Cevap 4 They all come from the same Creator, not from many separate makers.	Cevap 3 It teaches that the food we receive comes through the ordered working of the whole cosmos.	Cevap 2 True provision comes from the Creator Who manages the whole world.	Cevap 1 It requires the power of the One Who controls the large movements of the world, like the cycle of time and the turning of the earth.
Cevap 8 The purpose is to show that each fruit carries proof of one Creator.	Cevap 7 It means the apple is produced through the working of the whole creation, not by itself.	Cevap 6 It is described as belonging among similar and related creatures under one Lord.	Cevap 5 To show unity in creation and that all are made by the same Maker.
Cevap 12 It suggests a complete, balanced order that serves the coming of provision.	Cevap 11 To show that provision is brought to people through a planned system.	Cevap 10 A single apple can only be made and given by the Creator Who rules over the whole universe.	Cevap 9 Every fruit adds another witness to the same truth, so the evidence becomes very great.

13 Why can the apple not be understood as something made in isolation?	14 What is the logical link between the apple and the rest of the natural world?	15 Why must the maker of the apple also be the maker of the cosmos in this argument?	16 Why does the passage mention the earth, the cosmos, the seasons, and warm months together?

Cevap 16 To show that the fruit is connected to a complete system of place, process, and timing.	Cevap 15 Because the cosmos functions like the larger setting and producing system needed for the apple.	Cevap 14 The apple is part of an interconnected creation, so its maker must have authority over that whole network.	Cevap 13 Because its existence depends on many connected causes and conditions in creation.
Cevap 20 To show that even one fruit depends on the control of huge realities in creation.	Cevap 19 It is important because it serves as evidence of Allah's power, wisdom, and oneness.	Cevap 18 It reveals that both are meaningful creations made by one wise Lord.	Cevap 17 Each fruit makes known the One Who created the earth and the universe.
Cevap 24 It means the apple grows within the wide place prepared for it by Allah.	Cevap 23 It rejects that idea by showing that one fruit is linked to the whole creation.	Cevap 22 Signs of wise design, mercy, and a mark that points to one Lord.	Cevap 21 It says the same signs of wise making, mercy, and a mark showing one Maker are found on all of them.
