5sinif supreme-sign-p78-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-4th-truth-sovereignty - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What picture of the universe is given at the beginning of this passage?

It is described like a well-run kingdom or city where everything has its own job and follows order.

2-) In that kingdom-like picture, how do created things behave?

They behave like obedient servants carrying out assigned duties.

3-) Which levels are included in these “armies” in the passage?

They include very tiny things, plants, animals, and even the stars.

4-) What two truths do these signs point to?

They point to complete sovereignty and authority over all.

5-) What would happen if many strong hands tried to run the same work at once?

The result would be disorder and confusion.

6-) How does the example of two local leaders help the reader understand the point?

It shows that even in a small area, competing leaders ruin order.

7-) What are two examples the passage gives to show order in both small and large things?

It gives examples from a fly’s wing and from the heavenly lights.

8-) What can we infer from order appearing at every level of creation?

We can infer that one supreme ruler is managing all of it.

9-) Why would accepting a rival go against sovereignty itself?

Because sovereignty has honor and dignity, and sharing it with a rival would go against that honor.

10-) What kind of sovereignty do humans fight over in the example?

They fight over a small, passing, and outward kind of power.

5sinif supreme-sign-p78-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-4th-truth-sovereignty - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What comparison is used to help us understand the universe in this passage?

The universe is compared to a successful kingdom and a wisely governed city.

2-) What do all creatures and groups of creatures seem to be doing in that universe?

They seem to be carrying out their own assigned work in obedience.

3-) How does the passage use the idea of armies to teach about Allah's power?

It shows that all parts of creation are like organized forces under one command.

4-) What does the passage say about the truth of assigning partners to Allah?

It says there is no truth in it.

5-) According to the passage, what is false about giving partners to Allah?

It is false because shared rule would ruin the perfect order we see.

6-) What opposite condition do we actually witness in creation?

We witness harmony and order everywhere.

7-) What does the passage say we actually find from tiny creatures to the sky?

We find a steady and amazing order everywhere.

8-) Besides order, what other reason is given that sovereignty rejects partners?

Another reason is that sovereignty has dignity and does not accept competition.

9-) What does the passage teach about the relationship between dignity and rule?

It teaches that real rule has dignity and does not accept a competing rival.

10-) What can we conclude about Allah's sacred sovereignty?

It belongs to Him alone and cannot be shared.

5sinif supreme-sign-p78-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-4th-truth-sovereignty - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the title of the truth explained in the target passage?

It is the truth of sovereignty.

2-) What two things is the cosmos compared to at the start of the passage?

It is compared to a prosperous kingdom and a wisely governed city.

3-) Why are commands, laws, and ordered groups mentioned together?

They work together to show planned rule and authority.

4-) What image from the Qur'an is used to explain this organized rule?

The image of the armies of the heavens and the earth is used.

5-) What claim does the passage reject after proving absolute sovereignty?

It rejects the idea that Allah could have any partner.

6-) What truth is clearly shown by this universal order?

It clearly shows absolute sovereignty.

7-) How does the passage use examples from both nature and the sky?

It uses them to show that order exists in every level of creation.

8-) What does the passage say about the honor of sovereignty?

It says sovereignty has dignity and will not accept a rival.

9-) Why is there said to be no room for a partner in Allah's affairs?

Because the perfect order everywhere leaves no sign that anyone else is sharing His work.

10-) If weak people guard tiny power so fiercely, what does the passage lead us to understand about Allah?

It leads us to understand that Allah, who has absolute power and owns all creation, would never allow any partner in His sacred rule.

1-) What is one main idea taught by comparing the universe to a kingdom?

The idea is that creation is ruled with wisdom, purpose, and order.

2-) What does the mention of the armies of the heavens and the earth help show?

It helps show that Allah has complete rule and authority over everything.

3-) What small and large parts of creation are included in this ordered system?

Very tiny things, plants, animals, and stars are all included.

4-) Why does the passage say partners cannot be joined with Allah in His rule?

Because true and complete rule does not allow shared control.

5-) What simple everyday principle is used to explain this?

When too many rulers take over the same matter, confusion follows.

6-) Instead of confusion, what do we actually see in creation?

We see order everywhere.

7-) Which examples show this order in both living bodies and outer space?

The passage mentions cells in the body and signs of the planets.

8-) What does this complete order prove about Allah's rule?

It proves that no partner is taking part in His management.

9-) Why is the human struggle for small authority mentioned?

It is mentioned as a lower example to help us understand how much more impossible rivalry is in Allah's sovereignty.

10-) What final conclusion should a student take from this whole section?

Allah alone rules all things, and the order in creation shows that He has no partner.

5sinif supreme-sign-p78-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-4th-truth-sovereignty - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does a thoughtful person notice when looking at the universe, according to this passage?

He notices that it is like a thriving kingdom or city run with wisdom and strength.

2-) What does the word “sovereignty” mean here in a simple way?

It means complete rule, command, and authority.

3-) Why are atoms, plants, animals, and stars all mentioned together?

They show that one system of rule covers everything from the smallest to the greatest.

4-) What does such wide-reaching order point to?

It points to Allah’s total authority over all creation.

5-) What human leadership example supports that reason?

The example is that two kings in one country would destroy order.

6-) What happens to a country or district when two rulers try to lead it at the same time?

Its order disappears and chaos takes its place.

7-) What does this wide pattern of order tell us about Allah’s works?

It tells us that His works are not being shared with any partner.

8-) Why are the stars and planets mentioned too?

They show that this order also reaches the biggest parts of creation.

9-) How is Allah different from the human example?

Allah is not weak or temporary; He has absolute power and ownership over all creation.

10-) What argument is made from human weakness to Allah’s absolute power?

If weak humans fight over small power, then Allah, who has complete power and ownership, would never allow anyone to share His sovereignty.
