 kelime)

It says faith

8-) What does the traveler call the guidance he received? (8 kelime)

He calls

9-) What does the traveler's statement teach about being thankful for iman? (16 kelime)

It teaches that strong

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 3

1-) Why does the passage mention earlier parts of the Risale-i Nur? (12 kelime)

To say that

2-) Why does the speaker leave the fuller explanation to other sections? (8 kelime)

Because those

3-) What do these truths testify to? (11 kelime)

They show

4-) What can we infer from the line about “no darkness” being left? (10 kelime)

We can

5-) What do these truths witness with certainty? (11 kelime)

They witness

6-) What happens to belief when all these truths are taken together? (10 kelime)

Faith grows

7-) What is the first level named in this journey of faith? (3 kelime)

8-) What overall result comes from all the truths agreeing together? (12 kelime)

Their agreement raises

9-) What lesson about guidance is taught in the final praise? (9 kelime)
A person

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 4

1-) What reason is given for keeping this part of the discussion short? (9 kelime)

The reason

2-) Why is only a brief sign given here instead of a full explanation? (12 kelime)

Because the subject

3-) How does the traveler begin speaking? (7 kelime)

He

4-) What effect do these truths have on darkness? (10 kelime)

They drive

5-) What do the words about brightness and strength help the reader understand? (13 kelime)

They help the

6-) What does the passage say these truths also support besides Allah's existence and oneness? (8 kelime)

They also

7-) Why is moving beyond copied faith important in this passage? (14 kelime)

Because the goal

8-) Which is higher at the end of the journey: certainty like seeing, or complete certainty? (7 kelime)

Complete

9-) What is one main message of the whole passage? (13 kelime)

Real faith becomes

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 5

1-) At the beginning of the passage, what two divine names are especially connected to the Risale-i Nur? (3 kelime)

2-) How many truths does the traveler say he has seen and heard? (1 kelime)

3-) What does the passage show about the strength of proof for faith? (10 kelime)
It shows

4-) How many truths helped him in that search? (4 kelime)
Thirty-three

5-) Besides proving Allah's existence, what else does each truth clearly show? (6 kelime)
Each

6-) According to the passage, do the truths help faith only a little, or in a major way? (12 kelime)
In a major

7-) According to the passage, do these truths only support one part of faith? Explain. (17 kelime)
No. The passage says

8-) What does the traveler say about all of this guidance and understanding? (9 kelime)
He says

9-) What important truth about human guidance is stated near the end? (12 kelime)

People cannot find

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 6

1-) What does the speaker say about the truth of compassion in the larger work? (12 kelime)

The speaker says

2-) After this short introduction, whose words are given next? (5 kelime)

The

3-) What has the traveler experienced before making his statement of praise? (7 kelime)

He

4-) What might “necessary existence” mean here in simple words? (12 kelime)

It means Allah

5-) Why are the truths described as firm like a mountain? (9 kelime)

Because they

6-) What does the agreement of all the truths do for the traveler’s faith? (11 kelime)

It helps

7-) Which comes first in the passage: certainty like seeing, or certainty based on knowledge? (6 kelime)

Certainty

8-) What do the words about the messengers teach? (8 kelime)

They teach

9-) How does the mention of the messengers fit the passage's message? (13 kelime)

It supports the

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why does the passage stop the longer discussion about Allah's compassion and wisdom?

Because many parts of the Risale-i Nur already explain it, and the speaker says the present hard situation allows only a short mention.

2-) What do the thirty-three truths do for the traveler?

They answer his search and help him recognize Allah.

3-) What mood does the traveler show when he speaks after his search?

He shows joy, thankfulness, and confidence.

4-) What two comparisons are used to show how clear and firm these truths are?

They are compared to the sun for brightness and to a mountain for strength.

5-) What can we infer from the mountain comparison?

We can infer that these truths are not weak or easy to tear down.

6-) What is shown by saying each truth is like the sun?

It shows that each truth is very clear.

7-) From what kind of faith does the passage say a person begins?

It begins with following belief by imitation.

8-) What are the middle stages before full certainty?

They include realized belief, then knowledge-based certainty, then certainty like seeing.

9-) What should a Muslim learn from the traveler's praise at the end?

A Muslim should learn to thank Allah for faith and guidance instead of taking credit for it.

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What special qualities of the Risale-i Nur are named at the start of the passage?

It is described as showing the meanings of Allah's names All-Compassionate and All-Wise.

2-) What does the passage suggest about the amount of knowledge still left unspoken?

