

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 1

1-) According to the passage, why was humanity sent into this world? (10 kelime)

To know

2-) What does the passage present as the most basic human duty? (16 kelime)

Knowing Allah, having faith

3-) How does the passage connect human purpose with wisdom? (14 kelime)

It says the

4-) What human desire is mentioned first when explaining why faith matters so much? (9 kelime)

The desire

5-) What two sides of human experience are placed next to each other in the passage? (7 kelime)

Very

6-) According to the passage, what gives eternal life its foundation and key? (13 kelime)

Belief in Allah,

7-) How does the passage judge achievements that are separate from faith and knowledge of Allah? (14 kelime)

It treats them

8-) Why does the passage emphasize certainty and submission along with belief? (19 kelime)

Because true faith is

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 2

1-) In the passage, what is the central goal of human existence? (13 kelime)

The central goal

2-) What does the passage say people are required to affirm about Allah? (5 kelime)

His

3-) What attitude should accompany this affirmation? (5 kelime)

Humble

4-) Which human longing makes eternal faith especially important in the passage? (6 kelime)

The

5-) What does the passage suggest about the scale of human hopes and hardships? (10 kelime)

Both are

6-) Why are faith and knowledge of Allah given the highest rank in the passage? (12 kelime)

Because they are

7-) What comparison is made between faith-centered goals and other achievements? (17 kelime)

Other achievements are presented

8-) Does the passage deny that people may value other accomplishments, or does it rank them beneath something greater? (13 kelime)

It ranks them

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 3

1-) What does the verse-based explanation in the passage say is the reason for human life in this world? (15 kelime)

Human life is

2-) What is described as the first responsibility placed on human beings? (7 kelime)

To

3-) Beyond belief itself, what further acknowledgment is required? (7 kelime)

Acceptance

4-) What does the passage say about human nature that helps explain this teaching? (9 kelime)

Human beings

5-) Along with vast hopes, what other human reality does the passage mention? (7 kelime)

People

6-) What are the means that lead to eternal life according to the passage? (13 kelime)

Faith in Allah,

7-) Why does the passage lower the status of other pursuits? (15 kelime)

Because they do

8-) What cause-and-effect relationship appears in the passage? (18 kelime)

Because humans long for

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 4

1-) According to the passage, what is the wisdom behind sending people into the world? (16 kelime)

The wisdom is that

2-) What does the passage identify as the core obligations of a human being? (15 kelime)

Knowing Allah, believing

3-) What built-in human desire is mentioned as part of the argument? (6 kelime)

The

4-) How does the passage portray the emotional condition of human beings in the world? (14 kelime)

It portrays them

5-) What role do belief and knowledge of Allah play in relation to eternal life? (11 kelime)

They are

6-) How are non-spiritual goals evaluated when separated from belief? (13 kelime)

They are seen

7-) What contrast is the passage building between temporary and lasting things? (13 kelime)

Temporary gains are

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 5

1-) What does the passage say human beings are meant to do in this world? (12 kelime)

They are meant

2-) What truths about Allah must a person accept according to the passage? (8 kelime)

That He

3-) What inner qualities should come with that acceptance? (5 kelime)

Obedient

4-) What does the passage say human beings naturally seek? (8 kelime)

They naturally

5-) What difficult reality stands alongside those desires? (6 kelime)

Human

6-) Why are belief in Allah and knowledge of Him described in such elevated terms? (11 kelime)

Because they

7-) How does the passage assess goals that do not help a person reach faith or knowledge of Allah? (17 kelime)

It says such goals

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 6

1-) In this passage, what is presented as the reason for mankind being placed in the world? (15 kelime)

Mankind was placed

2-) What first-level duties are named for every human being? (12 kelime)

To know Allah,

3-) How should a person hold these truths according to the passage? (6 kelime)

With

4-) Which lasting human wish gives force to the passage's argument? (8 kelime)

The wish

5-) What other part of human life makes this issue urgent? (9 kelime)

Human beings

6-) What does the passage call the basis and key of eternal life? (13 kelime)

Belief in Allah,

7-) How are other goals described when compared with these spiritual realities? (11 kelime)

They are

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, why was humanity sent into this world?
To know the Creator, believe in Him, and worship Him.

2-) What does the passage present as the most basic human duty?
Knowing Allah, having faith in Him, and affirming His oneness with willing submission and firm certainty.

3-) How does the passage connect human purpose with wisdom?
It says the wisdom behind human life is fulfilled through recognizing and serving Allah.

4-) What human desire is mentioned first when explaining why faith matters so much?

The desire to live forever and not pass away.

5-) What two sides of human experience are placed next to each other in the passage?

Very wide hopes and very many troubles.

6-) According to the passage, what gives eternal life its foundation and key?

Belief in Allah, knowledge of Allah, and the ways that lead to them.

7-) How does the passage judge achievements that are separate from faith and knowledge of Allah?

It treats them as beneath human worth, and sometimes as having no real value.

8-) Why does the passage emphasize certainty and submission along with belief?

Because true faith is shown not just by saying it, but by inward acceptance and confidence in Allah's unity.

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, what is the central goal of human existence?

The central goal is to recognize Allah, believe in Him, and worship Him.

2-) What does the passage say people are required to affirm about Allah?

His existence and His oneness.

3-) What attitude should accompany this affirmation?

Humble acceptance and complete certainty.

4-) Which human longing makes eternal faith especially important in the passage?

The deep longing for lasting life.

5-) What does the passage suggest about the scale of human hopes and hardships?

Both are described as extremely great and without clear limit.

6-) Why are faith and knowledge of Allah given the highest rank in the passage?

Because they are presented as the basis and doorway to everlasting life.

7-) What comparison is made between faith-centered goals and other achievements?

Other achievements are presented as far less important, and sometimes empty, next to faith and knowing Allah.

8-) Does the passage deny that people may value other accomplishments, or does it rank them beneath something greater?

It ranks them beneath something greater, which is faith and knowledge of Allah.

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the verse-based explanation in the passage say is the reason for human life in this world?

Human life is for recognizing the Creator and living in faith and worship toward Him.

2-) What is described as the first responsibility placed on human beings?

To know Allah and believe in Him.

3-) Beyond belief itself, what further acknowledgment is required?

Acceptance of Allah's existence and absolute oneness.

4-) What does the passage say about human nature that helps explain this teaching?

Human beings naturally want lasting life and endless existence.

5-) Along with vast hopes, what other human reality does the passage mention?

People also carry many troubles and sufferings.

6-) What are the means that lead to eternal life according to the passage?

Faith in Allah, knowledge of Allah, and whatever helps a person reach them.

7-) Why does the passage lower the status of other pursuits?

Because they do not match the human need for eternal meaning the way faith does.

8-) What cause-and-effect relationship appears in the passage?

Because humans long for permanence and face many hardships, faith and knowledge of Allah become their highest need.

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what is the wisdom behind sending people into the world?

The wisdom is that they come to know their Creator, believe in Him, and worship Him.

2-) What does the passage identify as the core obligations of a human being?

Knowing Allah, believing in Him, and affirming His being and oneness with submission and certainty.

3-) What built-in human desire is mentioned as part of the argument? The built-in desire for unending life.

4-) How does the passage portray the emotional condition of human beings in the world?

It portrays them as full of huge hopes while also surrounded by many hardships.

5-) What role do belief and knowledge of Allah play in relation to eternal life?

They are its main support and the way to reach it.

6-) How are non-spiritual goals evaluated when separated from belief? They are seen as small and, in many situations, not truly worth much.

7-) What contrast is the passage building between temporary and lasting things?

Temporary gains are contrasted with the everlasting value of faith and knowing Allah.

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say human beings are meant to do in this world?

They are meant to know Allah, believe in Him, and worship Him.

2-) What truths about Allah must a person accept according to the passage?

That He exists and that He is one.

3-) What inner qualities should come with that acceptance?

Obedient surrender and strong certainty.

4-) What does the passage say human beings naturally seek?

They naturally seek permanent life and lasting existence.

5-) What difficult reality stands alongside those desires?

Human beings also face many afflictions.

6-) Why are belief in Allah and knowledge of Him described in such elevated terms?

Because they are the essential basis and pathway for everlasting life.

7-) How does the passage assess goals that do not help a person reach faith or knowledge of Allah?

It says such goals are low in value for a human being and can even be worthless.

lisans supreme-sign-p03-introduction-mans-purpose-and-the-declaration-of-2-abysses - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, what is presented as the reason for mankind being placed in the world?

Mankind was placed here to recognize the Creator, have faith in Him, and worship Him.

2-) What first-level duties are named for every human being?

To know Allah, believe in Him, and affirm His existence and unity.

3-) How should a person hold these truths according to the passage?

With willing submission and full assurance.

4-) Which lasting human wish gives force to the passage's argument?

The wish for life that does not end.

5-) What other part of human life makes this issue urgent?

Human beings carry countless troubles along with their hopes.

6-) What does the passage call the basis and key of eternal life?

Belief in Allah, knowledge of Allah, and the means that lead to them.

7-) How are other goals described when compared with these spiritual realities?

They are described as inferior and often of no real worth.