

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the- testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th- and-15th-degrees - Set 1

1-) What is the main belief statement expressed at the start of the target passage? (19 kelime)

It affirms that only

2-) According to the passage, what two broad kinds of evidence point to Allah's necessary existence and unity? (9 kelime)

True revelations

3-) What does the passage say true revelations include? (22 kelime)

They include Allah's making Himself

4-) What does the passage say truthful inspirations include? (26 kelime)

They include signs of Allah's love,

5-) How are revelations and inspirations presented in relation to one another? (19 kelime)

They are presented as

6-) What role does consensus play in the argument about revelation? (17 kelime)

The shared witness of 7-) What role does agreement play in the argument about inspiration? (19 kelime)

The harmony among truthful

8-) Why does the passage mention both invocations and appeals for aid? (21 kelime)

To show that Allah responds

9-) What is the strongest overall takeaway from the target passage? (18 kelime)

All authentic forms of

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 2

1-) What central conclusion is drawn from that lesson? (8 kelime)
Allah's necessary

2-) Which kind of evidence in the passage is connected with direct divine communication on a higher level? (6 kelime)
True

3-) Which kind of evidence in the passage is connected with inner truthful guidance and response? (6 kelime)
Veracious

4-) How does the passage describe Allah's response to human prayer within revelation? (10 kelime)
It presents

5-) How does the passage describe Allah's response to need within inspiration? (14 kelime)
It presents inspiration

6-) What is one similarity between revelation and inspiration in the passage? (10 kelime)
Both serve

7-) What is one difference in emphasis between revelation and inspiration in the passage? (26 kelime)
Revelation is described more in terms

8-) What overall image of Allah emerges from the combined evidence in the passage? (23 kelime)

Allah appears as the One

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 3

1-) What declaration stands at the heart of the passage? (9 kelime)
The declaration

2-) Besides Allah's oneness, what other attribute is strongly emphasized? (8 kelime)
His existence

3-) According to the passage, how do all true revelations function as evidence? (11 kelime)
They collectively

4-) What kinds of divine actions are included under true revelations in this passage? (20 kelime)
Coming near in a fitting

5-) According to the passage, what kinds of divine actions are included under truthful inspirations? (17 kelime)
Showing love, answering prayers,

6-) Why is the repeated structure about revelation and inspiration important? (15 kelime)
It shows that

7-) What does the wording about Allah's creatures and servants suggest about human beings? (18 kelime)
It suggests that people

8-) If someone asked for the main idea of the whole passage in one sentence, what would be a strong answer? (20 kelime)

The passage teaches that both

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 4

1-) What is being summarized in the target passage? (13 kelime)

A lesson about

2-) What is the first major source of proof named in the summary? (7 kelime)

The

3-) What is the second major source of proof named in the summary? (6 kelime)

The

4-) In the passage, how is revelation connected to Allah's communication with humanity? (18 kelime)

It is connected to

5-) In the passage, how is inspiration connected to Allah's care for creation? (20 kelime)

It is connected to His

6-) Why does the passage mention many revelations and many inspirations rather than only one example of each? (13 kelime)

It emphasizes breadth

7-) What view of divine mercy is reflected in the passage? (17 kelime)

Divine mercy is shown

8-) Why is this passage useful for building conviction rather than only giving information? (15 kelime)

Because it presents

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the- testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th- and-15th-degrees - Set 5

1-) What does the passage say all true revelations agree on? (9 kelime)

They agree

2-) What does the passage say all truthful inspirations agree on? (10 kelime)

They also

3-) What aspect of Allah is highlighted by the mention of divine love in inspiration? (9 kelime)

His care

4-) What aspect of Allah is highlighted by the mention of answering prayers? (11 kelime)

His mercy

5-) What aspect of Allah is highlighted by the mention of helping His servants when they seek aid? (9 kelime)

His support,

6-) What aspect of Allah is highlighted by the mention of indications of His existence to creatures? (13 kelime)

