CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif supreme-sign-p76-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-absolute-dominicality - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the second truth called in this passage?

It is called absolute dominicality.

2-) What signs in the universe point to this truth?

The passage points to the wise and caring management seen all through the universe, especially in living things and how they are raised and developed.

3-) How does the passage describe the way this care happens everywhere?

It says it happens in the same general way everywhere, yet in surprising forms.

4-) Why can this absolute dominicality not have any partner?

Because its important goals would be harmed if even the smallest thing were linked to a partner beside Allah.

5-) What are some of those goals of dominicality named in the passage?

They include showing beauty, announcing perfection, displaying precious works, and making hidden excellences known.

6-) Why does the passage pay special attention to small living things and particular cases?

Because those great purposes are gathered and shown clearly even in tiny and specific creatures.

7-) What would happen if people turned toward causes instead of the One who planned everything?

They would be turned away from the true source and purposes, and that would go against dominicality.

8-) According to the passage, how does such a wrong turning relate to the nature of dominicality?

It is described as opposing and fighting against its very nature.

9-) What does the passage say the Qur'an does because of this truth?

It says the Qur'an again and again points people to Allah's oneness and declares His freedom from any partner.

10-) How strongly does the passage describe the Qur'an's guidance to unity?

It describes that guidance as constant and very widespread, reaching even to its verses, words, letters, and their forms.

5sinif supreme-sign-p76-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-absolute-dominicality - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

4-) Which words in the passage support the idea of purpose?

The passage supports it by describing the working as wise, compassionate, and aimed at important goals.

5-) What important goals of dominicality are listed?

They are showing beauty, making perfection known, revealing fine works, and displaying hidden excellences.

6-) Why are details and small creatures important in this argument?

Because the passage says those great meanings are focused into particular things and animate beings.

7-) What would be the result if a partner were assigned to Allah in these matters?

The purposes would fail and the aims would be ruined.

8-) What mistake can conscious beings make according to the passage?

They can turn their attention to causes instead of the One who designed and willed everything.

9-) Why is that mistake so serious in the passage's view?

Because it goes directly against the very meaning of Allah's lordship and care.

10-) How does the passage connect this idea to the Qur'an?

It says the Qur'an repeatedly teaches Allah's transcendence and oneness because of this very truth.

5sinif supreme-sign-p76-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-absolute-dominicality - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR
