

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 1

1-) During his thoughtful journey, what do the mountains and plains invite the traveler to do? (14 kelime)

They invite him

2-) How is the duty of mountains described at the start of the passage? (8 kelime)

It is

3-) What happens to the earth when the mountains rise up? (13 kelime)

The earth becomes

4-) What everyday object is used to help readers understand the function of mountains? (7 kelime)

A

5-) Besides helping stabilize the earth, what useful things are kept in the mountains? (13 kelime)

Springs, water, minerals,

6-) What kinds of provisions are mentioned as being kept in the mountains? (10 kelime)

Sources of

7-) What does the traveler understand from the wisdom seen in the mountains and plains? (8 kelime)

He understands

8-) The passage says the traveler can infer more wisdom from these examples. What does that mean? (15 kelime)

It means the

9-) According to the passage, what kinds of activities in the mountains and plains point to Allah's existence and unity? (15 kelime)

Storing resources, managing

10-) What final personal response does the traveler give after seeing these signs? (6 kelime)

He

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 2

1-) Who calls the traveler next in the passage? (7 kelime)

The

2-) What is the first major wisdom of mountains mentioned in the passage? (9 kelime)

They help

3-) By whose command do the mountains come out from the earth? (9 kelime)

They come

4-) What comparison helps explain this stabilizing role? (10 kelime)

Mountains are

5-) Why does the passage use the example of a ship? (17 kelime)

To help explain that

6-) What are four examples of things stored in mountains? (7 kelime)

Springs,

7-) Name two kinds of things stored in mountains according to the passage. (3 kelime)

8-) How do mountains and plains together act like witnesses? (10 kelime)

Their order,

9-) How does the passage connect the plains with the message of unity? (16 kelime)

Their broad and ordered

10-) If someone said these features happened by accident, which part of the passage answers that idea? (16 kelime)

The parts showing broad

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 3

1-) What new part of creation does the traveler focus on in this passage? (8 kelime)

He focuses

2-) What do they ask him to do in a figurative way? (12 kelime)

They ask him

3-) What change comes to the earth after mountains appear? (11 kelime)

It gains

4-) What benefit does the earth gain once those dangers are reduced? (9 kelime)

It becomes

5-) What does the passage say is preserved inside mountains for living beings? (13 kelime)

It says that

6-) How are these supplies arranged according to the passage? (8 kelime)

They are

7-) What does the traveler infer from the many wise benefits in mountains and plains? (11 kelime)

He infers

8-) What kind of testimony do they give—weak and uncertain, or strong and clear? (6 kelime)

They

9-) According to the concluding statement, what other process besides storing and preserving is included in this testimony? (7 kelime)

The

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 4

1-) On his journey, what does the traveler do when the mountains and plains call him? (10 kelime)

He looks

2-) What problem inside the earth do the mountains help calm? (11 kelime)

They help

3-) How does the passage describe the earth after this help from the mountains? (15 kelime)

It describes the

4-) In this comparison, what is the “ship”? (7 kelime)

The

5-) What source is cited to support this idea about mountains? (6 kelime)

Verses

6-) Why are the mountains called storehouses and warehouses in meaning? (13 kelime)

Because many needed

7-) What does this careful provision say about the One who made the mountains? (11 kelime)

It shows

8-) After reflecting on this testimony, what does the traveler say? (7

kelime)

He

9-) How are the mountains and plains each used to describe the strength of that declaration? (12 kelime)

The mountains show

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 5

1-) What invitation begins this passage? (13 kelime)

The traveler is

2-) How does the passage describe the wisdom found in the duty of mountains? (15 kelime)

It says that

3-) How does the passage connect mountains with the earth's movement? (12 kelime)

It says mountains

4-) What effect do mountains have on the earth's calmness while it turns? (12 kelime)

They help keep

5-) What do the quoted Qur'anic references mainly support in this passage? (14 kelime)

They support the

6-) What living things benefit from what is stored in the mountains? (10 kelime)

All kinds

7-) What does the passage say about the One who arranged these mountain storehouses? (7 kelime)

He

8-) What does the traveler conclude from the general wisdom found in both mountains and plains? (8 kelime)
He concludes

9-) Which actions are listed in the final summary as signs to observe in mountains and plains? (9 kelime)
Storage, administration,

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 6

1-) In this section, what part of nature becomes the traveler's new lesson? (9 kelime)

The mountains

2-) What inner condition of the earth is eased by mountains? (9 kelime)

Mountains ease

3-) What kinds of harmful events inside the earth are lessened by mountains? (8 kelime)

Violent tremors

4-) Is the passage presenting mountains as useless lumps of rock or as purposeful parts of creation? (8 kelime)

It presents

5-) What does the passage say mountains contain for the sake of living beings? (9 kelime)

They contain

6-) How does the passage describe the way these resources are stored? (10 kelime)

They are

7-) What broader conclusion does the traveler draw from the mountains and plains as a whole? (11 kelime)

He sees

8-) Why does the traveler's response matter in the passage? (9 kelime)
It shows

9-) What main idea ties the whole passage together? (20 kelime)
The ordered functions and stored

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) During his thoughtful journey, what do the mountains and plains invite the traveler to do?

They invite him to look carefully at them and learn from what they show.

2-) How is the duty of mountains described at the start of the passage?
It is described as majestic and deeply wise.

3-) What happens to the earth when the mountains rise up?
The earth becomes more settled and is relieved from damaging tremors and upheavals.

4-) What everyday object is used to help readers understand the function of mountains?
A ship is used as the example.

5-) Besides helping stabilize the earth, what useful things are kept in the mountains?

Springs, water, minerals, and other materials needed by living creatures are kept there.

6-) What kinds of provisions are mentioned as being kept in the mountains?

