

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 1

1-) What is the main subject of this passage? (25 kelime)

It explains a deep truth about

2-) What does the passage call this truth besides a truth of unity? (19 kelime)

It also calls it

3-) According to the passage, why is this truth valuable for Muslims? (13 kelime)

Because it supports

4-) To whom is repeated thanks and praise given in the passage? (4 kelime)

To

5-) What book is praised for solving this matter? (3 kelime)

6-) What source is credited with solving and proving the mystery? (5 kelime)

The

7-) How many mysteries does the passage say it intends to point to? (1 kelime)

8-) What does the writer still want to provide in this passage? (13 kelime)

A short explanation

9-) What picture is used to describe the thirteen mysteries? (11 kelime)

They are

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 2

1-) What question or problem is this passage mainly trying to address?
(23 kelime)

It is trying to explain

2-) What special mystery about creation is highlighted in the passage?
(15 kelime)

That for Allah,

3-) What does the passage say this explanation unlocks? (9 kelime)
It unlocks

4-) Why does the passage say this mystery is beyond ordinary human thinking? (17 kelime)
Because it is presented

5-) What response does the writer show after speaking about the solution to this mystery? (10 kelime)
The writer

6-) What is said to have accomplished the explanation and proof of this mystery? (9 kelime)
The Risale-i

7-) What does the passage decide to do instead of repeating all the long proofs? (19 kelime)
It leaves the full

8-) What does the writer choose to do instead? (14 kelime)

The writer gives

9-) How much of that plan was actually completed? (7 kelime)

Only

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 3

1-) In simple words, what is the “Third Truth” about in this passage?
(18 kelime)

It is about understanding

2-) What idea about “great” and “small” is stressed in the passage? (9 kelime)

It stresses

3-) How is philosophy described when facing this mystery? (11 kelime)

It is

4-) What does the passage say happens to philosophy in front of this mystery? (6 kelime)

Philosophy

5-) What emotional tone appears when the passage speaks about the solving of this mystery? (8 kelime)

A tone

6-) Does the passage try to explain the whole matter in full detail here, or something less? (14 kelime)

It only plans

7-) Why does the passage mention several sections of the Risale-i Nur? (13 kelime)

To show where

8-) What does the writer still hope to do in this passage? (13 kelime)

The writer hopes

9-) Why was the rest not completed? (13 kelime)

Two strong obstacles,

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 4

1-) What central belief is being strengthened in this passage? (7 kelime)

Belief

2-) Why does the passage treat this mystery as something very great? (16 kelime)

Because it is tied

3-) What kind of hidden matter in creation does the passage say becomes knowable through this explanation? (12 kelime)

A very secret

4-) What is one way the passage shows the greatness of this truth? (14 kelime)

It says this

5-) What act of worship appears in the middle of the passage? (4 kelime)

Thanking

6-) Does the passage say the proof is weak, probable, or decisive? (8 kelime)

It says

7-) What does the writer choose not to do fully in this passage? (10 kelime)

The writer

8-) What did the writer plan to include after the brief foundations? (7

kelime)

The

9-) What happened after the first two parts were written? (11 kelime)

The remaining

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 5

1-) What does the passage try to prove about Allah's relationship to creation? (22 kelime)

It tries to prove that

2-) What does the passage say this truth helps open and explain? (18 kelime)

It helps uncover the

3-) What does the passage say becomes opened by explaining this truth? (8 kelime)

A hidden

4-) How is human philosophy shown in comparison with this mystery? (13 kelime)

It is shown

5-) How certain does the passage say those proofs are? (13 kelime)

It says they

6-) What level of certainty is given for those arguments? (13 kelime)

They are said

7-) Why are other parts of the Risale-i Nur mentioned? (12 kelime)

Because the fuller

8-) Which of those mysteries had already been written? (4 kelime)

The

9-) What prevented the rest from being finished? (8 kelime)
Two powerful

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 6

1-) What is the key mystery discussed in this passage? (20 kelime)

The key mystery is that

2-) What effect does understanding this truth have on a person's view of the Qur'an? (11 kelime)

It helps

3-) What does the passage say this explanation makes possible for a person to know? (15 kelime)

It makes it

4-) What does the passage suggest about the limits of human reason alone? (12 kelime)

It suggests that

5-) What role does the Risale-i Nur have in the passage? (16 kelime)

It is presented as

6-) How strong are the proofs said to be in that work? (8 kelime)

They are

7-) Why does the writer send readers to other sections instead of explaining everything here? (17 kelime)

Because those sections already

8-) What stopped the writing of the remaining mysteries? (10 kelime)

Two serious

9-) What interrupted the completion of all thirteen? (6 kelime)

Two

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 1 -

CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main subject of this passage?

It explains a deep truth about Allah's oneness and power, especially that for Allah, creating the greatest thing and the smallest thing are equally easy.

2-) What does the passage call this truth besides a truth of unity?

It also calls it a useful wisdom, a great key, a difficult riddle, and a major foundation of faith.

3-) According to the passage, why is this truth valuable for Muslims?

Because it supports tawhid and serves as a deep basis for Islamic belief.

4-) To whom is repeated thanks and praise given in the passage?

To the Merciful Creator.

5-) What book is praised for solving this matter?

The Risale-i Nur.

6-) What source is credited with solving and proving the mystery?

The Risale-i Nur is credited.

7-) How many mysteries does the passage say it intends to point to?

Thirteen.

8-) What does the writer still want to provide in this passage?