His desire to

7-) What can be inferred from the phrase describing Allah as one and single? (11 kelime)

It stresses

8-) How does the passage balance Allah's greatness and His nearness?
(16 kelime)

It presents Him as

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the- testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th- and-15th-degrees - Set 6

1-) What truth is affirmed before any supporting evidence is listed? (15 kelime)

The truth that

2-) How does the passage organize its supporting evidence? (18 kelime)
It divides the evidence

3-) What does the passage teach about revelation as a witness to Allah? (14 kelime)

Revelation bears witness

4-) What does the passage teach about inspiration as a witness to Allah? (17 kelime)

Inspiration bears witness through

5-) What is the significance of the words showing consensus and agreement in the passage? (12 kelime)

They show that

6-) What human experiences mentioned in the passage are tied to receiving divine response? (13 kelime)

Prayer, calling upon

7-) What does the passage suggest about the accessibility of signs of Allah? (18 kelime)

Signs of Allah are

8-) What can be inferred about Allah's relationship with His creatures from this passage? (19 kelimeler)
He is not distant

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main belief statement expressed at the start of the target passage?

It affirms that only Allah is worthy of worship and that He necessarily exists as the One without partner.

2-) According to the passage, what two broad kinds of evidence point to Allah's necessary existence and unity?

True revelations and truthful inspirations both point to it.

3-) What does the passage say true revelations include?

They include Allah's making Himself known, His exalted communication, His responding mercifully to people's prayers, and His indicating His existence to creation.

4-) What does the passage say truthful inspirations include?

They include signs of Allah's love, answers to prayers, help given in response to cries for aid, and subtle awareness of His existence given to creatures.

5-) How are revelations and inspirations presented in relation to one another?

They are presented as two agreeing bodies of testimony that support the same truth about Allah's existence and oneness.

6-) What role does consensus play in the argument about revelation?

The shared witness of all genuine revelations strengthens the proof that Allah necessarily exists and is one.

7-) What role does agreement play in the argument about inspiration?

The harmony among truthful inspirations shows that they are not random or isolated, but united in pointing to Allah.

8-) Why does the passage mention both invocations and appeals for aid?

To show that Allah responds to people in different states of need, whether they are praying, calling out, or seeking help.

9-) What is the strongest overall takeaway from the target passage?

All authentic forms of divine communication consistently lead to recognition of Allah's necessary existence, unity, mercy, and care.

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What central conclusion is drawn from that lesson?

Allah's necessary existence and absolute oneness are established.

2-) Which kind of evidence in the passage is connected with direct divine communication on a higher level?

True revelation is connected with that.

3-) Which kind of evidence in the passage is connected with inner truthful guidance and response?

Veracious inspiration is connected with that.

4-) How does the passage describe Allah's response to human prayer within revelation?

It presents revelation as including merciful response to people's supplications.

5-) How does the passage describe Allah's response to need within inspiration?

It presents inspiration as including answers to prayers and support for servants seeking help.

6-) What is one similarity between revelation and inspiration in the passage?

Both serve as signs that Allah exists and is one.

7-) What is one difference in emphasis between revelation and inspiration in the passage?

Revelation is described more in terms of divine disclosure and lofty communication, while inspiration is described more in terms of loving, merciful response and inward indication.

8-) What overall image of Allah emerges from the combined evidence in the passage?

Allah appears as the One who is uniquely real, fully one, caring toward His creatures, and active in making Himself known to them.

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the- testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th- and-15th-degrees - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What declaration stands at the heart of the passage?

The declaration that there is no god but Allah.

2-) Besides Allah's oneness, what other attribute is strongly emphasized?

His existence is necessary, not dependent or optional.

3-) According to the passage, how do all true revelations function as evidence?

They collectively testify that Allah exists necessarily and has no partner.

4-) What kinds of divine actions are included under true revelations in this passage?

Coming near in a fitting way, speaking gloriously, making Himself known as Lord, responding with mercy, and indicating His existence.

5-) According to the passage, what kinds of divine actions are included under truthful inspirations?