Sources of water, minerals, and other needed materials are mentioned.

7-) What does the traveler understand from the wisdom seen in the mountains and plains?

He understands that they testify to Allah's oneness.

8-) The passage says the traveler can infer more wisdom from these examples. What does that mean?

It means the two examples point to many other purposes and benefits not fully listed.

9-) According to the passage, what kinds of activities in the mountains and plains point to Allah's existence and unity?

Storing resources, managing affairs, spreading seeds, preserving things, and regulating them in an orderly way.

10-) What final personal response does the traveler give after seeing these signs?

He affirms his faith in Allah.

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who calls the traveler next in the passage?

The mountains and the plains call him.

2-) What is the first major wisdom of mountains mentioned in the passage?

They help control and lessen the earth's inner disturbances.

3-) By whose command do the mountains come out from the earth?

They come out by the command of their Sustainer.

4-) What comparison helps explain this stabilizing role?

Mountains are compared to balancing structures placed on a ship.

5-) Why does the passage use the example of a ship?

To help explain that mountains support and steady the earth the way stabilizing structures help a ship.

6-) What are four examples of things stored in mountains?

Springs, waters, minerals, and other needed substances.

7-) Name two kinds of things stored in mountains according to the passage.

Water and minerals.

8-) How do mountains and plains together act like witnesses?

Their order, usefulness, and care-filled design point to one Creator.

9-) How does the passage connect the plains with the message of unity?

Their broad and ordered nature also serves as part of the testimony pointing to one Lord.

10-) If someone said these features happened by accident, which part of the passage answers that idea?

The parts showing broad wisdom, careful provision, and perfect order answer it by showing intentional design.

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What new part of creation does the traveler focus on in this passage?

He focuses on the mountains and the plains.

2-) What do they ask him to do in a figurative way?

They ask him to read their signs as if they were pages.

3-) What change comes to the earth after mountains appear?

It gains relief and stability and is protected from destructive shaking.

4-) What benefit does the earth gain once those dangers are reduced?

It becomes tranquil and continues its movement more peacefully.

5-) What does the passage say is preserved inside mountains for living beings?

It says that springs, waters, minerals, and other needed materials are preserved there.

6-) How are these supplies arranged according to the passage?

They are arranged with skill, generosity, and foresight.

7-) What does the traveler infer from the many wise benefits in mountains and plains?

He infers that they are signs of Allah's existence and oneness.

8-) What kind of testimony do they give—weak and uncertain, or strong and clear?

They give strong and clear testimony.

9-) According to the concluding statement, what other process besides storing and preserving is included in this testimony?

The spreading of seeds is also included.

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) On his journey, what does the traveler do when the mountains and plains call him?

He looks at them and reflects on what they mean.

2-) What problem inside the earth do the mountains help calm?

They help reduce inner unrest and harmful shaking within the earth.

3-) How does the passage describe the earth after this help from the mountains?

It describes the earth as calmer and able to continue its motion without that disturbance.

4-) In this comparison, what is the “ship”?

The earth is described like a ship.

5-) What source is cited to support this idea about mountains?

Verses from the Qur’an are cited.

6-) Why are the mountains called storehouses and warehouses in meaning?

Because many needed resources are placed and preserved in them for living beings.

7-) What does this careful provision say about the One who made the mountains?

It shows that He provides with power, wisdom, generosity, and foresight.

8-) After reflecting on this testimony, what does the traveler say?

He says that he believes in Allah.

9-) How are the mountains and plains each used to describe the strength of that declaration?

The mountains show its firmness, and the plains show its wide reach.

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What invitation begins this passage?

The traveler is invited by the mountains and plains to study their signs.

2-) How does the passage describe the wisdom found in the duty of mountains?

It says that their wisdom and greatness are so amazing that they overwhelm the mind.

3-) How does the passage connect mountains with the earth's movement?

It says mountains help the earth stay calm while it continues turning.

4-) What effect do mountains have on the earth's calmness while it turns?

They help keep it peaceful and steady as it continues its rotation.

5-) What do the quoted Qur'anic references mainly support in this passage?

They support the idea that mountains are firmly placed and serve a stabilizing purpose.

6-) What living things benefit from what is stored in the mountains?

All kinds of animate beings benefit from those stored resources.

7-) What does the passage say about the One who arranged these mountain storehouses?

He has endless power and endless wisdom.

8-) What does the traveler conclude from the general wisdom found in both mountains and plains?

He concludes that they clearly declare Allah's oneness.

9-) Which actions are listed in the final summary as signs to observe in mountains and plains?

Storage, administration, seed spreading, preservation, and regulation are listed.

8sinif supreme-sign-p21-mountains-and-plains-pegs-and-treasures - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this section, what part of nature becomes the traveler's new lesson?

The mountains and the plains become his new lesson.

2-) What inner condition of the earth is eased by mountains?

Mountains ease the earth's inner disturbance and anger-like unrest.

3-) What kinds of harmful events inside the earth are lessened by mountains?

Violent tremors and upheavals are lessened by them.

4-) Is the passage presenting mountains as useless lumps of rock or as purposeful parts of creation?

It presents them as purposeful parts of creation.

5-) What does the passage say mountains contain for the sake of living beings?

They contain useful supplies like water sources and minerals.

6-) How does the passage describe the way these resources are stored?

They are stored in a skilled, generous, and far-seeing way.

7-) What broader conclusion does the traveler draw from the mountains and plains as a whole?

He sees them as giving testimony to Allah's existence and oneness.

8-) Why does the traveler's response matter in the passage?

It shows that reflecting on creation should strengthen faith.

9-) What main idea ties the whole passage together?

The ordered functions and stored blessings in mountains and plains are signs that point to one wise and powerful Creator.