

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 1

1-) What does the passage say about the importance of this treatise, even though it has some difficulties? (13 kelime)

It says the

2-) Whose earlier recognition of the treatise is mentioned? (6 kelime)
Imam

3-) What does it mean that Imam Ali directed people's attention toward this work? (14 kelime)

It means he

4-) What trouble came from producing the book in secret? (3 kelime)

5-) What is given as a main reason for their release? (15 kelime)
The strength and

6-) What verse-related role does the treatise have? (9 kelime)
It serves

7-) How many main parts does the treatise have? (7 kelime)
It

8-) What does the Introduction contain? (5 kelime)
It

9-) Why does the writer say the Introduction became long? (14 kelime)
He says its

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 2

1-) What is the main message in the opening part of the passage about the treatise? (18 kelime)

The message is that

2-) Who is named as having miraculously known of its coming? (8 kelime)

Imam Ali,

3-) What later events are used as evidence that the prediction was true? (14 kelime)

The imprisonment connected

4-) What led to the imprisonment? (9 kelime)

The secret

5-) What does the passage say the treatise is an explanation of? (8 kelime)

It says

6-) What does the passage call it in relation to the larger work? (13 kelime)

It calls it

7-) What is the job of the First Station? (8 kelime)

It contains

8-) What does the writer say about his intention for the Introduction's length? (11 kelime)

He says

9-) How does the final verse connect with the rest of the passage? (15 kelime)

It reminds readers

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 3

1-) In this passage, how is the treatise presented overall? (12 kelime)
It is presented

2-) Which honored person is mentioned as giving advance notice of the work? (8 kelime)
Imam Ali,

3-) What historical incident is brought in to support that claim? (8 kelime)
The Denizli

4-) In that episode, what role did the hidden printing of the book play? (7 kelime)
It

5-) According to the passage, what helped bring about that positive outcome? (13 kelime)
The triumph of

6-) What double identity does the treatise have in the passage? (13 kelime)
It is both

7-) How many sections are named in the structure of the treatise? (13 kelime)
Three sections are

8-) What content belongs to the First and Second Stations? (16 kelime)

The First Station has

9-) Why does the writer say the Introduction is long? (11 kelime)

He says

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 4

1-) Even with flaws and hard parts, what judgment does the passage make about this treatise? (8 kelime)

It judges

2-) What two names were given to this treatise in that foretelling? (11 kelime)

It was

3-) Which city's events are mentioned as support for this claim? (1 kelime)

4-) How did the printing of the book affect the writers or supporters of it? (7 kelime)

Its

5-) How does the passage connect that blessing to the book itself? (14 kelime)

It connects it

6-) How is the treatise connected to the Seventh Ray? (8 kelime)

It is

7-) What are the three major parts named in the treatise? (9 kelime)

The Introduction,

8-) What is found in the First Station and the Second Station? (19 kelime)

The First Station has

9-) What central duty is highlighted by the Qur'anic verse included at the end? (4 kelime)

It

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 5

1-) What tension appears at the start of the passage about this treatise? (12 kelime)

The passage says

2-) Why is his mention of the work important in the passage? (11 kelime)

It shows

3-) What real-life events are said to back up this view? (15 kelime)

The imprisonment over

4-) What cause-and-effect relationship is described between the book's truth and the acquittal? (16 kelime)

The power and success

5-) What does the passage call the treatise in relation to a verse? (9 kelime)

It calls

6-) How is the whole treatise organized? (13 kelime)

It is divided

7-) What does each main part do? (22 kelime)

The Introduction gives four major

8-) What basic purpose of creation is stated in the verse at the end? (7 kelime)

The

9-) Then what explanation does he give for its length? (10 kelime)
He says

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 6

1-) How does the passage balance weakness and worth when speaking about the treatise? (14 kelime)

It admits the

2-) What did he supposedly do concerning this treatise? (10 kelime)

He is

3-) What episode is mentioned as confirming the earlier prediction? (8 kelime)

The episode

4-) What positive outcome followed after that hardship? (5 kelime)

They

5-) What is the treatise said to explain? (5 kelime)

It

6-) What title links this work to a numbered part of a larger collection? (9 kelime)

The title

7-) What content belongs to the Introduction? (6 kelime)

Four

8-) What reason does the writer give for the length of the Introduction? (11 kelime)

He says

9-) What interesting reaction does the writer expect from some readers about the Introduction? (13 kelime)

Some may still

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say about the importance of this treatise, even though it has some difficulties?

It says the work is still very important and special despite those problems.

2-) Whose earlier recognition of the treatise is mentioned?

Imam Ali's earlier recognition is mentioned.

3-) What does it mean that Imam Ali directed people's attention toward this work?

It means he pointed people to it as something valuable and worthy of notice.

4-) What trouble came from producing the book in secret?

It brought imprisonment.

5-) What is given as a main reason for their release?

The strength and victory of the book's sacred truth is given as a main reason.