Showing love, answering prayers, helping those who call for aid, and giving inner signs of His existence.

6-) Why is the repeated structure about revelation and inspiration important?

It shows that different channels of divine communication lead to the same conclusion about Allah.

7-) What does the wording about Allah's creatures and servants suggest about human beings?

It suggests that people are dependent on Allah and stand in need of His guidance, mercy, and help.

8-) If someone asked for the main idea of the whole passage in one sentence, what would be a strong answer?

The passage teaches that both revelation and truthful inspiration consistently bear witness that Allah alone necessarily exists and is one.

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the- testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th- and-15th-degrees - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is being summarized in the target passage?

A lesson about knowing Allah drawn from what is beyond ordinary sensory experience.

2-) What is the first major source of proof named in the summary?

The united witness of all genuine revelations.

3-) What is the second major source of proof named in the summary?

The agreement of all truthful inspirations.

4-) In the passage, how is revelation connected to Allah's communication with humanity?

It is connected to His making Himself known, speaking in a lofty way, and responding to human calling.

5-) In the passage, how is inspiration connected to Allah's care for creation?

It is connected to His love, His answering of prayers, His giving help, and His letting creatures sense His existence.

6-) Why does the passage mention many revelations and many inspirations rather than only one example of each?

It emphasizes breadth and shared testimony, making the proof stronger through widespread agreement.

7-) What view of divine mercy is reflected in the passage?

Divine mercy is shown as active and responsive, not abstract, because Allah answers prayer and gives aid.

8-) Why is this passage useful for building conviction rather than only giving information?

Because it presents repeated, united testimony from multiple forms of divine communication, which strengthens certainty.

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the-testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th-and-15th-degrees - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say all true revelations agree on?

They agree that Allah necessarily exists and is one.

2-) What does the passage say all truthful inspirations agree on?

They also agree that Allah necessarily exists and is one.

3-) What aspect of Allah is highlighted by the mention of divine love in inspiration?

His care and affection toward His creatures are highlighted.

4-) What aspect of Allah is highlighted by the mention of answering prayers?

His mercy and attentiveness to the needs of creation are highlighted.

5-) What aspect of Allah is highlighted by the mention of helping His servants when they seek aid?

His support, lordship, and readiness to assist are highlighted.

6-) What aspect of Allah is highlighted by the mention of indications of His existence to creatures?

His desire to make His existence known to those He created is highlighted.

7-) What can be inferred from the phrase describing Allah as one and single?

It stresses complete uniqueness and rules out any rival or partner.

8-) How does the passage balance Allah's greatness and His nearness?

It presents Him as exalted and unique, yet also responsive, loving, and communicative toward His creatures.

lisans supreme-sign-p39-the-world-of-the-unseen-the- testimony-of-inspiration-and-the-summary-of-the-14th- and-15th-degrees - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What truth is affirmed before any supporting evidence is listed?
The truth that Allah alone is God and that He necessarily exists in perfect oneness.

2-) How does the passage organize its supporting evidence?
It divides the evidence into what is shown by genuine revelation and what is shown by truthful inspiration.

3-) What does the passage teach about revelation as a witness to Allah?

Revelation bears witness through divine communication, self-disclosure, merciful response, and signs of Allah's existence.

4-) What does the passage teach about inspiration as a witness to Allah?

Inspiration bears witness through love, answers to prayer, help in need, and inward signs of Allah's presence.

5-) What is the significance of the words showing consensus and agreement in the passage?

They show that the testimony is collective and mutually reinforcing, not isolated.

6-) What human experiences mentioned in the passage are tied to receiving divine response?

Prayer, calling upon Allah, and seeking help are tied to receiving divine response.

7-) What does the passage suggest about the accessibility of signs of Allah?

Signs of Allah are available through more than one channel, including both revealed messages and truthful inward inspiration.

8-) What can be inferred about Allah's relationship with His creatures from this passage?

He is not distant from them; He makes Himself known, answers them, and gives them signs of His presence.