CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main question starts the imaginary discussion?

It asks why so much more effort is still being made for faith and tawhid when even a small part of the work is already very powerful.

2-) What challenge is raised about that purpose?

The challenge asks why more preparation is needed when the work already seems highly effective.

3-) What does the passage say the fortress contains?

It contains Islam.

4-) What picture is used to represent Islam in danger?

Islam is pictured as a giant fortress under damage.

5-) What has caused these deep problems in society, according to the passage?

Corrupting forces built up over a very long time have damaged them in a serious way.

6-) What social areas are mentioned after that?

The common heart, accepted ideas, and public conscience.

7-) What kind of proofs are needed for such huge spiritual damage?

Proofs that are extremely certain and very strong are needed.

8-) What kind of certainty must the needed proofs have?

They must have the highest level of certainty.

9-) According to the passage, what is one more role of the Risale-i Nur besides repairing damage?

It also helps people move forward through endless levels of faith.

8sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why might someone be surprised by the intense effort being put into the Risale-i Nur?

Because even a very small amount of it already seems enough to answer strong unbelief.

2-) What has been increasing, according to that questioner?

The large-scale preparation and readiness of the Risale-i Nur have been increasing.

3-) What does this image help the reader understand?

It helps the reader understand that the crisis is widespread and serious.

4-) What is one image in the passage that shows the mission is communal?

The image of rebuilding a huge fortress shows that the work concerns the whole community.

5-) What does the long time period mentioned in the passage suggest?

It suggests that the harm is deep-rooted and did not appear all at once.

6-) What had been prepared over many years to harm people?

Methods and tools of corruption had been prepared over a long period.

7-) How does the passage emphasize the strength needed in those proofs?

It compares their strength to mountains.

8-) What does the phrase about endless levels of faith teach us?

It teaches that faith can keep growing stronger and deeper.

9-) What two big jobs of the Risale-i Nur are mentioned?

It repairs major spiritual damage and helps believers rise in faith.

8sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the opening of the passage, what kind of conversation is being described?

An imagined question-and-answer discussion.

2-) What two subjects is the Risale-i Nur said to be especially prepared to serve?

Belief and the proof of Allah's unity.

3-) How does the response show that the mission is much bigger than it may first seem?

It says the work is dealing with massive destruction affecting Islam as a whole.

4-) What does the image of a citadel teach about Islam in this passage?

It teaches that Islam is something strong and precious that protects people, yet it has been heavily attacked.

5-) What do the breaches in common thought and conscience show about the problem?

They show that the problem has spread beyond individuals into the wider community.

6-) Why is this especially dangerous for the masses of believers?

Because many believers depend on those supports as a refuge and guide.

7-) Why are very powerful spiritual medicines necessary?

Because the injuries are broad and severe.

8-) According to the passage, where does the Risale-i Nur emerge from?

It emerges from the miraculous nature of the Qur'an.

9-) What response does the listener have to the discussion?

He responds with great thankfulness.

8sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the central topic of this passage?

The purpose of the Risale-i Nur.

2-) What comparison is used to show that the problem is very large, not small?

The work is compared to repairing a huge fortress of Islam, not fixing a little bit of damage or a small house.

3-) What does the answer suggest about the size of the spiritual crisis? It suggests the crisis is enormous and affects the Muslim community in a broad way.

4-) Besides helping one person's inner life, what larger things is the Risale-i Nur trying to heal?

It is trying to heal the shared heart, common ways of thinking, and public conscience of people.

5-) What personal areas are mentioned before the passage moves to society as a whole?

A private heart and an individual conscience.

6-) Why are these Islamic foundations and signs especially important for many believers?

They are a shelter and support for everyone, especially for ordinary believers.

7-) For whom are those Islamic supports especially important?

They are especially important for the larger body of believers.

8-) From where does the passage say the Risale-i Nur gets its power to do this work?

It comes from the miraculous guidance of the Qur'an.

9-) What can a student conclude about why the work is so detailed and forceful?

It is detailed and forceful because the harm it addresses is deep, widespread, and dangerous.

8sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who speaks first in the imagined exchange, and what does that person ask about?

A questioner speaks first and asks why such intense effort continues in the work for belief.

2-) What image is used to describe the scale of the destruction?

The damage is shown as something done to a huge stronghold connected to Islam.

3-) How does the reply correct a narrow view of the work?

It explains that the mission is not small or private but vast and communal.

4-) What tools are said to have made these breaches?

Instruments of corruption prepared over many centuries.

5-) What means are used for healing in the passage?

The healing comes through the Qur'an, faith, and the Qur'an's miraculous truth.

6-) Why are ordinary, weak proofs not enough in this situation?

Because the wounds are huge, so only very certain and powerful proofs can answer them.

7-) Why does the passage stress strong evidence so much?

Because weak answers would not be enough for such major attacks on faith.

8-) What source does the Risale-i Nur come from in this passage?

It is presented as coming forth from the Qur'an's miraculous power.

9-) What future-facing role does it also have?

It helps believers move ahead through unlimited stages of iman.

8sinif supreme-sign-p116-summary-of-the-question-and-answer-the-risale-i-nurs-duty-of-universal-repair - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of method does the speaker use to explain the purpose of the Risale-i Nur?

He uses a summarized imagined dialogue.

2-) What reason does the questioner give for asking that?

Because even a tiny portion is said to be enough to answer very stubborn disbelief.

3-) How does the answer describe the damage being faced?

It describes it as large, widespread, and deeply harmful.

4-) What does the passage say is being treated besides an individual conscience?

Wider patterns of belief and the moral awareness of society are also being treated.

5-) What are some things whose destruction is causing corruption in conscience?

The underlying supports, movements, and visible signs of Islam are being destroyed.

6-) What does the word picture of “wounds” suggest about the condition being described?

It suggests painful, serious harm that needs healing, not just simple correction.

7-) What kind of “medicine” is needed to answer this crisis?

Strong and highly effective spiritual remedies are needed.

8-) Is the work only defensive in this passage, or is it also growth-oriented? Explain.

It is both, because it heals damage and also helps believers advance to higher levels of faith.

9-) What feeling does the speaker show after listening to the discussion?

He feels deep gratitude to Allah.
