lisans supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellec-t-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What did the traveler first notice about the convictions of the luminous intellects?

He noticed that they all shared the same belief in Allah's oneness and held it with firm certainty, even though their abilities and approaches differed.

2-) Why is the agreement of the intellects striking in this passage?

It is striking because they are not all alike in ability or perspective, yet they still reach the same settled belief.

3-) What does their shared certainty reveal about the source of their belief?

It reveals that their belief comes from one enduring truth.

4-) What do these hearts possess that supports belief in Divine unity?

They possess lofty inner disclosures and witnessings that agree with one another.

5-) How are the hearts portrayed in relation to knowledge of Allah?

They are portrayed as places where that knowledge appears and is reflected.

6-) Why is their agreement especially meaningful despite those differences?

Because agreement across different paths suggests that the truth they perceive is real and not produced by one single method.

7-) What possibility does the passage reject as impossible or absurd?

It rejects the idea that error, false imagination, or an untrue claim could deceive all of those sharp and enlightened perceivers at once.

8-) What personal transformation happens in the traveler by the end?

His faith becomes an affirmed conviction shared by both his mind and his heart.

9-) What is the purpose of mentioning people with extreme skeptical views?

It emphasizes that the opposing claim is so weak that even radical doubters would not accept it.

10-) How does the summary explain the witness of luminous hearts?

It says their corresponding unveilings and harmonious witnessings point to Allah's necessary existence and oneness despite differences in spiritual path and manner.

lisans supreme-sign-p33-straight-intellec-t-and-sound-hearts-12th-13th-degrees-the-agreement-of-sound-hearts-in-unveiling-and-witnessing - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, what stays constant even though people differ in capacity, method, and outlook?

Their belief in Divine unity and their certainty about it stay constant.

2-) How does the passage treat differences in method and outlook among these intellects?

It treats them as real differences, but not as obstacles to their shared conclusion.

3-) What conclusion does the traveler draw from that shared conviction?

He concludes that they depend on one fixed and profound truth.

4-) Why is the agreement of these hearts important for the passage's main argument?

Because it provides a second line of support, alongside the intellects, for Allah's existence and oneness.

5-) How are these hearts connected to dominical knowledge?

Each heart is presented as reflecting knowledge related to the Lord.

6-) Why does the passage move from the image of a single window to a vast sea-like reflection?

To show the difference between individual testimony and the overwhelming force of many testimonies together.

7-) What kinds of error are specifically ruled out in the passage?

Mere assumption, false thought, and an untrue quality or claim are ruled out.

8-) How does the passage argue from number and quality at the same time?
