

|                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 What is one main idea of this passage about the elements and species spread across the earth? | 2 How does the passage describe the reach of the basic materials of creation?                          | 3 What is said about each kind of living thing or created kind on earth?                      | 4 What does that worldwide spread prove about the elements and species?                       |
| 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-   | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-          | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- |
| 5 Why does the passage compare elements to obedient workers?                                    | 6 Why are species compared to organized soldiers?                                                      | 7 What can we understand about the power of the Creator from these comparisons?               | 8 Does the passage present the world as random or directed with purpose? Explain.             |
| 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-   | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-          | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- |
| 9 What does the phrase about this truth being explained elsewhere tell the reader?              | 10 At the end of the passage, what does the speaker choose to do instead of giving a long explanation? | 11 Which two big groups in creation are discussed in this passage?                            | 12 What is important about the fact that the elements cover the earth?                        |
| 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-   | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-          | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- |

|                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                        |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Cevap 4 It shows they belong to one Being and come from Him alone.                                                               | Cevap 3 Each kind is spread broadly across the earth in a united way.                         | Cevap 2 It says they are found all over the earth.                                                  | Cevap 1 Their wide spread and shared pattern point to one Creator who owns and controls them all. |
| Cevap 8 It presents the world as directed with purpose, because the elements and species are shown as serving under one command. | Cevap 7 His power is great enough to manage both massive elements and countless living kinds. | Cevap 6 Because they are many in number, spread everywhere, and still act under one rule and order. | Cevap 5 To show that even huge natural forces act under the command of one powerful Lord.         |
| Cevap 12 Their universal presence supports the idea that one Lord oversees the whole earth.                                      | Cevap 11 The basic elements of creation and the different species of created things.          | Cevap 10 He gives only a brief indication.                                                          | Cevap 9 This section is only a short reminder, not the full proof.                                |

|                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                       |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13 What is important about the fact that species are spread across the earth as unified groups? | 14 How do the individual members of each species support belief in Divine oneness?            | 15 What is the meaning of saying these things are the property of a single being?             | 16 What does the passage teach about the relationship between the Creator and the natural world? |
| 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-   | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-    |
| 17 Why is the Creator described as both unique and powerful?                                    | 18 What lesson about unity comes from the order of creation in this passage?                  | 19 Is the focus here mainly on human actions or on signs in creation?                         | 20 How would you summarize the proof given in this passage in one sentence?                      |
| 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-   | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-    |
| 21 According to the passage, what do the elements of creation do in relation to the earth?      | 22 What does the passage say each species carries?                                            | 23 What idea is suggested by saying a species “conquers” the earth?                           | 24 Why does the spread of species count as evidence and not just as a fact of nature?            |
| 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-   | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of- | 8sinif supreme-sign-p95-2nd-stopping-place-5th-truth-the-unity-of-name-and-act-and-the-all-encompassing-nature-of-    |

|                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                     |                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Cevap 16 The natural world serves Him and carries out His command.                                                           | Cevap 15 They are under His ownership, authority, and control. | Cevap 14 Even though they are many, they belong to one kind and point back to one Maker. | Cevap 13 It shows they follow one pattern and come from one source.                            |
| Cevap 20 Since the same elements and species are spread across the whole earth in an ordered way, they point to one Creator. | Cevap 19 It is mainly on signs in creation.                    | Cevap 18 Many different things can still be governed by one will.                        | Cevap 17 Because only such a Lord could control all elements and all species across the earth. |
| Cevap 24 Because their unity and wide distribution suggest one planner and one owner behind them.                            | Cevap 23 It spreads widely and strongly across the earth.      | Cevap 22 A sign or mark that points to unity.                                            | Cevap 21 They extend throughout it.                                                            |