8sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellec-t-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the start of the passage, what did the traveler notice about the beliefs of the enlightened minds?

Even though they differed in ability and approach, they all shared the same belief in Allah's oneness and had strong certainty about it.

2-) What does the passage say about their certainty even though their approaches differ?

Their certainty remains steady and united.

3-) Besides intellects, what other group is described in the passage?

Sound and luminous hearts are also described.

4-) What do those hearts experience that supports faith?

They receive inner disclosures and witnessings that agree with one another.

5-) How are those hearts described in relation to divine knowledge?

Each heart is shown as a small seat of lordly knowledge and a broad mirror reflecting need for Allah.

6-) What does the phrase about being a mirror of need toward Allah suggest?

It suggests that the heart reflects human dependence on Allah.

7-) According to the passage, why is their agreement a trustworthy guide?

Because so many clear-sighted minds and hearts could not all be fooled in the same firm and lasting way by something false.

8-) What impossible situation does the passage reject?

It rejects the idea that a false thought could fool many insightful people all at the same time and in the same way.

9-) After understanding all this, what did the traveler say with his intellect and heart?

He declared his belief in Allah.

10-) What is one major theme of this passage for students to understand?

Unity in truthful testimony from many sincere minds and hearts is a powerful proof.

8sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What important similarity did the traveler find among the bright intellects?

They all agreed in faith about Allah's unity.

2-) Why does the passage mention that these intellects had different capacities?

To show that their agreement was not caused by all being exactly alike.

3-) How does the passage describe the strength of that shared faith?

It describes it as firmly rooted and impossible to pull out.

4-) What did the traveler also discover about luminous hearts?

He discovered that their spiritual perceptions agreed with each other on Allah's oneness.

5-) What two kinds of inner knowledge are mentioned for those hearts?

Their spiritual unveilings and their witnessings are mentioned.

6-) How are all the hearts described as a group?

Together they are described as a huge mirror or a sea reflecting sunlight.

7-) What do the metaphors of mirror and ocean help the reader understand?

They show that many hearts together reflect divine truth in a large and powerful way.

8-) How does the passage use the example of extreme deniers?

It says that even such people would not reasonably accept the idea that all these witnesses were equally deceived.

9-) What does the closing summary say about differences in capacity, method, and outlook?

It says those differences exist, but the agreement in belief and certainty remains.

10-) According to the summary, what supports the testimony of sound hearts?

Their corresponding unveilings and harmonizing witnessings support it.

8sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveler study first in this passage?

He studied the faith and certainty found in enlightened intellects.

2-) What differences existed among those intellects?

They differed in ability, method, and point of view.

3-) What does the passage suggest about the source of their certainty?

Their certainty came from one deep and lasting reality.

4-) What figurative language is used to show the strength of their agreement?

It is described as an unbreakable chain full of light and as a bright window toward truth.

5-) After intellects, what did the traveler notice about luminous hearts?

He saw that their spiritual discoveries and testimonies also matched one another.

6-) What is the importance of their agreement even with those differences?

It makes their testimony stronger because it comes from many different routes to the same truth.

7-) What does it mean that each heart is like a mirror?

It means each one reflects something of divine truth.

8-) What larger picture is formed when all the hearts are taken together?

They form a vast reflection of truth, like a great mirror or a sea reflecting the sun.

9-) How does the passage treat the claim that all these minds and hearts were mistaken?

It treats that claim as so unreasonable that it should be rejected.

10-) What did the traveler finally declare?

He declared his faith in Allah.

They share one firm belief in Allah's unity.

2-) What image is used to describe their shared agreement about Allah's existence and unity?

It is compared to a strong, shining chain and to a bright opening toward truth.

3-) What quality do the hearts in the passage have besides being luminous?

They are also sound and healthy in a spiritual sense.

4-) Even though the hearts had different paths and ways, what was still true?

Their inner experiences still pointed together to the same truth.

5-) How is each heart described in relation to Allah's knowledge?

Each heart is described as a small place where knowledge connected to Allah's lordship is reflected.

6-) When all the hearts are looked at together, what are they compared to?

Together they are like a huge mirror and like a sea reflecting the sun.

7-) Why is their agreement called a perfect guide and teacher?

Because it leads a person reliably to truth and is based on many confirming witnesses.

8-) How does the passage strengthen its argument by mentioning even extreme doubters?

It says that not even very misguided deniers would accept such a weak claim.

9-) What did he say after reaching this understanding?

He said that he believed in Allah.

10-) What is the main message of the whole passage?

The united certainty of sound minds and pure hearts is strong proof for Allah's existence and oneness.

8sinif supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellecks-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveler learn from the agreement of luminous intellects?

He learned that their shared belief in Allah's unity rested on one firm truth.

2-) What does their steady confidence show about the truth they followed?

It shows that it was one solid truth that does not change.

3-) What are the two images used for their agreement in faith?

Their agreement is shown as a strong shining chain and a bright opening toward truth.

4-) What second group in the passage also agrees on these truths?

The purified and radiant hearts also agree.

5-) How is each heart described individually?

Each one is presented as a small throne of knowledge and a broad mirror reflecting divine reality.

6-) How are the hearts connected to truth in the passage?

They are turned toward truth, joined to it, and they show it.
