CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif supreme-sign-p19-the-testimony-of-the-seas-and-rivers-4th-degree-rivers-flowing-from-the-treasury-of-mercy-and-the-example-of-the-nile - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveller notice in the deep sea besides beautiful gems?

He saw many different sea animals being kept alive, organized, and managed in a very orderly way.

2-) What is surprising about the source of food for sea life in the passage?

Their provision is described as coming from simple things like sand and salt water.

3-) Why is this description important for faith?

It helps a person see signs of Allah's existence and care in the natural world.

4-) What do those features of rivers prove, according to the passage?

They show that rivers, springs, and streams come from Allah's mercy and are sent with wisdom and care.

5-) Why are ordinary physical causes described as too weak in this discussion?

Because the greatness and steadiness of these rivers seem much larger than what visible causes can account for.

6-) In this passage, is "Paradise" used only to name a place or also to express a deeper idea?

It is used to express a deeper idea about an unseen source of divine bounty.

7-) What effect of the Nile on Egypt is described?

It turns Egypt's dry, sandy land into a place full of life and goodness.

8-) What does the word "unseen" suggest in this passage?

It suggests that the real source of provision is beyond what people can fully observe with their eyes.

9-) What can be inferred from the way the passage argues about the Nile?

Visible causes are real, but they are not enough by themselves to explain everything.

8sinif supreme-sign-p19-the-testimony-of-the-seas-and-rivers-4th-degree-rivers-flowing-from-the-treasury-of-mercy-and-the-example-of-the-nile - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the target passage, what part of nature does the traveller study first?

He studies the deep parts of the sea first.

2-) Which divine qualities are highlighted by the sea scene?

Power, majesty, mercy, and beauty are highlighted.

3-) What is the main spiritual conclusion drawn from the deep sea?

The sea shows clear signs of Allah's powerful and merciful rule.

4-) What does the traveller see in rivers that makes them important signs?

He sees their usefulness, their ongoing work, and the fact that they are constantly replenished.

5-) What is meant by saying they are preserved and distributed in an extraordinary way?

It means their supply is guarded and sent out with amazing care and precision.

6-) Which river is chosen to make this point easier to understand?

The Nile is chosen.

7-) What land is especially helped by the Nile?

Egypt is especially helped by it.

8-) What comparison is made to show how huge the Nile's water volume is?

The passage says that if months of its flowing water were gathered and frozen, it would make a mass larger than the nearby mountains.

9-) How should the tradition about the Nile's hidden source be understood?

It should be understood as expressing a real spiritual meaning, not as an empty saying.

8sinif supreme-sign-p19-the-testimony-of-the-seas-and-rivers-4th-degree-rivers-flowing-from-the-treasury-of-mercy-and-the-example-of-the-nile - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why did the traveller find the deep sea to be a strong sign of divine care?

Because he saw living creatures there being sustained and managed with amazing order.

2-) How are those sea animals treated according to the passage?

They are provided for, arranged, given life, and taken in death under careful rule.

3-) When the traveller looked at rivers, what three things did he notice about them?

He noticed the good they bring, the jobs they do, and the way they keep being refilled.

4-) How does the passage connect rivers to Allah's mercy?

It presents them as flowing from a treasury of mercy and being distributed by divine care.

5-) Why might people say certain rivers come from Paradise?

Because their remarkable flow seems to point to an unseen and abundant source.

6-) Which river is given as a special example?

The Nile is given as the main example.

7-) What detail about the climate near the source also supports the argument?

The area is very hot, gets little rain, and the ground quickly absorbs what falls.

8-) What problem does the passage raise about using rainfall as the full explanation?

The rain is limited and does not remain long enough to account for the river's continuing strength.

9-) What final point is made about the tradition concerning the Nile's source?

The passage says that tradition carries a deep meaning and points to a real and beautiful truth.