6-) What verse-related role does the treatise have?

It serves as an explanation of the Supreme Verse.

7-) How many main parts does the treatise have?

It has an Introduction and two Stations.

8-) What does the Introduction contain?

It contains four important matters.

9-) Why does the writer say the Introduction became long?

He says its length shows there was a real need for that much explanation.

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main message in the opening part of the passage about the treatise?

The message is that the work has great value even if it is not easy in every way.

2-) Who is named as having miraculously known of its coming? Imam Ali, may Allah be pleased with him.

3-) What later events are used as evidence that the prediction was true?

The imprisonment connected to the book and the later acquittal are used as evidence.

4-) What led to the imprisonment?

The secret printing of the book led to it.

5-) What does the passage say the treatise is an explanation of?

It says the treatise explains the Supreme Verse.

6-) What does the passage call it in relation to the larger work?

It calls it the Seventh Ray, also designated as the Staff of Moses.

7-) What is the job of the First Station?

It contains the Arabic section of the explanation.

8-) What does the writer say about his intention for the Introduction's length?

He says he did not mean to make it that long.

9-) How does the final verse connect with the rest of the passage?

It reminds readers that the whole discussion is tied to the purpose of worshipping Allah.

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, how is the treatise presented overall?

It is presented as a highly important religious work with special honor.

2-) Which honored person is mentioned as giving advance notice of the work?

Imam Ali, may Allah be pleased with him.

3-) What historical incident is brought in to support that claim?

The Denizli events are brought in as support.

4-) In that episode, what role did the hidden printing of the book play?

It was the reason they were imprisoned.

5-) According to the passage, what helped bring about that positive outcome?

The triumph of the book's holy and powerful truth helped bring it about.

6-) What double identity does the treatise have in the passage?

It is both an explanation of the Supreme Verse and the Seventh Ray.

7-) How many sections are named in the structure of the treatise?

Three sections are named: the Introduction, the First Station, and the Second Station.

8-) What content belongs to the First and Second Stations?

The First Station has the Arabic exposition, and the Second Station has the translation plus proofs.

9-) Why does the writer say the Introduction is long?

He says its length shows there was a need for it.

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Even with flaws and hard parts, what judgment does the passage make about this treatise?

It judges the treatise to be very important.

2-) What two names were given to this treatise in that foretelling?

It was called the Supreme Sign and the Staff of Moses.

3-) Which city's events are mentioned as support for this claim?

Denizli.

4-) How did the printing of the book affect the writers or supporters of it?

Its secret printing led to their imprisonment.

5-) How does the passage connect that blessing to the book itself?

It connects it to the strength and victory of the truths in the book.

6-) How is the treatise connected to the Seventh Ray?

It is also identified as the Seventh Ray.

7-) What are the three major parts named in the treatise?

The Introduction, the First Station, and the Second Station.

8-) What is found in the First Station and the Second Station?

The First Station has the Arabic part of the explanation, and the Second Station gives its translation with proofs.

9-) What central duty is highlighted by the Qur'anic verse included at the end?

It highlights worshipping Allah.

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What tension appears at the start of the passage about this treatise?

The passage says it has difficulties, yet it is still extremely important.

2-) Why is his mention of the work important in the passage?

It shows the treatise is being presented as honored and meaningful.

3-) What real-life events are said to back up this view?

The imprisonment over the book and the later release are said to back it up.

4-) What cause-and-effect relationship is described between the book's truth and the acquittal?

The power and success of its truth are said to have led to acquittal and release.

5-) What does the passage call the treatise in relation to a verse?

It calls it an explanation of the Supreme Verse.

6-) How is the whole treatise organized?

It is divided into an Introduction, a First Station, and a Second Station.

7-) What does each main part do?

The Introduction gives four major matters, the First Station gives the Arabic exposition, and the Second Station gives the translation and proofs.

8-) What basic purpose of creation is stated in the verse at the end?

The purpose stated is worship of Allah.

9-) Then what explanation does he give for its length?

He says the length itself shows there was a need.

8sinif supreme-sign-p02-the-treatises-importance-and-arrangement - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage balance weakness and worth when speaking about the treatise?

It admits the treatise has difficulties but says its worth is still very great.

2-) What did he supposedly do concerning this treatise?

He is said to have foretold it and named it.

3-) What episode is mentioned as confirming the earlier prediction?

The episode mentioned is what happened in Denizli.

4-) What positive outcome followed after that hardship?

They were cleared and released.

5-) What is the treatise said to explain?

It explains the Supreme Verse.

6-) What title links this work to a numbered part of a larger collection?

The title Seventh Ray links it to that collection.

7-) What content belongs to the Introduction?

Four important matters belong to it.

8-) What reason does the writer give for the length of the Introduction?

He says the length points to a need for such explanation.

9-) What interesting reaction does the writer expect from some readers about the Introduction?

Some may still think it is too short even though it is long.