A short explanation of the basic proofs and an indication of thirteen mysteries.

9-) What picture is used to describe the thirteen mysteries?

They are pictured as steps or like an outline of topics.

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 2 -

CEVAPLAR

1-) What question or problem is this passage mainly trying to address?

It is trying to explain and prove the mystery of Divine unity, especially how all things are equally easy for Allah to create.

2-) What special mystery about creation is highlighted in the passage?

That for Allah, creating something vast and creating something tiny are the same in ease.

3-) What does the passage say this explanation unlocks?

It unlocks a hidden wisdom connected to the Qur'an.

4-) Why does the passage say this mystery is beyond ordinary human thinking?

Because it is presented as a very deep riddle that human reason by itself cannot fully reach.

5-) What response does the writer show after speaking about the solution to this mystery?

The writer responds with abundant praise and thanks to Allah.

6-) What is said to have accomplished the explanation and proof of this mystery?

The Risale-i Nur is said to have done so.

7-) What does the passage decide to do instead of repeating all the long proofs?

It leaves the full explanation to other parts of the Risale-i Nur and gives only a brief foundation here.

8-) What does the writer choose to do instead?

The writer gives a short presentation of the foundations and points toward thirteen mysteries.

9-) How much of that plan was actually completed?

Only the first two mysteries were written.

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 3 -

CEVAPLAR

1-) In simple words, what is the “Third Truth” about in this passage?

It is about understanding Allah’s oneness through His unlimited power, which makes all creation equally easy for Him.

2-) What idea about “great” and “small” is stressed in the passage?

It stresses that both are equal before Allah’s power.

3-) How is philosophy described when facing this mystery?

It is shown as unable to fully solve or overpower it.

4-) What does the passage say happens to philosophy in front of this mystery?

Philosophy is left powerless before it.

5-) What emotional tone appears when the passage speaks about the solving of this mystery?

A tone of gratitude, praise, and relief appears.

6-) Does the passage try to explain the whole matter in full detail here, or something less?

It only plans to give a short outline of the main foundations and proofs.

7-) Why does the passage mention several sections of the Risale-i Nur?

To show where readers can find fuller proofs and discussions of this matter.

8-) What does the writer still hope to do in this passage?

The writer hopes to briefly lay out the main bases of the explanation.

9-) Why was the rest not completed?

Two strong obstacles, one material and one immaterial, caused the writer to stop.

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 4 -

CEVAPLAR

1-) What central belief is being strengthened in this passage?

Belief in Allah's unity and perfect power.

2-) Why does the passage treat this mystery as something very great?

Because it is tied to Divine unity, faith, and the understanding of creation and the Qur'an.

3-) What kind of hidden matter in creation does the passage say becomes knowable through this explanation?

A very secret mystery about how beings are created becomes better understood.

4-) What is one way the passage shows the greatness of this truth?

It says this truth is among the most important bases of Islam and faith.

5-) What act of worship appears in the middle of the passage?

Thanking and praising Allah.

6-) Does the passage say the proof is weak, probable, or decisive?

It says the proof is decisive and certain.

7-) What does the writer choose not to do fully in this passage?

The writer does not give the complete detailed proof here.

8-) What did the writer plan to include after the brief foundations?

The writer planned to mention thirteen mysteries.

9-) What happened after the first two parts were written?

The remaining parts were left unfinished because of two difficult obstacles.

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 5 -

CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage try to prove about Allah's relationship to creation?

It tries to prove that Allah alone can create all things, and that nothing is too great or too small for Him.

2-) What does the passage say this truth helps open and explain?

It helps uncover the deep meanings of the Qur'an and the hidden mystery in the creation of beings.

3-) What does the passage say becomes opened by explaining this truth?

A hidden lock of the Qur'an is opened.

4-) How is human philosophy shown in comparison with this mystery?

It is shown as too weak to master or solve it by itself.

5-) How certain does the passage say those proofs are?

It says they are as certain and clear as a basic math fact.

6-) What level of certainty is given for those arguments?

They are said to be certain in a very clear and undeniable way.

7-) Why are other parts of the Risale-i Nur mentioned?

Because the fuller treatment of the matter is left to those sections.

8-) Which of those mysteries had already been written?

The first and second.

9-) What prevented the rest from being finished?

Two powerful difficulties, one physical and one non-physical.

8sinif supreme-sign-p86-3rd-truth-the-importance-of-this-mystery-and-reference-to-the-risale-i-nur - Set 6 -

CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the key mystery discussed in this passage?

The key mystery is that Allah's power makes the largest universal thing and the smallest particular thing equal in ease.

2-) What effect does understanding this truth have on a person's view of the Qur'an?

It helps a person see the Qur'an's deep meanings more clearly.

3-) What does the passage say this explanation makes possible for a person to know?

It makes it possible to know a very hidden secret about the creation of beings.

4-) What does the passage suggest about the limits of human reason alone?

It suggests that reason by itself cannot fully reach this deep matter.

5-) What role does the Risale-i Nur have in the passage?

It is presented as the work that solved, uncovered, and established this truth with strong proof.

6-) How strong are the proofs said to be in that work?

They are described as firm, clear, and decisive.

7-) Why does the writer send readers to other sections instead of explaining everything here?

Because those sections already treat the matter in detail, while this place is for a brief presentation.

8-) What stopped the writing of the remaining mysteries?

Two serious barriers, one outward and one inward, prevented it.

9-) What interrupted the completion of all thirteen?

Two powerful obstacles interrupted the work.