lisans supreme-sign-p34-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-5-truths-of-revelation - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What question does the traveller ask when he turns toward the unseen realm?

He wonders what that hidden realm itself has to say.

2-) What evidence from the visible world prepares him for that search? The crafted beauty, blessings, and remarkable works in the physical world.

3-) Why does the traveller reason that this One must also speak? Because One who shows Himself through deeds and blessings would also make Himself known through speech.

4-) What conclusion does the traveller draw from these nonverbal signs?

That their Maker must also disclose Himself by speech.

5-) What does the passage say Allah does not do regarding knowledge of Himself?

He does not leave people to know Him only through created things.

6-) What does the passage say about relying only on the universe as proof of Allah?

It says that is not the only proof, since Allah also speaks about Himself.

7-) What makes the reality of revelation clear and undeniable for the traveller?

The agreement of a vast number of prophets, their united message about revelation, and the proofs and miracles found in revealed books and pages.

8-) What large-scale agreement supports the certainty of revelation? The united witness of one hundred thousand prophets.

9-) How does the passage evaluate the joint proof of these revealed truths?

It calls that proof extremely strong, even stronger than sunlight proving the sun.

lisans supreme-sign-p34-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-5-truths-of-revelation - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) When the traveller reflects on the unseen world, what main idea comes to his mind first?

He realizes that the Maker behind creation wants to introduce Himself.

2-) What does he infer from the abundance of beauty and blessing in the visible world?

He infers that there is a hidden Lord intentionally showing His qualities.

3-) What further conclusion follows from that first way of communication?

That He would also communicate by actual speech.

4-) Why does that prior communication lead naturally to the idea of revelation?

Because purposeful self-disclosure through acts points to self-disclosure through words.

5-) How strong is the testimony carried by revelation and inspiration?

It is presented as stronger than the testimony given by the universe and its beings.

6-) In evidential force, how does revelation compare with the testimony of creatures?

It is stronger and more decisive.

7-) What two things in divine speech make Allah known?

Its meanings and the fact that He addresses creation.

8-) How do both content and act function in divine speech?

The content tells who He is, and the act of addressing creation also displays His attributes.
