

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 1

1-) What main question is being discussed in this passage? (26 kelime)

It asks why so much effort

2-) What does the first speaker find surprising? (20 kelime)

He finds it surprising that

3-) What is one reason the questioner thinks extra effort may seem unnecessary? (17 kelime)

He thinks even a

4-) Besides one person's heart, what larger things need healing? (18 kelime)

The shared spiritual condition

5-) Why is the image of giant stones important in the passage? (15 kelime)

It shows that

6-) What is the difference between an individual conscience and a general conscience in the passage? (20 kelime)

One belongs to a single

7-) What kind of help does the passage say the Qur'an provides? (8 kelime)

It provides

8-) How does the passage describe the needed proofs? (11 kelime)

It describes

9-) What does the passage say about the journey of belief? (19 kelime)
It says belief has

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 2

1-) Why does the speaker mention an imagined question-and-answer talk? (16 kelime)

To share a short

2-) What does the passage say a tiny portion of the Risale-i Nur can already do? (9 kelime)

It can

3-) What is the first side of the conversation impressed by? (13 kelime)

It is impressed

4-) What image helps explain the size of the religious damage? (12 kelime)

The passage uses

5-) What two levels of healing are contrasted in the passage? (15 kelime)

It contrasts healing

6-) How have harmful forces been described in the passage? (16 kelime)

They are described as

7-) Why does the passage speak about many medicines instead of just one? (16 kelime)

Because the sickness is

8-) What kinds of solutions are said to be needed? (12 kelime)

Very certain proofs,

9-) What two big jobs of the Risale-i Nur are mentioned near the end?

(12 kelime)

It heals major

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 3

1-) What is the title topic of this passage? (9 kelime)

It is

2-) What does the phrase about complete readiness suggest about the Risale-i Nur? (9 kelime)

It suggests

3-) What does the passage say the Risale-i Nur is not limited to fixing? (16 kelime)

It is not limited

4-) What larger duty is it said to be doing instead? (14 kelime)

It is repairing

5-) What does the passage say about the scale of this work compared with a small house? (12 kelime)

It says the

6-) Why are very strong proofs needed? (17 kelime)

They are needed because

7-) What are believers said to need because of these major wounds? (10 kelime)

They need

8-) What makes the Risale-i Nur able to offer those cures? (8 kelime)

Its teachings

9-) What feeling does the speaker show after hearing the discussion? (4 kelime)

He

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 4

1-) In simple words, what question is answered in this passage? (12 kelime)

It answers why

2-) Why is only a summary given? (13 kelime)

Because the full

3-) Why is that strength still not considered enough by itself? (16 kelime)

Because the problem being

4-) What does that image help the reader understand? (16 kelime)

It helps the reader

5-) What does the passage say is being repaired besides individuals? (17 kelime)

It says the wider

6-) How long does the passage suggest harmful influences have been building up? (12 kelime)

It suggests they

7-) Why are ordinary solutions not enough? (12 kelime)

They are not

8-) What is the connection between the Qur'an and these strong answers? (12 kelime)

These answers are

9-) What can we infer about the mission of the Risale-i Nur from the whole passage? (18 kelime)

Its mission is broad,

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 5

1-) Who is speaking at the beginning of the discussion, and what does he ask about? (20 kelime)

A person in the imagined

2-) What comparison is used to show that the problem is very big, not small? (16 kelime)

The damage is compared

3-) What does the answer say the Risale-i Nur is not doing in a small, simple way? (9 kelime)

It is

4-) What kind of damage is being repaired? (13 kelime)

It is broad

5-) What is said to be damaged or attacked in the wider Muslim community? (15 kelime)

The supporting bases,

6-) What has happened to public thinking according to the passage? (10 kelime)

It has

7-) What do the many images of medicine and remedies show? (15 kelime)

They show that

8-) According to the passage, does the Risale-i Nur only defend faith, or does it also help faith grow? (16 kelime)
It does both; it

9-) What does the final sentence about cutting the matter short show? (15 kelime)
It shows the

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 6

1-) What kind of conversation does the speaker say he heard? (11 kelime)

He says

2-) What does this tell us about how powerful the book's arguments are presented to be? (13 kelime)

They are presented

3-) What building image is used for Islam? (7 kelime)

Islam

4-) What is the main answer given? (16 kelime)

The answer is that

5-) What has been harmed besides people's feelings? (15 kelime)

Their common beliefs

6-) What has put the general conscience in danger? (17 kelime)

The tearing down of

7-) What examples of strong answers are named? (12 kelime)

The passage names

8-) What extra benefit of the Risale-i Nur is named near the end? (12 kelime)

It also helps

9-) What does the passage teach about strong faith? (15 kelime)
It teaches that

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main question is being discussed in this passage?

It asks why so much effort is still being made for the Risale-i Nur when even a small part of it can answer very stubborn unbelief.

2-) What does the first speaker find surprising?

He finds it surprising that the work for faith keeps growing even though the book already has very strong proofs.

3-) What is one reason the questioner thinks extra effort may seem unnecessary?

He thinks even a very small part of the work is already enough to answer strong disbelief.

4-) Besides one person's heart, what larger things need healing?

The shared spiritual condition of people, their common thinking, and the wider moral awareness of society need healing.

5-) Why is the image of giant stones important in the passage?

It shows that what is being protected is massive, weighty, and not easy to rebuild.

6-) What is the difference between an individual conscience and a general conscience in the passage?

One belongs to a single person, while the other refers to the shared moral and spiritual awareness of many people.