8sinif supreme-sign-p19-the-testimony-of-the-seas-and-rivers-4th-degree-rivers-flowing-from-the-treasury-of-mercy-and-the-example-of-the-nile - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveller observe about sea creatures' lives?

He observed that their lives were run with discipline, from nourishment to life and death.

2-) How does the passage describe the management of sea life?

It describes it as disciplined, well-ordered, and life-giving.

3-) What does this careful order in the sea point to?

It points to the existence of a Creator with power, glory, mercy, and beauty.

4-) From where are these waters said to come in a deeper sense?

They are said to come from the treasury of the Most Merciful.

5-) Why is the explanation based only on visible causes challenged?

Because the greatness and steady supply of some rivers seem to exceed what those causes can produce on their own.

6-) Does the passage present that statement in a shallow or meaningful way?

It presents it as meaningful and full of depth.

7-) What transformation does the Nile bring about?

It changes Egypt's barren, sandy land into a flourishing place.

8-) What two facts make the usual explanation seem weak?

The mountain storage is too limited, and the local rainfall is both slight and quickly absorbed.

9-) What bigger lesson can a student take from the examples of the sea, rivers, and Nile?

Nature's order and provision point beyond material causes to Allah's caring power and mercy.

8sinif supreme-sign-p19-the-testimony-of-the-seas-and-rivers-4th-degree-rivers-flowing-from-the-treasury-of-mercy-and-the-example-of-the-nile - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What contrast appears in the description of the sea's depths?

Precious jewels are mentioned, but even more importantly, living creatures are shown there in great number and order.

2-) What conclusion did the traveller reach from the order and life in the sea?

He understood that a mighty, glorious, merciful, and beautiful Creator was ruling and giving life there.

3-) What does the passage say about the ongoing flow of rivers?

It says they keep being renewed in a way full of wisdom and mercy.

4-) What does the phrase about a "treasury of mercy" teach?

It teaches that the real source of provision is Allah's generosity, not just material factors.

5-) According to the passage, what does "coming from Paradise" mean in this discussion?

It means their source is tied to an unseen, non-material store of mercy, not just to what people can see outwardly.

6-) What detail about the Nile's source area strengthens that argument?

The place where its water is stored is much too small compared with the huge amount of water the river sends out.

7-) What problem does the passage raise about the Nile's source in the mountains?

The storage area there seems too small to explain the river's enormous output.

8-) Why is rainfall also described as an insufficient explanation for the Nile's flow?

The rain there is scarce, and the dry ground quickly absorbs it, so it cannot keep the river balanced.

9-) What main message ties the whole target passage together?

The sea and rivers show Allah's power, mercy, and wise management through the life and provision found in them.

8sinif supreme-sign-p19-the-testimony-of-the-seas-and-rivers-4th-degree-rivers-flowing-from-the-treasury-of-mercy-and-the-example-of-the-nile - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the sea, what did the traveller see that pointed beyond lifeless matter?

He saw many living creatures thriving in an ordered way, which pointed to a living and active Creator.

2-) What signs of order are seen in the life cycle of sea creatures?

They are fed, arranged, brought to life, and caused to die in a controlled and orderly way.

3-) What kinds of waters are included along with rivers?

Springs, streams, and large waterways are included too.

4-) How are rivers and springs connected to mercy in the passage?

They are portrayed as coming from and being distributed by divine mercy.

5-) Why does the passage say people spoke of four rivers as coming from Paradise?

Because their flowing seems too extraordinary to be explained by ordinary visible causes alone.

6-) What special title is given to the Nile in the passage?

It is described as blessed.

7-) What does the passage say about the amount of water the Nile carries?

It says the volume is so great that, if collected and frozen, it would surpass the nearby mountains.

8-) What two visible causes are described as not enough to explain the Nile fully?

The limited storage place in the mountains and the small amount of rainfall are not enough.

9-) What judgment does the passage give about the tradition concerning the Nile?

It says the tradition contains deep meaning and expresses a beautiful truth.
