Cevap 4 They receive inner disclosures and witnessings that agree with one another.	Cevap 3 Sound and luminous hearts are also described.	Cevap 2 Their certainty remains steady and united.	Cevap 1 Even though they differed in ability and approach, they all shared the same belief in Allah's oneness and had strong certainty about it.
Cevap 8 It rejects the idea that a false thought could fool many insightful people all at the same time and in the same way.	Cevap 7 Because so many clear-sighted minds and hearts could not all be fooled in the same firm and lasting way by something false.	Cevap 6 It suggests that the heart reflects human dependence on Allah.	Cevap 5 Each heart is shown as a small seat of lordly knowledge and a broad mirror reflecting need for Allah.
Cevap 12 To show that their agreement was not caused by all being exactly alike.	Cevap 11 They all agreed in faith about Allah's unity.	Cevap 10 Unity in truthful testimony from many sincere minds and hearts is a powerful proof.	Cevap 9 He declared his belief in Allah.

13 How does the passage describe the strength of that shared faith?	14 What did the traveler also discover about luminous hearts?	15 What two kinds of inner knowledge are mentioned for those hearts?	16 How are all the hearts described as a group?

Cevap 16 Together they are described as a huge mirror or a sea reflecting sunlight.	Cevap 15 Their spiritual unveilings and their witnessings are mentioned.	Cevap 14 He discovered that their spiritual perceptions agreed with each other on Allah's oneness.	Cevap 13 It describes it as firmly rooted and impossible to pull out.
Cevap 20 Their corresponding unveilings and harmonizing witnessings support it.	Cevap 19 It says those differences exist, but the agreement in belief and certainty remains.	Cevap 18 It says that even such people would not reasonably accept the idea that all these witnesses were equally deceived.	Cevap 17 They show that many hearts together reflect divine truth in a large and powerful way.
Cevap 24 It is described as an unbreakable chain full of light and as a bright window toward truth.	Cevap 23 Their certainty came from one deep and lasting reality.	Cevap 22 They differed in ability, method, and point of view.	Cevap 21 He studied the faith and certainty found in enlightened intellects.