7-) What kind of help does the passage say the Qur'an provides?

It provides healing and strong guidance for faith.

8-) How does the passage describe the needed proofs?

It describes them as being very firm and powerful, like mountains.

9-) What does the passage say about the journey of belief?

It says belief has endless درجات or levels to move through, and the Risale-i Nur helps with that progress.

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why does the speaker mention an imagined question-and-answer talk?

To share a short form of an important discussion about the purpose of the Risale-i Nur.

2-) What does the passage say a tiny portion of the Risale-i Nur can already do?

It can overcome the arguments of very stubborn deniers.

3-) What is the first side of the conversation impressed by?

It is impressed by how strong the Risale-i Nur is in defending belief.

4-) What image helps explain the size of the religious damage?

The passage uses the picture of a giant stronghold suffering major harm.

5-) What two levels of healing are contrasted in the passage?

It contrasts healing one person's inner self with healing the wider community's shared spiritual state.

6-) How have harmful forces been described in the passage?

They are described as carefully prepared tools of corruption built up over a very long time.

7-) Why does the passage speak about many medicines instead of just one?

Because the sickness is described as large and complicated, so many kinds of healing are needed.

8-) What kinds of solutions are said to be needed?

Very certain proofs, strong supports, and highly effective spiritual remedies are needed.

9-) What two big jobs of the Risale-i Nur are mentioned near the end?

It heals major damage to faith and helps believers advance in faith.

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the title topic of this passage?

It is about the purpose of the Risale-i Nur.

2-) What does the phrase about complete readiness suggest about the Risale-i Nur?

It suggests serious effort, careful preparation, and full dedication.

3-) What does the passage say the Risale-i Nur is not limited to fixing?

It is not limited to fixing a small problem or helping only one person's inner feelings.

4-) What larger duty is it said to be doing instead?

It is repairing very great harm affecting Islam in a wide and serious way.

5-) What does the passage say about the scale of this work compared with a small house?

It says the work is far greater, like restoring an enormous stronghold.

6-) Why are very strong proofs needed?

They are needed because the wounds are huge and widespread, so weak answers would not be enough.

7-) What are believers said to need because of these major wounds?

They need extremely certain proofs and very effective spiritual cures.

8-) What makes the Risale-i Nur able to offer those cures?

Its teachings come from the Qur'an's miraculous guidance.

9-) What feeling does the speaker show after hearing the discussion?

He shows deep gratitude.

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In simple words, what question is answered in this passage?

It answers why the Risale-i Nur continues such intense work for faith.

2-) Why is only a summary given?

Because the full discussion was long, and the speaker chose to shorten it.

3-) Why is that strength still not considered enough by itself?

Because the problem being faced is much bigger than a single argument or a small debate.

4-) What does that image help the reader understand?

It helps the reader understand that the religion's protection and structure are very large and precious.

5-) What does the passage say is being repaired besides individuals?

It says the wider structure that protects Islam and the community's shared spiritual life is being repaired.

6-) How long does the passage suggest harmful influences have been building up?

It suggests they have been building up for about a thousand years.

7-) Why are ordinary solutions not enough?

They are not enough because the damage is too severe and far-reaching.

8-) What is the connection between the Qur'an and these strong answers?

These answers are said to come out of the Qur'an's miraculous message.

9-) What can we infer about the mission of the Risale-i Nur from the whole passage?

Its mission is broad, serious, and meant to serve the whole Muslim community, not just a few individuals.

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who is speaking at the beginning of the discussion, and what does he ask about?

A person in the imagined discussion asks why the Risale-i Nur keeps preparing so intensely for the sake of faith.

2-) What comparison is used to show that the problem is very big, not small?

The damage is compared to harm done to a huge fortress, not to a tiny house.

3-) What does the answer say the Risale-i Nur is not doing in a small, simple way?

It is not just patching up a little damage.

4-) What kind of damage is being repaired?

It is broad and serious spiritual damage affecting Islam and the believing community.

5-) What is said to be damaged or attacked in the wider Muslim community?

The supporting bases, signs, and protective parts of Islam are said to be under attack.

6-) What has happened to public thinking according to the passage?

It has been damaged and broken by long-prepared harmful influences.

7-) What do the many images of medicine and remedies show?

They show that faith problems are being treated like serious illnesses that need strong cures.

8-) According to the passage, does the Risale-i Nur only defend faith, or does it also help faith grow?

It does both; it defends faith and also helps people rise to higher levels of belief.

9-) What does the final sentence about cutting the matter short show?

It shows the full discussion was long, but only a brief summary is being shared.

5sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of conversation does the speaker say he heard?
He says he heard an imagined back-and-forth of questions and answers.

2-) What does this tell us about how powerful the book's arguments are presented to be?

They are presented as very powerful, able to defeat even very hard-headed disbelief.

3-) What building image is used for Islam?

Islam is pictured like a great fortress.

4-) What is the main answer given?

The answer is that the work must be great because the destruction and need are great.

5-) What has been harmed besides people's feelings?

Their common beliefs and their wider sense of right and wrong have also been harmed.

6-) What has put the general conscience in danger?

The tearing down of the foundations and visible signs that support Islam has put it in danger.

7-) What examples of strong answers are named?

The passage names very certain proofs, strong supports, and powerful healing remedies.

8-) What extra benefit of the Risale-i Nur is named near the end?

It also helps believers move forward through endless stages of stronger faith.

9-) What does the passage teach about strong faith?

It teaches that faith needs both defense against harm and steady growth to higher levels.