It suggests that much more remains, like a huge treasure from which only a little was taken.

3-) What does the traveler call the truths he discovered?

He calls them truths that give witness.

4-) What has the traveler learned from the truths he witnessed?

He has learned that the Creator truly exists and is one.

5-) What effect do these truths have on a person's belief?

They make belief stronger, deeper, and more certain.

6-) What does the passage mean when it says the truths are comprehensive in proving unity?

It means they show Allah's oneness in a wide and complete way.

7-) How does the passage describe the change from weak faith to strong faith?

It says faith grows step by step into deeper and stronger certainty.

8-) What does the traveler call the guidance he received?

He calls it a favor from his Lord.

9-) What does the traveler's statement teach about being thankful for iman?

It teaches that strong faith is a blessing from Allah and should be met with praise.

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why does the passage mention earlier parts of the Risale-i Nur?
To say that the topic has already been explained many times there.

2-) Why does the speaker leave the fuller explanation to other sections?

Because those sections already discuss it in detail.

3-) What do these truths testify to?

They show that Allah truly exists and that He is One.

4-) What can we infer from the line about “no darkness” being left?

We can infer that confusion and uncertainty are pushed away.

5-) What do these truths witness with certainty?

They witness that Allah must exist and that He is one.

6-) What happens to belief when all these truths are taken together?

Faith grows stronger and moves to higher levels of certainty.

7-) What is the first level named in this journey of faith?

Belief by imitation.

8-) What overall result comes from all the truths agreeing together?

Their agreement raises belief from simple acceptance to stronger and stronger certainty.

9-) What lesson about guidance is taught in the final praise?

A person is guided only if Allah guides him.

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What reason is given for keeping this part of the discussion short?

The reason given is that the circumstances are difficult.

2-) Why is only a brief sign given here instead of a full explanation?

Because the subject is very large and the present situation is difficult.

3-) How does the traveler begin speaking?

He begins by thanking and praising Allah.

4-) What effect do these truths have on darkness?

They drive it away, meaning they remove doubt and uncertainty.

5-) What do the words about brightness and strength help the reader understand?

They help the reader understand that the proofs are both clear and solid.

6-) What does the passage say these truths also support besides Allah's existence and oneness?

They also support the main parts of faith.

7-) Why is moving beyond copied faith important in this passage?

Because the goal is to have faith that is understood, confirmed, and deeply certain.

8-) Which is higher at the end of the journey: certainty like seeing, or complete certainty?

Complete certainty is higher at the end.

9-) What is one main message of the whole passage?

Real faith becomes stronger through clear signs, and all guidance comes from Allah.

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the beginning of the passage, what two divine names are especially connected to the Risale-i Nur?

All-Compassionate and All-Wise.

2-) How many truths does the traveler say he has seen and heard?

Thirty-three.

3-) What does the passage show about the strength of proof for faith?

It shows that the proofs are clear, solid, and convincing.

4-) How many truths helped him in that search?

Thirty-three truths helped him.

5-) Besides proving Allah's existence, what else does each truth clearly show?

Each one also shows Allah's oneness.

6-) According to the passage, do the truths help faith only a little, or in a major way?

In a major way, because together they raise faith through many levels.

7-) According to the passage, do these truths only support one part of faith? Explain.

No. The passage says they also support all the main parts of faith in an indirect way.

8-) What does the traveler say about all of this guidance and understanding?

He says it is a gift from his Lord.

9-) What important truth about human guidance is stated near the end?

People cannot find true guidance on their own unless Allah guides them.

5sinif supreme-sign-p112-conclusion-summary-of-33-truths-and-praise - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the speaker say about the truth of compassion in the larger work?

The speaker says it has been explained and proven in many places.

2-) After this short introduction, whose words are given next?

The traveler's words are given.

3-) What has the traveler experienced before making his statement of praise?

He has seen and heard thirty-three truths.

4-) What might "necessary existence" mean here in simple words?

It means Allah truly exists and does not depend on anyone else.

5-) Why are the truths described as firm like a mountain?

Because they are strong and cannot be easily shaken.

6-) What does the agreement of all the truths do for the traveler's faith?

It helps move his faith upward through stronger stages of certainty.

7-) Which comes first in the passage: certainty like seeing, or certainty based on knowledge?

Certainty based on knowledge comes first.

8-) What do the words about the messengers teach?

They teach that Allah's messengers brought the truth.

9-) How does the mention of the messengers fit the passage's message?

It supports the idea that Allah has sent true guidance through His messengers.