3-) What does the passage say about the Creator's act of bringing forth the cosmos?

It says this act shows extraordinary power, wisdom, and beauty.

4-) How are human beings connected to this truth of perfection?

Human beings are described as a conscious reflection of the Creator and as an important result of creation.

5-) What does the passage teach about the relationship between the perfection of creation and the perfection of the Creator?

The perfection seen in creation points back to the perfection of the Creator.

6-) What is the cause-and-effect argument against shirk in this passage?

If shirk were accepted, then the perfection and purpose seen in everything would collapse.

7-) What would happen to living beings in that false view?

Their lives would seem harsh, painful, and without mercy.

8-) How does the passage describe the effect of that false belief on conscious beings?

It says their world would become a place of deep sadness and suffering.

9-) What does the passage say would happen to the Creator's infinite perfections if shirk were accepted?

Their reflection in creation would be covered and denied.

8sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What central idea does the title "Perfections" point to in this passage?

It points to the idea that perfection can be clearly seen in creation and that it belongs fully to Allah.

2-) Does the passage present perfection as hidden and doubtful or open and clear?

It presents perfection as open and clear.

3-) What do beautiful and amazing features of the cosmos point to?

They point to a Creator with perfect qualities.

4-) Why are human beings mentioned in a special way?

Because they are conscious and show important signs of value, ability, and meaning.

5-) What does the passage imply about human excellence?

It implies that human excellence is real and meaningful, not fake or accidental.

6-) Why would assigning partners to Allah ruin the meaning of perfect beings?

Because it would deny the true source and purpose behind their perfection.

7-) What kind of contradiction does the passage see between shirk and perfection?

It sees a direct conflict, because shirk cancels the wisdom, beauty, and value that perfection requires.

8-) What false picture of humanity would shirk create?

It would strip humans of their honor and lower them greatly.

9-) Why does the passage end the discussion briefly instead of proving everything in detail here?

Because it says those proofs were already explained strongly in another section, so this part stays short.

8sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What truth does the passage say is “extremely clear”?

It says the reality of perfection is very clear.

Its wise design and its beauty support it.

3-) What does the passage say this shows about the Creator?

It shows that the Creator must have perfection.

4-) What does the passage say about the One who created the cosmos?

It says He made it perfectly and manages it beautifully and in an extraordinary way.

5-) Why are human beings described with such high rank in the passage?

Because they are presented as especially valued and important in creation.

6-) According to the passage, what would happen to the universe if belief in partners with Allah were accepted?

The universe would be treated as meaningless and without wise purpose.

7-) According to the passage, how would the world look if it were only the result of accident?

It would look meaningless, careless, and without true purpose.

8-) How would shirk affect the status of man?

It would drag man down from an honored being to a very low condition.

9-) What conclusion should a careful reader reach from the whole argument?

A careful reader should conclude that Allah is without partner and that shirk clashes with all true perfection.

8sinif supreme-sign-p77-2nd-chapter-1st-stopping-place-perfections - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR
